THE CRIB It may be several weeks before the spring tides will be high enough to enable the Maritime Dredging & Construction Company to remove the Connolly crib from the middle of the harbor.

GERMAIN STREET PAVEMENT A start was made today on the work of repairing the surface of the Germain street paving between Princess and Queen streets. A large number of holes have been discovered and they will be filled in with cement.

THE EAST END LEAGUE A re-organization meeting of the East End League executive was held last night in the Moose Home with the president, George Lohy, in the chair. Plans for the season were discussed, but nothing definite was arrived at last night. The executive will hold another meeting to elect officers and arrange for the summer's play.

TRIAL TRIP OF CAR A visitor to the city on Saturday last was F. P. Gutelius general manager of the Intercolonial Railway, of Moncton, who came here in the first trip of his new private car. He is said to have been very well satisfied with the way in which the car was built and finished. F. P. Brady was also here in his private car. They returned to Moncton that evening.

WHOLESALE MARKET Conditions in the wholesale grocery market have not shown much change for the last week. General staples remain about the same, although the sugar market is reported in an unsettled state just now. Molasses seems to have reached bottom prices, while flour shows no signs of change. American clear pork is lower and the same is true of pure lard although the drop in the latter is very slight.

A LIQUOR CASE Frederick Godin appeared before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court yesterday afternoon to answer a charge of having on his person more liquor than allowed by law and also with selling liquor without a license. John Best, Arthur Dykeman, Robert Stevens, James McConnell, Frederick R. Harty, Best, George Godose and William McCoombs gave evidence. Several bottles of liquor were found but none of the witnesses could say as to a sale. A large number of empty bottles were also found. The case was adjourned until Friday afternoon.

DEATH OF SYRIAN YOUTH After a lingering illness, the death of Thomas J. Ritchie, the eighteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ritchie, occurred at his parents' residence, 184 Erin street, yesterday afternoon. He was a native of Syria and had been in this city about two years. His father is a member of the Syrian Protection Association. Besides his father and mother, he leaves three brothers, Charles, Barbour and Ritchie, and one sister, Mary, all of this city. The funeral will take place tomorrow and will be officiated by representatives of the Syrian Protection Association from the Fredericton, Yarmouth and St. John branches.

BURIED TODAY The funeral of Miss Annie M. Nixon was held this afternoon at her late residence, in Queen street, to Fenhill. Services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Barraclough.

This morning the funeral of Miss Elizabeth McMahon was held from her late residence, 40 St. David street, to the Cathedral where regular high mass was celebrated by Rev. William Duns. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Christina Lomen was held this afternoon from her late residence, in Chapel street, to Fenhill. Services were conducted by Rev. Henry Pierce.

MISS DEINSTADT BRIDE OF LAWRENCE B. C. McMANN

Daughter of Carmarthen Street Pastor — Will Make Home in Toronto

A very pretty wedding took place in Carmarthen street Methodist church at half past three o'clock this afternoon when Miss Janet Deinstadt, daughter of Rev. T. J. Deinstadt pastor of the church, was married to Lawrence B. C. McMann, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Boyd McMann of this city and manager of the Bloore and Spadina streets branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia in Toronto. Miss Hazel Deinstadt sister of the bride, was bridesmaid with the little Misses Helen and Dorothy Bell, nieces of the bride, as flower girls. The bridegroom was supported by W. Claude Sinclair of the Bank of Nova Scotia staff, Charlotte-town, P. E. I. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with palms and potted plants. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Howard Sprague, D.D., dean of faculty of the Faculty of the University of Mount Allison, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The bride was dressed in white satin trimmed with rose point lace with bridal veil trimmed with orange blossoms and made a pretty picture carrying a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was very prettily dressed in pale blue brocade satin and crepe de chine with white fringe trimmed with pale blue ostrich feathers and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The flower girls were dressed in white trimmed with pink and white-caps trimmed with pink rose buds, each with a dainty basket of pink sweet peas.

Mrs. Deinstadt, mother of the bride, was handsomely gowned in black charmeuse with an overdrum of Spanish lace and jet hat. Mrs. McMann, mother of the bridegroom, wore a becoming gown of silver gray charmeuse satin trimmed with white Maltese lace with a coat of black Maltese lace.

The bride entered the church while The Voice The Breathed. The wedding was sung by the Junior choir. She was given away by her father. During the service, Mrs. L. M. Carren sang O Perfect Love, and Miss Bullock, presided at the altar. S. Crawford and C. E. Fairweather were the ushers.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents and Mr. and Mrs. McMann will leave on the Montreal train and, after a short visit to Montreal and Ottawa, will reside in Toronto.

Among the list of town guests who are in the city for the occasion are—Mrs. R. P. Bell, of Halifax, sister of the bride; Miss Jane Allen, of Yarmouth; Mrs. George Gregory of Chatham, Mrs. W. W. Beer of Toronto, Miss Tweedie of Seckville, Mr. and Mrs. Garfield White of Sussex, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Jones of Moncton.

The bride, who is very popular, received many beautiful presents including gifts from her relatives in Carmarthen street church.

WINTER PORT SEASON IS NEAR THE END

Only Few More Sailings From St. John

With the exception of the two Elder-Dempster sailing, St. John's winter port season will close with the sailing of the Allan Line R. M. S. Virginian tomorrow. This will be the last sailing of the season and the steamer and the steamer er Montrose will be the last of the P. E. R. fleet, sailing also tomorrow. There will be one more South African Line sailing for New York, due on Saturday, and the last steamer on the New Zealand route will be the Southern, which is now on her way here from Sydney.

C. P. Line's Montreal is due to sail for London and Antwerp tonight.

The Manchester Port, the last of the Manchester winter boats, sailed at noon today for Norfolk, Va., where she will load for the Mediterranean.

The Manchester Commerce, which is the first steamer of the Manchester Line on the summer regular service, is due to sail tomorrow.

FAIRVILLE NEWS

Yesterday afternoon the fire department was called to put out a fire in the fence and endangering property nearby. The firemen were promptly on the scene and soon put an end to the matter.

In the evening about 7:30 o'clock an alarm was rung in for a fire in Orange street, but a mistake had been made, the reflection from a bonfire being taken for flames. The error was communicated to the fire department before it had turned out. Just at this season of the year many people are burning refuse and care should be exercised.

Harry Ellis, who has been conducting a meat department on the premises of B. L. Wood, grocer, during the last year, moved across the street yesterday into the Mason building.

The need of a public play ground becomes very apparent as the summer time approaches and children utilize the streets for games of ball and other recreation. There is a good deal of talk at present regarding the matter and it is said a statement as to public meeting to discuss the question will be available in a day or two.

It is learned that the authorities are considering a change in the hours of the policeman. As pointed out before the village requires the diligence of a watchman more during the silent hours of the night than any other time.

There is very little change in the condition of James Lowell, South Bay, and doctors hold out little hope for his recovery.

The Turkey Bussers held their second annual meeting last evening in Lancaster. Mr. Campbell presided and more than forty of the fraternity attended. A splendid time was spent. A programme of varied selections was given, afterwards the members adjourned to William Pink's restaurant in Main street, Fairville, where luncheon was served. Among those who took part in the programme were Adam Campbell, James Catherwood, George Costley, Charles Masson, Charles Compton, W. Duffy and W. A. Fox.
