CANADAS WIN FINAL ALSO ST. MATTHEWS

Only Scotch Doubles Remain in Canadian Lawn Bowling Tournament.

When rain stopped play in the final for the Ontario trophy at the Granite lawn Thursday the rink skipped by J. S. Armitage looked to be in a commanding position with a score of 4 to 2 against Dr. Paul's Canada rink, but with the fine weather at the resumption of the final yesterday, the Canadas forged ahead and ran out winners by the close score of 13 to 12, after some of the keenest play seen in the tourney. St. Matthews won the Toronto cup final from Parkdale by a strong finish. The Scotch doubles and consolation advanced into the final stages at both Victoria and the Granite lawns, and the remaining games promise great sport when the bowlers get busy at Victoria lawn this morning at 9 o'clock. The Butt trophy will be competed for at the Canada lawn at 9 o'clock, the draw being made from those clubs present at that time. Scores:

DAVIS CUP LIKELY TO LEAVE U. S.

Brooks and Wilding Defeat McLoughlin and Bundy in Straight Sets.

FOREST HILLS, L.I., Aug 14.—In a doubles match, that ran the gamut from sensational to mediocre tennis, Norman E. Brookes and Anthony F. Wilding defeated Maurice E. McLoughlin and Thos. C. Bunds in straight sets, 6-2, 8-6, 9-7, here this afternoon, putting the Australasian team in the lead for the Davis Cup, two matches to one. The final contests for the trophy will be played tomorrow, and to retain possession of the massive silver bowl and the world's championship McLoughlin must defeat Wilding, and R. Norris Williams must also defeat Brookes in the singles, a feat which tennis experts predict as most unlikely.

The Australasian victory was well earned and without flaw, the team work of the antipodeans being that of master racquet wielders, who thoroly understand each other's play and tactics, both at the net and in deep court. Altho the United States champions carried the challengers into deuce sets twice, they never could lift their game to the plane where Brookes and Wilding were unable to check their rallies at crucial moments. The older and more experienced pair always had something in reserve, and their clock-like team-work disconcerted even McLoughlin in the closing set.

Recognizing that Bundy was the weaker player of the American pair, the challengers directed their hardest volleys at him, altho he handled the rain of shots in a manner beyond the expectations of the tennis sharps, but he was unable to hold the veterans across the net in check sufficiently to permit McLoughlin to secure a winning edge for the cup defenders. McLoughlin, the conqueror of Brookes in yesterday's singles, played desperately, covering long stretches of net and court, but the effort told, and when the Australasians turned their batteries of smashes and cut shots on him late in the match his game broke badly, and he netted or outed the ball in a manner that astonished the spectators.

The Americans tried every style of game in their repertoire in an endeavor to stave off defeat, but without avail. In the general handling of the ball the victors did by far the cleaner work.

KARL KEFFER WINS SECOND OPEN TITLE

Ottawa Professional Again Played Great Golf—Cumming Lost Out.

Karl Keffer of the Royal Ottawa Golf Club won the open golf championship of Canada yesterday at the Toronto Golf Club for the second time in his golfing career. His total for the four rounds of medal play was 300, and his work thruout the tourney was really superb. Ever since Keffer made his debut as an apprentice at the tourney at the Toronto Golf Club in 1909 and won the title on his first appearance, he has been watched as another champion. But until this year he has never been up forcing the battle much. George Cumming, the Canadian professional champion, and winner of the title in 1906, gave him an awful battle, and it was only a slight misjudgment at the last hole that finally gave Keffer the title.

In the morning Keffer had three strokes on Cumming and he increased this to five before the afternoon by turning in the lowest card of the tourney, namely, a seventy-two. Cumming took seventy-four, and it hardly seemed possible that even such a steady player as the local pro. could overtake the leader. But Cumming is as resourceful as Job and on making the turn he was still four strokes behind his former pupil. To take back four strokes in nine holes, especially as Keffer had made the inward journey in thirty-nine, seemed almost impossible. To make things even more difficult a stiff breeze was blowing across the course that made accuracy a very difficult proposition.

Finally at the sixteenth hole Cumming had accomplished his purpose and had seven strokes in which to negotiate the last two holes to tie Keffer. The seventeenth was an easy three. The last should have been an easy four. Cumming got a great drive and it ran into the gully this side of the green. For some unexplainable reason Cumming played the shot canny and it kicked off to the right, away short. Still a good approach would have saved the day, but he tried to draw it fine and was short again. He failed on a fifteen foot putt by inches and the title was lost. His tremendous uphill fight the, is deserving of great praise, and when one thinks that Cumming, who has turned out eight of the foremost professionals in Canada, captured the P.G.A. title earlier in the week and then played four rounds of sterling golf there seems no limit to his achievements.

Davie Black of Rivermede, Ottawa, the ex-professional champion, was the surprise of the day. At the commencement of the third round he was tied for fourth with 156, three strokes behind Cumming and Thompson, and six strokes behind the leader. A seventy-five in the morning put him well up in the running, and in the afternoon after Charlie Murray and Nicol Thompson had aviated slightly, his seventy-seven put him in third place with a total of 308. Nicol Thompson was only nosed out of the place money by one stroke with Charlie Murray of Montreal, who led in the first round, fifth with 312. Percy Barrett, who seemed down and out of any chance of capturing any of the prizes at the beginning of the final rounds yesterday, suddenly returned to form and seventy-five in the final round put him up in sixth place.
