one than its rfully in the Chivington, knocking off eir souls to put my eyes

l say!"
not seriously
Vent in, only do, the 1st of a try of the ater them by so sell me his maiden) for whiskey. I been $1.00

appear on we hear of
es from here
Here is the ranches and buffalo the stations. d, and Fort wa Cavalry I of Major s ride back, Brien, com-ents, and a were $1.00. son. Atchionged to set o reach the over the ent. How d Atchison, I shall dently misme that in use crowds ou are very

The Otoc Indian buries his tomahawk, and settles down to farming, dear to me. Let me kiss you for your maternal parent!

We are passing through the reservation of the Otoe Indians, who long ago washed the war-raint from their faces, buried the tomahawk, and settled down into quiet, prosperous farmers.

We rattle leisurely into Atchison on a Sunday evening. Lights gleam it. the windows of milk-white churches, and they tell us, far better than anything else could, that we are back to civilization again.

An overland journey in winter is a better thing to have done than to do. In the spring, however, when the grass is green on the great prairies, I faney one might make the journey a pleasant one, with his own outfit and a few choice friends.