

- Pool, words for, 346, 347; three mentioned here, Siloam, the King's, and "that was made"; "Upper," "Lower," and "Old," mentioned; a time when but one existed, 263, 271; conduit of Upper, 267; Serpents', explained, located, 342, 343; of Hezekiah, site of the one made by that king, 348; King's, in Nehemiah's night ride, 340, 342; called Solomon's reservoir by Josephus, 348
- Prayer-House, wholly unlike a Basilica, 336
- Priests, high, vestments of, kept in Baris and closely guarded, 215, 216
- Procurators, appointed by Emperor; under direction of Governors: honors paid to, on arrival at Jerusalem, 180; general character of, 182-184; civil authority of, 181; military authority of, 182, 184; resided at Cesarea-on-the-sea, 184; tenure of office of, compared with modern Consuls, 188; no evidence that Herod's Palace was their residence, 189; during temporary visits to Jerusalem probably resided in Antonia, 190; places mentioned in connection with, 184-186; list of, 185, 186
- Providence, in history and mission of Palestine, 18
- Provisions, for the siege, burned by John and Simon in their factional fights, 121; large amounts of, destroyed, 152, 153
- Psephinus, Tower, 27, 31, 33, 35, 41; described, and purpose, 55, 57, 59; an object of pride, 131; and Ophel compared, 240
- Ptolemais, a rendezvous of Roman army in Syria, 186
- Quarries, about Jerusalem; in strange localities, 369-371; rock in the so-called Solomon's, not good for building the Temple, 372
- Ram, the, use in sieges; how constructed and worked, 139, 140
- Rebuild, word not found in English Bible; "build" always used instead, 204-206
- Relics, worship of, rapidly increased in period of Constantine, 322
- Remains, massive, north of Damascus Gate, site of monuments of King Alexander, 127; wall found north of Castle of David, in 1885, 157; on Christian street, illustrating amount of filling at that point, 293
- Reservoir, old, below Pool of Siloam; contained drainage or sewage water fit only for irrigation, 268
- Residence, of Governor of Syria was at Antioch, 187; of Procurators of Judea at Cesarea-on-the-sea, 187
- Road, main, from north to city, 25; military, from Scopus to city constructed, 31
- Rock, about Jerusalem, many varieties of; names of, 367, 369
- Rogel, En, of very early date; relation to city and Gate of the Fountain, 345; word does not mean to wash or tread, 346
- Ruins, ancient, always been quarries for later builders; recent examples in Jerusalem, 392, 393
- Samwil, Neby, fine ancient quarries at, 368, 369
- Scopus, located; no connection with Mount of Olives; Titus camps at, 28; removes thence to near the city, 31
- Second Wall. See Wall (p. 155).
- Sepulchre, Holy, evidence for its claims is wanting, 20; as related to three different theories of Second Wall, 155; evidence examined as to kind of building erected in A.D. 326 by Constantine,