June 3 for this city, carrying 150 souls, 110 of whom were passengers, and 40 comprising the crew.

Real apprehension for the safety of the steamer was expressed in shipping circles to-day. Relatives and friends of those aboard the belated steamship for days have been making enquiries at the offices of the agents of the ship, but no information concerning the vessel has been given them.

American visitors in town to-day will be interested in the superior quality of Canadian clothing and the extremely low prices.
