

INDEX

A.

Addison's Spectator, 46.
 Ainslie, Thomas, Collector of Customs, Quebec, 66; entertains Mrs. Simcoe 82, 259.
 Aitkin, Alexander, makes first survey and plan of Toronto, 163, 192.
 American settlers emigrate to Canada, 139.
 Anticosti, Island of, 51.
 Amherst Island, in Gulf of St. Lawrence, 49.
 Appanee River, The, 270; meaning of name, 270.
 Arms of Simcoe-Gwillim, 31-2.
 Ashbridge, Sarah, of York, 302; her descendants, 302; original home in York of, 302.
 Askin, Col. John, 131-2.
 Askin, Miss (Catherine), afterwards wife of Dr. Richardson, 131-2.
 Assembly, House of—see First Legislature.

B.

— Bâby, Hon. François, member Legislative Council, 66; entertains Mrs. Simcoe, 77; compliments Mrs. Simcoe on her French, 81.
 — Bâby, Madame, visits Ursuline Convent with Mrs. Simcoe, 66, 351; regarded by Mrs. Simcoe as one of the most agreeable people in Quebec, 262.
 — Bâby, Hon. James, of Detroit, member Executive Council, 21.
 Ballard, Captain, of "Pearl," 353; makes preparations for meeting the French, 354; has drawings which interest Mrs. Simcoe, 355; dines with the Simcoes at Deal, 357.
 Bailey, John, servant of Simcoe family, writes of gentry of Devonshire, at Wolford, 361; tours with Mrs. Simcoe, 365, 395-6; his memoirs, 390; in service of Simcoes for 37 years, 390; enters service at twelve years of age, 391; his opinion of Simcoe family, 393; a Bible scholar, 396; relates of daily life at Wolford, 397; describes Mrs. Simcoe's trips to Wales, 399-400; visits Cheltenham, 401; tells of death of Mrs. Simcoe, 403; description of Mrs. Simcoe's funeral, 404; writes about Bonaparte's threat to invade England, 405-8; describes Dunkeswell Village and parish, 409; relates how General Simcoe assembled his workmen, 409; gives account of improvements at Wolford, 409; describes anniversary of Trafalgar at Wolford, 411; dwells on General Simcoe's illness and death, 412; writes about the Simcoe children who had passed, 413; his world-wide travels, 413; comment on the General and wife, 415-7; gives particulars of farms at Wolford, 415; escorts M. de Luc, a guest of General Simcoe, 418-20; makes quick trips when ordered, 420; account of quarrel between General Simcoe and Lord Rolle, 426; sketch of Scadding family, 427; quotes Scripture in writing of Bonaparte's threats, 428; draws liberally on the Psalms in closing his "remarks," 429-30.

Barney, Joshua, 355.
 Bay of Quinte, Winter outing on, 270-4.
 "Bear," The, Government sloop, 136.
 Beasley, Richard, Indian trader, 323; first settler at "Head of Lake," 323; original owner Dundurn Park, 323; site of house, 323; his descendants, 324.
 Belle Isle, Ice at, 354.
 Belmont, near Quebec, home of Colonel Caldwell, 59; original ownership and present use of, 59; arrival of Simcoes at, 349.
 Berczy Settlement at Markham, U.C., 214.
 Berey, de, Father Felix P., last Provincial of Recollets, Canada, 78.
 Bic, in Rimouski County, Que., 51.
 Bond's farm, on Bond Lake, 307.
 Bond, William, sergeant in Queen's Rangers, 307; first nurseryman in York, 307.
 Bouchette, Commodore, in command on Lake Ontario, 140; differs with Simcoe regarding Toronto and Kingston as naval base on lake, 140.
 Bouchette, Lieutenant-Colonel Joseph, makes first survey of Toronto Harbor, 140.
 Bouchette, Miss, 251, 275.
 Brandy Pots Islands, 52.
 Brant, Joseph (Thayendanegea), of the Six Nations, at Navy Hall, 141; his education, 142; his marriages, 142; as a Freemason and warrior, 142; negotiates for peace with the Indian tribes, 142; his part in conferences on Indian question, 142-3; not a chief, 143; meets Governor Simcoe at Burlington Bay, 328.
 Brant, Molly, her daughters complimented by General Lincoln in his diary, 166; her Indian marriage with Colonel William Johnson, 167; accompanies Mrs. Simcoe to Kingston, 247; her daughters well married, 247; discovery of record of her burial, 247; prescribes for Governor Simcoe, 274-5.
 Brantford, The first "church-going bell" at, 142.
 Breakenridge, James, his descendants, 274.
 Bruyere, Captain, of the Engineers, 357-8.