As a result of the elemination bouts between Willard and Johnson and Firpo and an opponent to be selected (probably Renault) there should be developed a fit man to meet Dempsey.

London, March 28—(By mail)—An interesting bit of old Westminster is gradually disappearing, and soon there will be little left of the original Petty with Buckingham gate. On the north side of Petty France, which for some time was known as York street, there remain five old houses, and three of these are doomed to speedy demolition to make way for the extension of Wellington Barracks. No. 32, well known for many years as an antique shop, has just been vacated. This house, which is over two hundred years old, has a remarkably fine old shop front, consisting of a beautiful bay window which is believed to be of the William and

WEST SIDE TEAM WINS DEBATE BY

SMALL MARGIN A debating team from the men's society of the Church of the Assumption was awarded a decision over a team from the Knights of Columbus yesterday following their debate which was held in the K. of C. hall. Owing to a technicality in the ruling of the judges their decision will be protested. Yesterday's debate was waged on the question: Resolved that the United States should enter the League of Nations. It was exceedingly close, the judges spending more than two hours trying to thresh out the arguments and arrive at a decision. The West St. John team defended the affirmative side of the resolution and the Knights, the negative. E. J. Owens, leader, and C. J. Callaghan represented the Assumption Society and Richmond Grannan and F. O. Conlon were the Knights' ideaters.

and F. O. Colloid we're the Minghts iebaters.

The judges were Joseph Harrington, T. E. O'Leary and E. J. Henneberry. W. R. Walsh, chairman of the Inter-Society Debating League, presided at the debate which attracted a large audience of both men and women, many of whom remained during the long delay to await the judges' devision rision.

The societies represented in yesterday's debate were tie for the leadership of the league and an extra contest was necessary to decide the supremacy. The Assumption Society won the league last year, and yesterday they were made the recipients of a large silver cup emblematic of this season's championship. It is understood that the executive of the league will meet in a day or two to consider the protest of the Knights of Columbus.

New York, April 16.-Never in the history of pugilism have the fighters in the heavyweight division been so generally gigantic physically. Every man in the class with any claim to to 200 pounds or above that figure. The heavyweights of thirty-five years ago may have been better fighters as a class, but they were not so imposing physically as the present pounds.

Jack Dempsey, world's champion, stands 6 feet 1 inch tall, and in con-dition for ring work weighs 190

Harry Wills, champion heavyweight of the negro race, towers 6 feet 3 inches and scales 215 pounds.

Jess Willard, the Pottawatomie giant is the tallest fighter of them all, his height being 6 feet 6 inches and his weight 280 pounds. height being 6 feet 6 inches and his weight 250 pounds.

Louis Firpo, the South American giant, measures 6 feet 2 inches when standing erect and weighs 225 pounds.

Floyd Johnson, the young Iowan who hopes to get a title match in the the future, is 1 inch above 6 feet in height and weighs 195 pounds.

Jack Renault, the Montreal heavy-weight, conqueror of George Godfrey, is a 6 footer and weighs 194 pounds.

Twenty-four years ago Jim Jeffries

Twenty-four years ago Jim Jeffries was champion, and he stood 6 feet 1 inch and weighed 220 pounds. He was the only 200 pounder in the class in those days.

Jim Corbett stood exactly 6 feet and weighed 184 pounds.

Bob Fitzsimmons was 5 feet 101-2 inches tall but never weighed more than 172 pounds. inches tall but never weighed mere than 172 pounds.

Tom Sharkey stood 5 feet 81-2 inches and weighed 180 pounds.

Peter Maher was 5 feet 101-2 inches tall and scaled 178 pounds.

Pugilistically Jeffries, Corbett and Fitz outclassed all the heavies of the present time, barring Dempsey, and there is no basis for comparison of the work of the former champions with that of the present title holder.

Sharkey, Maher and others of their time would have found worthy foe-
