

NOTICE.

Post Office, Goderich, Nov. 20, 1848.

avail himself of the opportunity which the NOTORIETY of certain parties within the last few days has made known to his friends and the public know, that he will not in any newspaper to leave his office, UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, unless the postage is paid thereon.

For extended correspondence he willingly offers the same terms: to make quarterly settlements, but only on the payments will be made IN FULL on or before the 20th of September, and October. Any failure in this respect will of course be without accommodation.

Persons of this offer will please intimate the same to the Postmaster, and abide by these terms.

Persons who wish to send money must pay the net amount of change required, or risk the refusal

THOMAS KYDD, Postmaster.