In Hargreave v. Barber, Mr. R. W. Elattend for re-examination and ancertain questions as to the negotiaby Elliot & Co. of a stock of drugs to Mr. George Gibbard. The plaintiff charges that George Gibbard. The plaintiff charges that Gibbard, a druggist, against whom he had a judgment, assigned for the benefit of creditors to the defendant Barber, who sold the stock to Elliot & Co. for $500 add, and that three days afterwards Elliot & Co. sold the same stock to Mr. Gibbard for $2700. Mr. Elliot, on his examination, stated that he was out of town at the times of the sales and negotiations in question, but the Master thinks he ought to make further answers as to how the firm came to make such an apparently good bargain.

er, was lodged in the East Toronto jail Beach in a suspicious manner. He was wet through and a big fire was lit to keep him warm. On Sunday morning when Constable Booth approached the jail with the Yankee's breaktast he found the door wide open and the prisoner flown. The door knob had been wrenched off and lay broken in the snow. Judging from the footprints Sargent had a "pal," who in the quiet of the night came to his assistance. The growing business done by the G. T. R. at York Station is evidenced by the average daily despatch of 41 freight trains from the yard.

The wheat market was very buoyant again to-day, May selling at 84%. On realizing toward the close, the market sold off, and May closed at 82%. The reaction was quite natural.

Provisions did not follow wheat to-day. Monday Evening, Oct. 19.

Provisions did not follow wheat to-day, and closed lower than last night. and closed lower than last night.

Contrary to general expectation, 'New York stocks are higher, all on the list being strong. Shrewd operators looked for the market to sell lower on the bad bank statement of Saturday, but the market closed with a gain all round of from one to two and a half points.

Sugar was strong to-day, selling at and closing at the highest point of the day—1.10%. This was an advance of 2½ from the opening. Exchange remains weak, and gold imports continue.

CHICAGO GOSSIP.

Henry A. King & Co., 12 King-street east, received the following despatch to-day from Chicago:

Another high-water mark has been touched. Wheat is surprising its friends. The market is a most erratic one and seems to be affected by every wind that blows. A buil rumor over an hour old is regarded as ancient history. An undercurrent of strength is apparent, more so than at any time since the advance began. The largest local holders have soid out and have come back into the market at higher prices. The foreign demand continues to be the principal incentive, and is the cause of the advance of over 25c during the past six weeks. Depletion of European stores has gone on steadily for three years, and the great law of supply and demand is being feit in the readjustment of values to the exigencies of the situation. The world must eat, and its bread must be bought at market price. Indications point to neavy and increased clearances during the next 30 days, and the handlers of grain have strong reason for their faith in higher prices. A peculiar feature of the situation is that it is the exporters and dealers in wheat who are builing it. The outside speculative element is not in the market. Chicago operators have been relieved from the necessity of maintaining the price of wheat for the world, and local speculators who made prices three months ago are now as mere chips floating on the current of the flood. The outside traders will not go into the market until after election. When his element begins to buy wheat there is no knowing where prices will go. We still feel buillish, and believe in the revival which will follow the triumph of American common-sense in the great controversy now before the people. Our customers must give us the credit of having, been safe pilots during the past two months. Dec. wheat now looks cheap around these prices. The visible supply increased 2,374,004 bush. Northwestern receipts were 1642 cars, against 1877 cars last year.
