

(Copy)

Dear Lady Borden,

I wish to express to you the most sincere sympathy of McGill University. In Sir Robert the Dominion has lost a man whose life and work it will always delight to honour, and McGill University is especially proud that he was for some years our Chancellor.

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

Acting Principal.

11 June, 1937.