

Musgrave Rides Three Winners Four Favorites Again in Front

Inferno Beats Valley Farm Pair for Durham Cup—W. H. Carey Up-sets Sure-Thing Players—Debar is the Long Shot to Win.

Favorites again fared fairly well on the fourth day at Woodbine Park, four of them finishing in front, second and third choices and the long shot, Debar, landing the other three. The day was warm to a midsummer degree and with $100 added to the purse, the feature, and went to Inferno on account of his game run thru the stretch. The seven accepted the conditions, as good as 7 to 5 being obtainable against the Seagram pair, but the crowd coupled with the big horse, the latter's correct weight being only 125 lbs. The lightweighted Shimonoseki started out to make the long journey, followed by her stable companion, Keipie, Musgrave riding Inferno third. The Globe fourth, two round, Inferno responded gamely and passed both the Hendrie horses with little effort and was with the lead at the public square was divided between the two stables.

Sir Montmerie Clark formally presented the magnificent trophy to Mr. Seagram, the president making a suitable response. The Dufferin Plate was next in importance from a money standpoint, and the best finish of the day. Clell Turney led through, with Charlie Gilbert and Lally beside him and Col. Jack last. Up the stretch Col. Jack cut loose, and at the betting ring poked his nose in front. Burns making the fatal mistake of pulling his whip. Turney came again and won by a short head, Gilbert third and Lally nowhere. The three in the money were all backed to win.

The seventh race had also a head finish, Debar, at 10 to 1, coming from no where to win from Amos C. on the post. Marbles third. Half a dozen had strong support. Tho the money poured in on Amos C., the favorite's price grew ominously longer.

Five stood up in the steeplechase, or one better than the day before. The first three alternated in the lead, Steve Lane getting the verdict easily by a run after the last jump. Arian, the injured, looked the winner until he faltered on the flat, and then pulled up. Hank Rowe second, G. C. for the place. The last named had a good lead on finishing the first mile.

The first four races were easy for the winners. Waterbury led as good as 3 to 1 against his chances, a false price, and he won all round. Hank Rowe second and Pretension defeating Montbert for third.

Tony W. took the second as he pleased—out in front and never in trouble, finishing two lengths ahead of Silk Hose. Dispute four lengths back, Jane beating Charlie horse a neck for the show. Aralia and the winner had the place.

W. H. Carey liked his weight, and the Doncaster Plate mile. He came from behind up the stretch like a wild horse, and ahead of Ethon in the money.
