TEN INNINGS TO TROUNCE CLYMER

Leafs Lost Early Lead When McTigue Loosened Up in the Eighth.

Special to The Toronto World. PROVIDENCE, Aug. 27.—Toronto gave the Grays a terrible scare today, and apparently had the game won until the eighth, when the locals tied the score, and by landing a run in the tenth won a rip-roaring battle by a score of 4 to 3.

McTigue pitched his head off for the first seven innings, holding the Grays helpless and allowing them one scratch hit, a single by Haley that was next door to an error, the ball bouncing off Wares' glove and being pegged to first an inch too late to get the batter. He wobbled a trifle in the eighth, however, and the locals jumped on him like a pack of wolves, and aided by a muff of a very hard chance by Wares sent three runs over the plate, tying the score. Haley was responsible for the two runs that saved the Grays, as with three and two on him and two out he ducked into a close ball and it hit his bat and dropped safely near the right foul line two men scoring.

Pennock looked like a plugged penny in the first and second innings when the Torontos sent three runs over in such a ridiculous manner that the crowd jeered him unmercifully. but so well did he go after that that they cheered him to the echo during the last seven innings. The Leafs got the bases full in the tenth but could not get a man in. Rath leading off with a double, but Wares fanned with three on. With one gone in the tenth Ball lost Shorten's drive on a hard chance. He stole second and scored on Shean's corking drive to left. Toronto backed McTigue up splendidly, despite the three errors. Score:

The program for tonight should provide the best racing of the season. The card includes six bioycle races and four motor-cycle contests. Chief interest settled around the motorcycle Marathon race, which will be the feature event of the program. The uncertainty of a long race makes it doubly interesting to the spectators, as the leaders are forced to change rostitions so many times, due to unseen troubles turning up. Eight crack long-distance riders will start in this event, and it would be hard to pick a winner out of the following entries: Harry Daugherty and Frank Henikman of Detroit, Don and Bob Barclay of Denver, Jimmy Martinson of Boston, Blount Buttehael of Atlanta, Brigham Young of Salt Lake City and Percy Pattison of Buffalo.

M. Gibbons Says Will Knock Out McFarland

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 26.—For the first time since the consummation of his match with Packie McFarland, which will be staged at the Brighton Motordrome on Sept. 11, Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul phantom, has ventured a prediction as to the outcome. After boxing ten rounds this afternoon with his sparring partners, Gibbons declared that he would knockout the Chicago wonder. It is quite the usual thing for boxers to issue pro battle statements of this nature, but coming from Gibbons, who is not given to boastfulness, it carries more weight than if it emanated from another ringman. The St. Paul man condidently believes that McFarland will fall victim to his punch rather than his cleverness. Mike is in prime condition right now and punching harder than he ever did.

Before beginning the daily sessions of Before beginning the daily sessions of boxing Mike's sparring mates don a heavy head gear, a baseball catcher, schest protector, and a football jersey padded at shoulders and along the arms. Most boxers develope their punch on a heavy sand bag, but Gibbons believes that he has the better system because his heavy sand bag, but Gibbons believes that he has the better system because his opponents can fight back at him and he does not have to "pull" his punches.

Gibbons is becoming quick-tempered and irritable, which in a boxer in training is usually a sure indication of first-class condition. He is already close to the weight agreed upon, 147 pounds, ringside. He scaled under 150 pounds this afternoon and should experience little trouble in working off the surplus poundage.

Gibbons will leave here next Saturday with his brother Tom and a staff of sparring partners and a trainer. He will finish his training at the New Polo A.A. in New York.
