

Madam Deputy Speaker: I cannot accept a point of order once the question has been put. I will explain as far as Motion No. 11 is concerned after. It was not presented to the House for a very simple reason.

The House divided on Motion No. 4, which was negated on the following division:

Madam Deputy Speaker: I declare the motion lost.

I may want to answer the hon. member for Annapolis Valley—Hants on his point of order.

Mr. Nowlan: Madam Speaker, actually I am glad we had the vote. I was trying to curtail the vote because of the fact that the Speaker ruled earlier that my main motion was not in order.

This motion was to help my main motion because I was trying to involve the aboriginal Canadians in the process.
