

believing that makes everything ours. If she will only believe, she will meet me again when Jesus comes.

"Tell my sister she is lost, as lost as I was, and must therefore be saved in the same way in which I am saved. Please write to her, and tell her I never knew what happiness was till I saw the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. Tell her she may think she is happy in the pleasures of the world, but I know they are death, eternal woe, at the end.

"When you have published our interviews, send a copy to each of my relatives, whose address you have.

"Tell everybody that I recognize no church but the Church of God, the body of Christ, of which, through faith in Jesus Christ, I am a happy, happy member. I love—yes, I dearly love—all whose confidence is where mine is, and who love my blessed Jesus. Moreover, I affectionately and solemnly warn them who seem to place much confidence in the Church or in ordinances. I have received several books and other matters since I am here, which talk in that way; but I am sure there is nothing so dangerous, because it hides Christ, in whom alone is salvation, and grace, and strength. These things, I know, are very good in their place, but I feel sure many are putting them before Christ; for if they saw in Christ what I see, they would set Him up so high that the other things would not be noticed much.

"Insist that forgiveness of sins is not when a
