THREE HORSE THLEVES

At Least Police Think They Are Right Parties-Happenings of a Day.

HAMILTON, Aug. 17 .- (Special.)reaened reorganization of the county ct of stirring up the force, for three day. Two were caught at Waterdown this morning, and County Constable Tufford rounded up another this afternoon. The prisoner's name is Parker, and it is alleged that he stole a horse and outfit in Brantford. County Constable Kerr took him to Brantford this evening.

stable Kerr took him to Brantford this evening.

A Fisherles Dispute.

Magistrate Jelfs and the fisherles department do not see eye to eye on the interpretation of the Fish and Game Act. Two young men were before the court, their alleged offence consisting of standing upon the shore and catching minows by means of a net. The department has ruled that they violated the law, while the magistrate, although the department has ruled that they violated the law, while the magistrate, although the department has ruled the terminated the law, while the magistrate, although the department has ruled the terminated the law, while the magistrate, although the department has ruled the terminated the law, while the magistrate, although the department has ruled the terminated the law, while the magistrate, although the department has ruled that they violated the law, while the magistrate, although the department has ruled that they violated the magistrate, although the magistrate, although the magistrate, although the department has ruled that they violated the magistrate, although the magistrat

Some days ago Mrs. Johnston issued a writ against Miss Maggie Kirkpatrick for alleged alienation of her husband's affections. Another firm was instructed to accept the writ on behalf of Miss Fitzpatrick. Mrs. Johnston declines to have the name in the writ changed, and Miss Fitzpatrick refuses to accept it under the name of Miss Kirkpatrick. A detachment of 100 men from the 13th Regiment will take part in the tattoo at Galt on Aug. 21.

Herse Thieves Captured.

This morning John Maule, an hotel-keeper, Waterdown, captured a couple of thieves who afterwards confessed to stealing a horse and rig belonging to Robert Gee, Cooksville. The names they give are: William Wilcox, Niagara Falls, and Bert Weiner, Toronto. They pleaded guilty and elected to be sentenced by the county judge.

This morning Police Magistrate Jeffs allowed Charlie Yates to go on a bond of $200. Yates claimed that he was hounded by the police, and at the intercession of Mrs. Yates and a local firm who will give him work he was allowed to go.
