

this Budget is serious and realistic, even in a constituency which will become Conservative in a short while, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: I regret to interrupt the Hon. Member. It being 5:45 p.m., it is my duty pursuant to Standing Order 84(6) to interrupt the proceedings and put forthwith the question on the subamendment now before the House.

[English]

The question is on the amendment to the amendment. Mr. Riis, seconded by Mr. Parry, moved:

That the amendment be amended by changing the period at the end thereof to a comma, and by adding immediately thereafter the following words:

"and this House further condemns the Government for its brutal, uncaring and unfair tax increases on average income families while at the same time lowering taxes for upper income families and the corporate sector, and for its refusal to undertake an overhaul of the income tax system to bring about tax fairness and to give Canadians a tax system that they can understand."

Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the amendment to the amendment?

Some Hon. Members: Agreed.

Some Hon. Members: No.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: All those in favour please say yea.

Some Hon. Members: Yea.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: All those opposed please say nay.

Some Hon. Members: Nay.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: In my opinion the nays have it.

And more than five Members having risen:

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Call in the Members.

The House divided on the amendment to the amendment (Mr. Riis), which was negated on the following division:
