

| | PAGE |
|---|------|
| I. Codification of the Mediæval Doctrines in Opposition to Protestantism (Tridentine Decrees) | 510 |
| II. Post-Tridentine Development as a Preparation for the Vatican Council | 518 |
| III. The Vatican Council | 527 |
| Chapter III.—The Issuing of the Dogma in Anti-Trinitarianism and Socinianism | 529 |
| I. Historical Introduction | 529 |
| II. The Socinian Doctrine | 535 |
| Chapter IV.—The Issuing of the Dogma in Protestantism | 541 |
| I. Introduction | 541 |
| II. Luther's Christianity | 545 |
| III. Luther's Strictures on the Dominating Ecclesiastical Tradition and on the Dogma | 551 |
| IV. The Catholic Elements Retained with and within Luther's Christianity | 557 |

OUT

PR

I.—I

1. I

since

with t

But in

nected

nite c

lation

impuls

up wit

So far

Lord c

include

and of ever, a

known

historic

2. Tl

religion

tianity

referen