

Virgin forest, in the shade of the, 238
 Virunga, region of, work of German Congo Boundary Commission in, 111; volcanic group, description of, 111; volcanoes, 82
 Visitors' book on Uhimbi, 210
 Visit to the sultan's mother at Gera, 15
 Visits to grand sultans, 14
 "Volcanic embryos," Kirschstein discovers, 154
 Volcanic group, the Virunga, 111
 Volcanic region, 111; elephant hunt in, 124; Kirschstein completes his labours in, 164; lava caverns in, 110; result of Kirschstein's researches in, 155
 Volcanoes in Virunga region, 112

W

- Wabunda and Wangilima tribes, our oarsmen recruited from, 252
 Wahia, comparison of, with Wassukuma, as bearers, 9; recruiting bearers from the, 9
 Wahia carriers, we dismiss our, 80
 Wahutu, the, accept friendly overtures, 84; adopt warlike attitude to Weiss's party, 84; primitive inhabitants of Ruanda, 47
 Waldner, Professor, consultation with, 2
 Wall, we embark on the, 275
 Wambuti, a nomadic tribe, 201; description of dance of, 230; general characteristics of, 200; large camp of, at Salumbongo, 220; poisoned arrows of, 200; ugliness of the women of, 200; we get in touch with pygmies of, 200; we secure photographs and measurements of, 230; we watch the dancing of the, 230
 Wangilima, dress of the, 257; oarsmen recruited from, 252
 Wangwari, or Arabisis, description of, 240
 Wanjaruanda, clans of, and their totems, 49
 Waronda and Wasongora, shyness of people of, 152
 Wasongora, Raven undertakes special work in, 193
 Wassukuma bearers, comparison of, with Wahia, 9; engaging, 9
 Water, peculiar qualities of, at Rutschuru, 169
Watuales, descent of, 48; effects of a gramophone performance on the, 61
 Watussi, the, high degree of civilisation among, 50; immigration of, 47; laughter not "good form" among, 61; physique of, 48; pictures taken of sports of, 59; remarkable high jumping of, 59; remarkable skill of, in javelin throwing, 61; take best advantage of climatic conditions, 50; we encounter, 38; we witness dances of, 60
 Wau Island, description of, 97; fauna of, 98; flora of, 97; our departure from, 100; we visit, 97
 Weber, Lieutenant, we meet, at Kiogodé, 221
 Weidemann, appointed to the expedition, 3; conducts caravan to Kissenji, 178; falls in with a buffalo, 38; I hunt crocodiles with, 223; secures a bull elephant, 125
 Weiss, Lieutenant, appointed to the post of topographer and mathematician, 3; desires to go to Kanjousa, 22; determines to construct signally station on Mount Mpungu, 30; falls ill in Congo forest, 205; joins us at Kissenji, 83; meets with an adventure, 29; remains behind to adjust the scientific instruments, 19; reports an adventure, 29; reports on his journey from Mohasi to Kissenji, 83; returns to Europe, 200; sees rhinoceroses at Mtigata and Karagwe, 18; starts off on surveying and geological pursuits, 85; starts to continue topography of volcanic region, 140
 White ants, or termites, strange erections of the, 245
 White Fathers of the Marienberg Station, greeting the, 13
 "White Spot," surveying the, 31
 Wiese and Kaiserwaldau, Lieutenant von, bags two baboons, 244; brings down three rhinoceroses, 18; excellent plan of, for detecting loafers, 15; first European to climb Mount Sabinjo, 120; health of, affected by change of temperature, 221; leaves Darussalam for Mombasa, 4; meeting with, at Lake Mohasi, 39; my first meeting with, 2; planning my expedition in conjunction with, 2; suffers from fever, 40
Winfred, journey of Wiese in, 9
 Wintgens, Lieutenant, falls in with a herd of buffaloes, 38; kills a lion,