

Searching of Journals

105. The Journals of the Senate may be searched by the House of Commons, as the Journals of that House may be searched by the Senate.

Seats for Commons

106. Seats shall be reserved without the Bar of the Senate chamber for members of the House of Commons who may desire to hear the debates.

Copies of Minutes to Governor General

107. A copy of the Minutes of Proceedings, certified by the Clerk, shall be transmitted daily to the Governor General.

Binding of Journals

108. The Journals shall be bound in annual volumes with full indexes as soon as may be after each session.

Printing

109. The printing or publishing of anything relating to the proceedings of the Senate shall be as ordered by the Senate.

Tabling of accounts and papers

110. Accounts and papers may be ordered to be laid on the table, and the Clerk shall communicate to the Government Leader in the Senate all orders for papers made by the Senate and such papers when returned shall be laid on the table.

Royal prerogative

111. When the royal prerogative is concerned in any account or paper, an address shall be presented to the Governor General praying that the same may be laid before the Senate.

Clerk to submit accounts

112. The Clerk shall lay before the Senate on or before the thirty-first day of May, or if the Senate is not then sitting within fifteen days after the commencement of the next session, a detailed statement of his receipts and disbursements for each fiscal year.

Absence of senators

113. If for two consecutive sessions of Parliament a senator has failed to give his attendance in the Senate, the Clerk shall report the same to the Senate, and the matter of such vacancy shall be heard and determined by the Senate with all convenient speed.

Declaration of property qualification

114. Within the first twenty sitting days of the first session of each Parliament, every senator shall make and file with the Clerk a renewed Declaration of Property Qualifica-