QUBBEC, April 30.—(Special.)—Reselle Knott, a representative Canadian actress, is to present Barrie's English success, "Alice Sit by the Fire," before His Royal Highness Prince of Wales and other distinguished guests at the centenary in July.

The first performance of "Three Little Maids," the English musical play, under the auspices of the Toronto Frisco Club, at the Royal Alexandra Theatre during the latter half of next week, promises to be one of the most notable first nights of the season. His Excellency Earl Grey has signified his intention of being present if his engagements be such as to allow him to be present. The presentation was made by Mr. H. H. Blanchit, traveler for the firm. Mr. Harris made a suitable reply, after which he received their congratulations.

The "Moonlight Maids" Burlesque Company, which opens a week's engagement at the Star next week, has made for itself a very enviable reputation. It is said that the burlesque of this company, entitled, "What Happened East," is but an entire new original lines and is something new to burlesque houses. In the olio are Brown & Brass, singing and taking comedies; Tommer & Gilbert, skits; artists; Mlle. Bartiotti, chansonist; the Musical Banjo Bros., a quartet of singers, dancers and comedians; and Al & Peysor, scrotaic comedians.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Anesthesia is seriously ill at her home here. The actress is suffering from acute intestinal obstruction, complicated with appendicitis.

Bob Manchester and his famous Cracker Jacks will be the Gayety next evening. The new burlesque is entitled "The Saratoga Belle." The specialties embrace such artists as Varden, Perry and Wilber, three great singers, dancers and musicians; the sketch team, the Mannings; the Millard Brothers, comedians; and the three comedians, European acrobats, and the spectacular novelty "The Birth of Uncle Sam."

The gallery-god and the lover of real melodrama will again be in their element when Harry Clay Blaney and his brand new "The Boy Detective," comes to the Majestic next week. It is a continuation of the adventures of his famous character Willie Live, Charles Blaney promises that it will have a scenic production that will eclipse anything ever seen in the popular price house. During the week a matinee will be given every day.

A combination of beauty, music, handsome stage settings, rich and harmonious costumes, a well-known and efficient cast of principals and a colossal singing chorus are promised in the production of "The Little Trooper," which comes to the Grand next week. Particular consideration has, it is said, been devoted to the selection of the chorus, which has been chosen from a special list of college graduates by Frederick Solomon, director of Klaw & Erlanger.

The Toronto Rowing Club's minstrol show billed for the Royal Alexandra Theatre on Monday and Tuesday nights, May 1 and 2, promises to score a decided hit amongst local lovers of minstrelsy. Local vocalists and comedians will be seen to advantage in the first part of the program. There will be no radical departure from the traditional songs, choruses and patter mingling with the interlocutor, Victor Lewis, late of Fields' minstrels.

No. 100 A Dainty Mode for Home Wear.

Soft china silk was used in the development of this dainty dressing, sacque, and blue satin ribbon was used for the trimming. The garment is semi-fitting, being cut on easy, graceful lines and a large plastron renders the mode somewhat unusual and very dressy. It is gathered and caught to the waistline with loops and ends of the ribbon. The sleeves may be in elbow length, prettily finished by deep frills of the material, or they may extend to the wrist, gathered into straight cuffs. Lawn, dimity, dotted swiss, crepe cloth, silk and challis will all produce attractive developments. For 28 inches bust measure 4 1/4 yards of 27-inch material will be required.

House Jacket No. 100. Sizes for 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure.

A pattern of the accompanying illustration will be mailed to any address on receipt of ten cents in silver.
