

reported for the previous year ; but a marked difference will be noticed in the smaller sums given to the Schemes of the Church, and the larger amount allocated towards interest on our church loan. This increased allocation to interest has been made in compliance with the expressed wish of the contributors, and in consequence of this, the Session have not been permitted to allocate to the missionary and benevolent schemes of the Church, as large sums as the congregation has been accustomed to give towards these objects in former years.

The following are the allocations of the schedule funds :—

Interest on Church loan.....	$1400 00
Home Missions, including $203.65 already paid and $50.00 to the Mission to Lumbermen	850 00
Augmentation of Stipends, including $82.30 already paid.....	440 00
Foreign Missions.....	300 00
French Evangelization.....	50 00
Colleges, Queen's.....	$120 00
Manitoba	25 00
Presbyterian, Montreal.....	30 00
	<hr/>
	175 00
Ministers' Widows and Orphans Fund	100 00
Aged and infirm Ministers' "	65 00

	$3,380 00

The total of these allocations amounting to the sum of three thousand three hundred and eighty dollars.

The Session have pleasure in reporting that the efficiency of the Choir has been well maintained throughout the year. Mr. F. C. Smythe, M.B., having resigned the position of organist and choirmaster of this church, the Session were fortunate in securing the services of Mr. F. M. S. Jenkins, as his successor in that important office, and under his conductorship the musical portion of our church service continues to be an attractive feature in our public worship. The congregation is much indebted to the members of the choir for the assistance which they have given in conducting our public service of praise. The Session would also recognize the valued aid which the Sunday School orchestra has rendered, not only to the Sunday School and Young People's Society, but also in leading the service of song in the mid-week meetings of the
