St. George's 11, Newmarket 8 The intermediate O. H. A. game last, night at Mutual-street rink between St. Georges and Newmarket reminded of an Argonaut-Orangeville match. It was a rough-and-tumble affair all three-quarters of them being from Newmarket. St. Georges led at the Newmarket. St. Georges ied at the half, 7 to 3, but the green-shirted boys came strong in the last period, and when the bell rang had closed the gap, but not enough to win, score being 11 to 9, favor of the Saints.

St. Georges had on Whale and Piene of the seniors. Altho it was the second time the latter had been out in two years, the former McMaster man played a great game, and was the star of the night. He played centre and was always on the job wating for the pass. The Saints won because they were better skaters and knew how to check back. Kennedy at cover and E. Doyle at centre for Newmarket were the best.

As stated before, it was a roughand-tumble affair, Campbell and Epworth having to go off for repairs. Once in the first half Osborne slashed McMurray over the ankle, the latter coming back with a punch. In a half a minute a crowd had gathered on the ice, a regular Donnybrook occurring. Epworth and Whale were ruled off, altho the latter was not in the fracas. At another time, towards the close of the game. F. Doyle and Campbell got mixed up on the ice, the Newmarket man handing out a poke. When Campbell got up he hit Doyle over the trousers. Doyle being unable over the trousers. Doyle being unable to wield a hockey stick this year.

Stratford juniors asked for a certificate for E. O. Corbett, a business college student, who arrived in that city and stranged a certificate with the St. George's intermediates.

John Campbell, a skater from Parry Sound, who competed for cash prizes, was handed over to the tender mercies of the C.A.A.U., under whose jurism handed over to the tender mercies of the c.A.A.U. deems it wise to grant the close of the grant the c
