> Thamesford, March 13 .-- A gruesome discovery was made yesterday in the barn of Mr. Jeremiah Moore, East Nissouri. While securing some hay Mr. Moore found the body of Samuel Sheppard, a farm laborer, who had been employed in this vicinity last autumn. He had left the neighborhood upon the approach of winter, and it is supposed was returning to secure work, and resting in the barn. Dr. Hudson, of Innerkip, believes death was due heart failure. There were no marks of violence about the body, which gave indications of having been there some days, if not weeks, Following the decision of Dr. Hudson, that there were no indications of foul play, Reeve McCarty, of Thamesford, took charge of the body, and at the present time is attempting to communicat with a brother who is believed to reside in Cavuga.

about 45 years of age, and before coming to this vicinity he is believed is have resided in St. Marvs.

up, though not seriously injured. In the collision the buggy was completely demolished. While Forbes was unharnessing the horse Pow held its head. He did not appear to be suffering to any extent, but a few minutes afterwards he dropped dead. It is believed that his sudden end was brought on by heart failure due to the excitement of the collision.

Pow had been assistant chief in Woodstock for about four years, having come here from Tillsonburg. He was native of Scotland, and is survived by a wife and grown-up family of
