WORLD'S COPYRIGHTED EUROPEAN TORONTO

NO ROOM IN BERLIN

FOR COUNTRY CLUB

reform the manners of Berliners in tread hard on somebody else's

SOCIETY IS LATEST

According to this view, Berlin man-

Special Cable to The World.
BERLIN, March 23.—(Copyrighted.)
Berlin's latest contribution to the

STILL INTERDICTED

Announcement Follows Legislation Extending Powers of Bishop of Portland.

bill introduced by the committee pro-posing the repeal of the "corporation

JAVA DRAWS BRITAIN'S GOLD.

shipment to Java.

LONDON, March 22. - Bullion, amounting to £15,000, was withdrawn from the Bank of England today for place.

for a courtesy club.'

ners are irredeemably bad.

WEDLOCK IRKSOME TO YOUNG DUKE AMERICAN DUCHESS TO RESIST SUIT

Emperor William Understood to Have Interested Himself in Behalf of Duke Henry Borwin-Duchess Who Has Had Two Matrimonial Ventures Shows Rock-Ribbed Obstinacy of New England Stock.

Legal Action Pending.

action is pending at Rostock. You ask how a German law court can have jurisdiction to annul an English mar-riage. That is just the point. The where. This is only a recognition of the broad principles of locus regit ac-

"Has the duke another marriage in

"I have no knowledge of his purthem under any circumstances. It is s contesting the annulment suit chiefly upon the ground that, as the marriage was celebrated in Dover, the contracting parties come under the duke remains in Paris, but the duch-

Social Fabric Endangered.

The duchess contends that the proceeding attacks the very basis of socieding attacks ciety, and it is a case in which a properly constituted guardian is trying to set aside the marriage contract of another country which both parties had a full legal right to enter

Behind her intention to sustain the English marriage lies a deeper purpose than to hold the duke as her husband. The American duchess does not royal conspiracy. Her friends say that mean to be made a victim of even a binding marriage, which cannot

STAGE BEAUTY NOW

A MODEL PEERESS

Marchioness of Headfort,

a Model Mother.

Special Cable to The World.

the aristocracy of the United Kingdom is that or the Marchioness of the popular Rosie Boote of the Gaiety Theatre. She is one of the most devoted of mothers and in other

When she married the marquis in the registrar's office at Saltwood, near Folkestone, April 11, 1901, rumor had

Guards and his family. But his Irish tenants received their new mistress

She was introduced into the smart set by the Duchess of Westminster chioness has stood high in the regard of peers and peeresses as well and has become distinguished as a hostess.

Burke's peerage gallantly omits.

CLINTON'S LOCAL OPTION BYLAW

enthusiastically, and the marchion-ess gradually conquered high society.

respects is a model peeress.

a German court dominated by rela-

civil tribunal at Rostock

The World correspondent called to-

PARIS, March 23.—(Copyright.)—
A suit to annul the marriage of ElizaIt was instituted in the name of Faull, beth, Countess de Gasquet James, an American woman, to young Duke Henry Borwin of Meckyenburg-Schwerin, a cousin of Crown Princess under his guardianship at the time of Counterform of Fault that the duke was under his guardianship at the time of Counterform of Fault that the duke was under his guardianship at the time of Counterform of Fault that the duke was under his guardianship at the time of Fault that the duke was under his guardianship at the time of Fault that the counterform of Fault that the duke was under his guardianship at the time of Fault that the duke was under his guardianship at the time of Fault that the duke was under his guardianship at the time of Fault that the duke was under his guardianship at the fault the duke was under his guardianship at the fault that the duke was Cecilie of Germany, has been started the marriage in Dover, and that there at Rostock-on-the-Baltic. It is understood that Emperor Wil- pacity, he had not the legal capacity liam has sanctioned the proceedings, to consent. Faull also alleges that he which promise to be sensational, as never consented to the marriage, and the American duchess means to sustain the legality of her marriage. She of Germany, notwithstanding that it has retained coursel in Paris in took place in a foreign court has retained counsel in Paris, in took place in a foreign court.

Berlin, where her husband spends much of his time; in England, where her marriage to the German duke was contracted, and in Rostock, forty-nine miles from Schwerin, where the annullett, a brother of Justice Willard Bart-lett of the New York court of apment proceeding is under way.

The duchess is a beautiful, gray peals, who represents the duchess. The general was found in his office haired, stately woman in the October of life, twenty-eight years the senior of the duke, who is twenty-seven. She owns castles in Dinard and Dinan in Brittany.

at 116 Avenue des Champs Elysees.
"It was not my wish," he said,
"that knowledge of this unfortunate proceeding shall become public, but inasmuch as you have heard of the suit, I am willing to admit that such action is pending of Bestians. New England Parentage. Her first husband was Count de Gasquet James, a papal nobleman, who died a few years ago, leaving her a considerable fortune in Europe, Before marrying him, she was Elizabeth international law of marriage, recog-nized in all civilized countries, is that if the marriage is legal in the place where it is solemnized, it is legal else-Tibbitts Pratt, belonging to a wellknown New York State family. Her father, Col. Pratt. who organized and commanded a New York regiment, was killed in the civil war, at the second battle of Bull Run Before meeting Duke Henry Borwin of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, the countess spent a large part of her time in Dresden, Saxony. Her eldest daughter, now dead, had married Baron von Derdecken, an officer in the Prussian army. In Dresden the American woman was presented at court.

Formerly Heir Apparent.

She met the young duke while he was attending school in that city.
Until April 22, 1910, when a son was born to his cousin, Grand Duke Frederick Francis IV. Duke Henry Powing erick Francis IV., Duke Henry Borwin was the heir apparent to the duchy. but after that he was put somewhat in the nobility discard. He was also dropped from the rolls of two German

Friends of both the American countess and Duke Henry Borwin have done considerable speculating as to events leading up to their marriage, but the fact remains that on June 15, 1911, the countess became a duchess hy reason of a marriage and a duches has a leading to the fact remains that on June 15, 1911, the countess became a duchess hy reason of a marriage and a duche should be remains in Paris, but the duchess has gone to Dresden, where she has rented a time present time. The duche remains in Paris, but the duchess has gone to Dresden, where she has rented a villa near Trieste.

Although the duches are the present time. The duches has a last a duche remains in Paris, but the duchess has gone to Dresden, where she has rented a villa near Trieste.

Although the duches has also rented a villa near than a duche she has a last a duche she has a duche she has a last a duche she has a last a duche she has a duche she has a last a duche by reason of a marriage solemnized on that date in Dover, England, before a registrar. A fair explanation of the match is that the countess was deeply interested in the career of the young German nobleman, who is quite poor and whose relatives had in a manner left him to shift for himself when he was no longer heir apparent, and that she married the boy to put him upon his feet socially and financially.

Not Sanctioned by Emperor. At the time of the marriage a man named Faull was the guardian of the duke's property. He was not present nor invited to the ceremony in Dover, which marriage had not received the sanction of Emperor William. Shortly after the duke married the countess. if the duke wants to have the mar-riage set aside he will have to go about they came to Paris, where the duchess has three children, a son named it in a proper way in the courts of George, a daughter, who is the wife of England, but that there is a legal, Delibran, an officer in French army, and another daughter, wiped out by any snap mandate from who is the wife of Viscount de la Mettrie, well known in Paris society. tives of the duke.

PRINCE OF WALES'

VISIT TO GERMANY

cause He Is Going to Stuttgart.

Special Cable to The World.

BERLIN, March 23 .- (Copyright.) --

The announcement that the Prince of Wales is to visit Germany is not making quite the effect intended. Berlinguage instead of coming to Berlin, and ther is a revival of the antagonism or jealousy between north and south that King George ought to have paid that King George ought to have paid a formal visit to Emperor William before sending the prince to Germany. Den Borland snarls: "No German reigning prince could have married daughter of Count Franz von Hohen-stein, later Duke of Teck, could not be

Queen of England today. Any affection between the royal houses of England and Wurtem-burg is of quite recent date. Until the accession of King George there the royal nouses of England and Wurtemberg is surprising. It will be noth

King of England and Emperor of India spends weeks in Germany without paying his respects to the German

MINERS' STRIKE IS SETTLED.

Press.)—John P. White, international president of the United Mine Workers of America, announced here today that a basis of settlement satisfactory to PHILADELPHIA, March 22 .- (Can.

ng less than insolence if the future as no love lost between the two families. Hence London's sudden re-collection of the relationship between

The Berlin papers declare ers feel aggrieved because the prince Headfort, who before marriage was Queen Mary except morganistically. It that by taking her for wife the mar-Naturally British self-conceit refused quis, then 23 years old, had defied his to be guided by the traditions of the king, his commander in the First Life

OLD LONDON NOW CITY OF PAGANS?

Shocked by Decay of Religion.

NOBODY READS BIBLE WORRIES OVER HER SON A LARGE SUM INVOLVED

Great Change Has Taken Czarewitch Still Suffers From Place in Demeanor of Women.

Special Cable to The World.

LONDON, March 22.—(Copyright.)

Nobody reads the Bible any more,

Nobody reads the Bible any more, and London, alas, has become a pagan city.

So declares the Rev. Mr. Crawford, a missionary, who has just returned after twenty-three years' absence in Central Africa, and he is heartsore, he says, over the godlessness of the British capital.

Dean Inge of St. Paul's, "the gloomy dean," does not agree with Dr. Crawford. London, he says, is not as irreligious as it looks to be to the casual observer.

On the other hand, the Rev. Dr. Horton, a leading Nonconformist, who also is back here after considerable absence, says:

"I notice with the utmost pain the appearance of Londoners. They are all worn, over-driven, the joy of life has gone from their faces. But I notice an intense religious love on the part of the people. There undoubted.

The TETERSBURG. March 23.—(Copy-right),—The absence of the Czarina from the public functions of the first days connected with the Romanoff tercenten-the public functions of the first days connected with the Romanoff tercenten-the public functions of the first days connected with the Romanoff tercenten-the public functions of the first days connected with the Romanoff tercenten-the public functions of the first days connected with the Romanoff tercenten-the public functions of the first days connected with the Romanoff tercenten-the public functions of the first days connected with the Romanoff tercenten-the public functions of the first days connected with the Romanoff tercenten-the public functions of the first days connected with the Romanoff tercenten-the public functions of the first days connected with the Romanoff tercenten-the public functions of the first days connected with the Romanoff tercenten-the public functions of the first days connected with the Romanoff tercenten-the public functions of the public functions of the fact hat from the stork.

The amouncement in its official form will not be made for some months on action to the Czarina's refluctance to having such announcement in the public functions of the fact hat from the surface has gone from their faces. But I notice an intense religious love on the part of the people. There undoubtedly is a new type of women. A great change has taken place in their demeanor. They behave like men, rather than like women, adopting a manner that is not an improvement, on the surface at least."

Vicar Darlington of St. Mark's, Kensington, one of the biggest Episcopalian churches in the working people's district, says:

"I think that there is a wave of indifference spreading all over London."

out because his mother is unwilling to part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a possible addition to the imperial family. The second helr to the throne, the Czar's only brother, Grand Duke Michael, renduced his mother is unwilling to part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a part from him.

There is naturally great interest in a part from him.

poses, and if I had I should not reveal all most regretable, and I cannot discuss this matter any further." difference spreading all over London Contested by Duchess.

The World correspondent learned from a friend of the duchess that she The numerous counter attractions to the churches, such as bands and picture palaces, have something to do with this. Sunday is no longer Sunday in this city."

Both the duke and the duchess are Roman Catholics. They are not liv-ing together at the present time. The

Altho it does not appear that Duke Henry Borwin is associated in any American Syndicate Least Essenstreet cars, trains and public retaurants, promulgating edicts and putting annul the English marriage, he is not tial Element in Chinese averse to the proceeding before the up signs, has been obliged to discard its name and alter its purposes. It Policy.

Special Cable to The World. LONDON, March 23 .- (Copyright.) The Pekin correspondent of The manners apparently will cease.
Commenting on the announcement of the change, The Boersen Courier remarks: "We prophesied when the club was founded what has taken ondon Times, referring to the United States' withdrawal from the siz erally felt here that the American syndicate was the least essential element in the conseritum, and that its disappearance need not affect the contoes think all they need do is to say humorously 'Jump!' there is no room tinuity of the policy of the other powers or the existence of what enceforward becomes the quintuple banking group.
"President Wilson's statement of future policy of the United States DRAWING ROOM TEA Sovernment with regard to Chinese finance is considered peculiarly un-fortunate in view of the false hope engendered in the Chinese mind that the United States are prepared to give financial assistance without security." gaiety of nations is the Drawing Room

FOR THE PRINCE galety of nations is the Drawing Room Tea Society, organized by the most exclusive set. Last Sunday the society gathered at the Hotel Bristol, Baron von Dincklage and Frau von REFINED HISTORY

Special Cable to The World.

LONDON, March 23.—(Copyright.)—It is understood that the Prince of Wales will stay another year at Oxford University. The academic authorities, on being consulted, told the King and Queen that one year is altogether too brief a period to enable him to imbibe the spirit and feeling of the university.

The prince is industrious, makes good progress in the classics, but his knowledge of history has been found to be very defective. Queen Mary censored his history lessons to save his mind from being polluted by intimacy with the seamy side of historical characters, regal and otherwise.

Baron von Dincklage and Frau von Wasbutski acting as host and hostess. The chief feature of the musical program was the delightful singing of gram was the delightful singing of the Metropolitan Opera House of New York. Afterwards fashionable society hastened to secure tickets to her Thursday evening concert and the house was quickly sold out.

FRENCH-CANADIANS Berliners Feel Aggrieved Be- Former Rosie Boote, Now DUBLIN, March 23 .- (Copyright.) -One of the handsomest families in

The prince pays weekly visits to Str Villiam Anson, the warden of All Souls College and a member of parliament for he university, who talks with him for wo hours about current history and poll-

MAYOR SPENCER TO RUN Southern Alberta Tories Hold Enthusi astic Convention.

MEDICINE HAT, Alta., March 22.—
The Conservative party of Southern Alberta, in the Medicine Hat constituency, recently held a convention which turned out to be the largest on record in that, town.—It was explained to the large gathering that the Medicine Hat constituency was expected to the large gathering that the Medicine Hat constituency was expected to sole. The medicine Hat constituency was expected to sole. The medicine Hat constituency was expected to sole. cine Hat constituency was expected to be divided and the convention was called to elect a candidate.

sole" and is given the additional power to establish parish corporations whenever they are desirable. These It was unanimously resolved that corporations are to be formed on the Mayor Spence stand as candidate in the forthcoming election. Mayor meeticut and Rhode Island, the trustee for the higher view of the higher view. the forthcoming election. Mayor Spencer is a man widely known and enjoys the confidence of the people in the fullest measure. What bids fair to be a highly effective organization is being perfected and the tide of enthusiasm is flowing strongly. Mayor ment that the six members of the at a ball given in London in July, 1903, her grace taking pains to personally present her to every one of importance. Since that time the marselected by the first three.

The final passage of the bill today was followed by an annhouncement that the six members of the executive committee of French-Canadian Catholics, who were interdicted thusiasm is flowing strongly. Mayor Spencer's candidature has been reseived with enthusiasm in the country.

There are three children in the marchioness' family, the Earl of Bective, who will be eleven years on May Day and who will succeed his father corporation some composition of the matter.

Cood going March 26, 1913.

Cood going March 26, 1913. as marquis in the natural order of hings: Lord William Taylour, who is tine, and Lady Millicent, whose age a basis of settlement satisfactory to the miners has been reached with the representatives of the Paint Creek Collieries Co., whose miners in West Virginia have been on strike for about ten months. There are nearly 10,000 men on strike in the West Virginia fields and the expected settlement affects about 4000 of them, according to Mr. White. The strike of the miners of the Cabin Creek Consolidated Coal Mining Co. continues.

GODERICH, Ont., March 22.—(Can. Press.)—The validity of Clinton's local option bylaw is upheld by Judge Holt of Huron County Court, in a decision given today. Evidence was concluded at Clinton a few days ago. The majority, which was four votes, is reduced, however, to one and one-fifth, his honor having thrown out three votes cast by non-residents. The judge finds also that ballots were tampered with between Feb. 6 and Feb. 28.

THE OLDEST MAN LIVING If asked about his corns would say they didn't bother him because he al-ways used Pulnam's Corn Extractor. For fifty years "Putnam's" has been the favorite because painless and sure. Try only "Putnam's," 25c at ail deal-

STORK IS HEADED INSURANCE MEN FOR CZAR'S HOME ARE SUSPICIOUS

Missionary From Africa Is Czarina's Absence From Some Companies Said to Have Instiof the Fetes Is Exgated Exhumation of Col. Meeking's Body. plained.

Late Officer Was Very Heav-Accident Aboard His ily Insured in British Father's Yacht. Companies.

Special Cable to The World. Special Cable to The World. ST. PETERSBURG. March 23.—(Copy-LONDON, March 22,-(Copyright.) right).-The absence of the Czarina from -A report is current tonight that the insurance companies are responsible for the order granted by the home office for the exhuming at Ivor Churchyard, near Windsor, of the body of Col. Charles Meeking, the aged millionaire retired British army officer, who died suddenly, March 1. 1912, in his town house No. 11 Belgrave Square.

A very large sum in policies is said to depend on the reports of the two poison experts, Wilcox and Spilsbury, who attended the disinterment and ex-amined the body. According to rumor, the insurance companies are anxious to satisfy themselves that Col. Meeking's sudden death was due to natural causes. The burial certificate gave heart disease as the cause of death. The home officers refused today to give any further explanation of the ex-

Capt. Geoffrey Hall, one of the executors of the Meeking estate, says:
"I am unable to give any information as to whether an inquest will be found necessary as a result of the autopsy The matter rests entirely with the hom office experts. The result of the post-mortem may not be known for another

Col. Meeking who was twice married left more than $3,122,000.

FINAL STRUGGLE tions. The Czarina's present family consists of five children, Grand Duchess Olga, 17 years old; Grand Duchess Tatiana, 16; Grand Duchess Marie, 13; Grand Duchess Anastasia, 11; and Grand Duke Alexis, the Czarevitch, 8.

Special to The Toronto World. Special to The Toronto World.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Despite the eluctance of Izzet Pasha, who recently compromised by President Taft's Special Cable to The World.

BERLIN, Germany, March 23.—
(Copyrighted.)—The Pro Gentilezza (For Politeness) Club, which cat. reluctance of Izzet Pasha, who recent-(Copyrighted.)—The Pro Gentilezza tion of making a final effort by sea (For Politeness) Club, which set out

A proposal to send aeroplanes from Gallipoli to Adrianople has been under discussion, but the execution of the plan has been delayed as the aero now calls itself the Ethical Social Club and arranges dances and other amusements, including scientific and There have the control of the con planes were left shelterless during the recent bad weather and have suffer-generally improving lectures. Its activity as a public promoter of good the military situation in the last three days. The Turkish forces, taking heart from the fine weather, have pushed forward advanced guards along the Tchatalja front and have occupied the heights dominating Kadikeui and Akalan. On the other hand the Bulgarians have made a counter attack against Kastanelik, which they surprised and stormed on the night of March 18. Nearly 500 sick and wounded have arrived from the front in the last few days, and more are expected

SURRENDERED AFTER SHOOTING HIS WIFE

Walked Coolly Into Sheriff's Office and Told of Crime.

RIVERHEAD, N.Y., March 22.— (Can. Press.)—Mr. William Diass walked into Sheriff Brush's office here oday and stood waiting hat in hand for five minutes while the sheriff finished a conversation with another visitor. Finally the official swung around in his chair and asked Diass what he wanted. "Why, I just killed my wife," Diass

He led the sheriff and two deputies o his house, where his wife was ound lying dead with five bullet wounds. Diass declared the shooting was in self-defence.

"She chased me into the basement with a knife and ran me into a corner, where I shot to keep her from killing me," he said. He did not explain why he had fired more than one shot. Diass is 48 and his wife less than 30. They had been married two years.

ADDRESS AT THE ART GALLERY. At the art gallery of the reference At the art gallery of the reference library tonight Miss Hunt of the Brooklyn Public Library will give the annual address of the Ontario Library Association. It will be on children's work, and the public are invited.

UNION OF JAPAN AND CHINA IS BREEDING DISTRUST IN RUSSIA

Hopes of Substantial Gain Thru Coming Russo-Japanese Alliance Dampened by Distinctly Disturbing News -England's Refusal to Deal With St. Petersburg Touching Mongolian Trade Reductions Another Disappoint

ST. PLTERSBURG. March 22.—(Copyright.)—Sudden deep depression has come over the Russian Government. The news that the new Japanese administration is to enter into a close union with China takes all the substance out of the Russo-Japanese convention.

On top of this, England has refused to address herself to St. Petersburg in the matter of trade reductions with Mongolia, matter of trade reductions with Mon

Japanese convention.

On top of this, England has refused to address herself to St. Petersburg in the matter of trade reductions with Mongolia, which, it tengalizes, are still subject to the Peking forcign effects.

There are tentative proposals for a rapprochament between Russia and the United States as an offset to Japan's altiance with China, but such a step is barred by President Wilson's reported ment with the United States, but his own position is being assailed vehemently. That the Czar fears, when it comes to the decisive point, to face a European conflict, is thoroly understood in the far restore Russia's prestige there. This is appreciated bitterly by the government here, which, perforce, has to keep China in mind and drop Slavophil ambitions in Southeastern Europe.

CHINA APPLAUDS WILSON'S COURSE

Rebuff Given Bankers Vindicates America's Position in Far East. Special Cable to The World.

LONDON, March 22 .- (Copyright.)-The Morning Telegraph's Peking correspondent sends the following: "A remarkable impression has been "A remarkable impression has been produced in Peking by President Wilson's far-reaching and well-considered memorandum regarding American participation in The first journalist organization in Great Britain was the Institute of Journalists. The National Union represents a revolt from the older institution, which in the six-power group, an action fully justifying all that I talegraphed during the control of previous productions. andum regarding American participation in the six-power group, an action fully justifying all that I telegraphed during weary months regarding this unfair monopoly which was seeking to force a formula suitable for Egypt on a vast dominion measuring 4,000,000 square miles and containing 400,000,000 rejuvenescent inhabitants, who only ask a chance to tentify the meables.

Some Favor Graduated Scale as Against Straight Tax Proposed.

WASHINGTON, March 28 .- (Can. Press.)-Differences among the Democrats regarding the form of the the coming caucus of the house. The coming caucus of the house. The of Osnabruck, in the township council.

Some of the Democrats insist that here must be a graduated income tax and not a straight tax. Representa-tive Gardner of Texas is one of those who will fight out the cause of the graduated form of the tax if the committee majority should agree the committee majority should be committeed to committee the committee the committee majority should be committed to committee the mittee majority should agree on a straight tax without attempting to graduate it so as to make the compared to graduate it so as to make the greater percentage of burden rest upon the richer classes. Mr. Gardner is a veteran member of the house, but one of the new members of the ways and means committee, recently selected at the Democratic caucus. He stated to-night he believed 75 per cent. of the members of the congress, including some leading members, favored a graduated tax.

WIRELESS SERVICE ERRATIC. Paris-Washington Communication is Dieturbed.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—(Can. Press.)—Faint radio signals were to-day received from the Eiffel Tower station in Paris by the Arlington station of the navy, but there were no coherent messages. It was said that coherent messages. It was said that this was due largely to the recent storm that has disturbed the atmospheric conditions on this side of the Within the last few days there has been much interference from a news-paper station in New York, but the newspaper has now agreed to keep out

Printers Meets, However, Temporary Defeat. Special Cable to The World. MANCHESTER, Eng., Match 22.— (Copyright).—At a conference of the National Union of Journalists held here, a resolution was strongly supported, the ultimately defeated, for affiliation with the trade union organization.

JOURNALISTS MAY

BECOME UNIONIZED

Proposal to Affiliate With is said to have fallen under the domina-tion of newspaper proprietors and to de-vote its principal energies to arranging cheap annual outings.

The National Union is rapidly outstrip-ping the institute and aims at establish-ing itself on a regular trade union basis. The first step is being taken by negotiat-ing an agreement for joint action with the printers' union.

GEORGE KERR, EX-M.L.A DIED NEAR CORNWALL

Took an Active Part in Municipal and Party Poli-

GORNWALL, March 23.—(Special)
—George Kerr, ex-M.L.A., is dead at his home at Farran's Point, in the 66th year of his age. The deceased had been failing for a long time. Mr. Kerr was a native of Tompo, County Fermanagh. Ireland. Early in life he engaged in railroading and afterwards was one of the first conductors at the was one of the first conductors on the G.T.R. He was a member of the firm of Kerr Bros., who for many years con ducted general stor Point and Aultsville.

sub-ways and means committee considering the income tax and the administrative sections spent most of the day in going into details, but reached no conclusion as to either the rate or the extent of the exemption of incomes.

of Osnabruck, in the township council as reeve of the township. He sat at the counties council of the united counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry and was also elected warden for one year. He also represented the County of Stormont in the Ontario legislature for one term in the Conservative interest servative interest.

Mr. Kerr is survived by his widow and two daughters, Mrs. Rev. J. Llonel Homer and Miss Kerr. The functary

COAL CO.

Have Moved te Their New Head Office

95 BAY ST. One door North of King

HAMILTON HOTELS.

HOTEL ROYAL Largest, best-appointed and most crack traily located. 83 and up per day.

American plan.

GET OUR PRICES FOR TIN. LEAD, ZINC, BABBITT, SOLDER, SHEET LEAD, LEAD PIPE The Canada Metal Co.Ltd. TORONTO, MONTREAL, WINNIPPA

$1,000 REWARD

For information that will lead to the discovery or whereabouts of he person or persons suffering from ervous Debility, Fits, Skin Disease, Blood Poison, Genito Urinary I roubles, and Chronic or Special Complaints that cannot be cured at The Ontario Medical Institute 263.265 Yonge Street, Toronto.

Neuralgic Condition of the Nerves

In this age of nervous disorders neu- stored before cure can possibly, be algia is fearfully common. The first effected.

In many cases neuralgia is easily The teeth are often blamed and exto form new, rich blood. racted in error, when the cause of The application of cloths rung he trouble is in the impoverished con-from hot water will afford relief from dition of the blood and the starved nervous system.

The impoverished continuous the suffering, and the regular use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for a few While neuralgic pains are usually weeks will completely overcome the sharp and shooting, and consequent-ly difficult to locate, the seat of Powerful drugs a y difficult to locate, the seat of Powerful drugs are to be avoided, because of their injurious effect in furder pressure.

ther weakening the nervous system.

Neuralgia is pain, and as such is

The Nerve Food cures by building up the symptom of a disease—nervous the feeble, wasted nerve cells, and exhaustion. The nerves must be re-splitting headache, but neuralgia may curable by the use of Dr. Chase's affect any part of the body in which Nerve Food. The patient is thin and bloodless and needs tonic treatment

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limit-

EXPER TO

Corporat

CAR L

Make

Thirty-Ni Needed

portation within a w peration co of Chicago of it was mended 39 the older p oldest part Queen streethe city, street, prov Company In the of for a rapid people who the city by iomes.
It is now of Teraulay no disposit franchise committee paganda fo Queen stree of Yonge and ern end of face line, ing in with As the reexperts dea rapid trans extraordina and as the together w transportat

Boy Had Man

ST. MAR The Collegi clety held Thursday, v

from the w Canada." an address A choice n concluding question The stud paper, which er," which meetings o Ballantyr Downie, nar slipped into on a piece ing up of by Florenc years of ag by a comp An excell Ministerial of the chu Rural Dean James G found dead that place He is supp with paraly
Mr. and I have left will reside.
The Whi
Caused hy

caused by match drop igniting a

Ten Wh

NEW

Press.)-T losis who Dr. Friedr at'a clinic today, that since receitering the thorized a weeks hend turn to that by health auti his vaccth The visi

The visit an interructionary long W. Branna the city it was held, five days a private prospective of the control of the contro to feur Menday