

CELERY.—For the best and largest blanched, not less	s.	d.
than 6 roots, a premium of - - -	5	0	6
CORN.—For the best six ears, sweet, a premium of -	5	0	6
TURNIPS.—For the best six roots, a premium of -	5	0	6
BEETS.—For the best six roots, a premium of -	5	0	6
TOMATOES.—For the best display, not less than twelve,
a premium of - - - - -	5	0	6
CARROTS.—For the best display, not less than six of each sort, a premium of - - -	5	0	6
PARSNIPS.—For the best display, a premium of -	5	0	6
ONIONS.—For the best display of different sorts, not less than 12 each, a premium of - -	10	0	6
EGG PLANTS.—For the best display, a premium of -	5	0	6
MUSHROOMS.—For the best basket, a premium of -	5	0	6
SALSAFY.—For the best twelve roots, a premium of -	5	0	6
SQUASHES.—For the best two Canada, a premium of -	5	0	6
PUMPKINS.—For the best two yellow, a premium of -	5	0	6
SWEET POTATOES.—For the best dozen, a premium of	5	0	6
NEW VEGETABLES.—For any new variety, suitable for table, a premium of - - - - -	10	0	3
VEGETABLE MARROW.—For the best two specimens,
a premium of - - - - -	5	0	3
VEGETABLES.—For the best display and greatest variety, not more than two specimens of each,
a premium of - - - - -	10	0

BIRDS.

PIGEONS.—For the best collection, bred in the country,
a premium of - - - - -	10	0
For the second best do., a premium of - -	5	0
For the best pair of "Carriers," a premium of -	5	0	3
For the best pair of "Pouters," a premium of -	5	0	3
For the best pair of "Fantails," a premium of -	5	0	3
For the best pair of "Jacobins," a premium of -	5	0	3
For the best pair of "Almond Tumblers," a premium of - - - - -	5	0	3