

PROGRESS OF 10 YEARS TOLD OF

Historical Sketch of St. Bartholomew's Church Is Read

Work Begun by Rev. R. T. McKim Has Prospered—Some Events Recalled.

On last Thursday evening, as reported in The Times-Star next day, the tenth anniversary of St. Bartholomew's church was celebrated at a gathering in the Community Hall at Glen Falls. A short historical sketch was read by George Buckley and it is here given as follows:—

"In the year 1915, the Reverend R. Taylor McKim, left the city of Saint John, on a little missionary tour. Coldbrook was the place he had in view. Now, automobiles were not very plentiful at this time, and there were no street cars, so he walked from the city and after calling on the different families, and securing the use of McKim's Hall, it was announced that there would be Sunday school and service the first Sunday in August. This service was attended by 27, there being only 10 Protestant families at Coldbrook.

"Immediately the people started to get money to have a church built, but owing to the lateness in year it was left over till the year of 1916, when the first service was held on June 4th in the building, (although it was not nearly completed). There were no windows, and it was only partly shingled, but with the voluntary help of some of the young men in the parish this was soon completed, and services were continued until late in the fall.

A MEMORIAL

"Early in 1917 the windows were put in and the electric lights installed as a memorial to Pte. Frank Ledford, by his wife and family, (who have since moved away). A stove had been given to the church from Saint Mary's and we were able to have services all winter. The fuel also was donated.

"The population of Coldbrook has grown some, there being about ten new houses above the three mile house and four new ones below the station at what is known as Eastmount, and there were only seven benches and 10 chairs in the church, not enough for the Sunday school, little less than the congregation of the church. However, there was at that time a Women's Guild, of about 10 members, and they advised Mr. McKim to purchase 75 chairs, in their name. And I guess they must have paid for them for we have not heard anything of the cost or the bill for them since. During this year there had been some money collected for the purpose of painting the inside of the church. A portion of this money was used to pay two painters to do the work. The varnish was donated by Messrs. T. McAvilly & Sons.

PROGRESS

"Now the church has come along wonderfully, but the time has come when one who has been with us from the first and did his work well, and faithfully to the glory of our Heavenly Father, and whom we all loved, has been called home to God, and on February 8, 1920, the first funeral service was held.

"The Reverend J. H. Pogson, on his birthday gave as a present and token of remembrance a beautiful Bible. Then came the beautiful communion table the gift of some friends, also two nice chairs. The first confirmation service was held on September 15, 1920, and there were 17 candidates.

"We are now in the year of 1921, and this year is not passing without leaving something to be remembered long, for once more we are called to give up a loved one, for in July the Father takes one of our Sunday school scholars, whose work on earth was done, although only 8 years old, this making the second funeral from the church.

FIRST WEDDING

But this is not the only thing we have to remember in 1921; for on the morning of September 24, at 6.45, the first wedding took place, Miss Mildred Duckie and Sydney Roberts.

"The year 1922 passed very quietly, although all were working hard for improvement. Then there came a change in 1923 for we had to decide on getting a student layman, this decision was made and on May 13, Mr. A. L. Gardner preached for the first time to a congregation of 33. Now the work once more starts and the outside of the church is painted, the labor being voluntary.

"In 1924 a second coat of paint was put on under the same supervisor, Mr. Gardner. There was also another wedding in October. The W. A. purchased the carpet that adorns the chancel, for the thanksgiving service of the same year.

"Nineteen hundred and twenty-five begins well, the chancel has received a nice coat of paint and also $200 has been paid on the mortgage. Between the time of Rev. Mr. Pogson and Mr. Gardner W. Dunlop, Mrs. Bridgewater, W. E. Fuller and Rev. P. Haslam assisted in the work.

Social Notes of Interest

Miss Margaret Power, one of the brides-elect for June, was recipient of a very pretty novelty shower at a bridge given by Miss Ellen O'Regan at her home, Elliott Row, on Saturday afternoon. Yellow and white flowers were used in the drawing room and apple blossoms in the dining room, making a lovely setting for the guests.

Little Miss Mary Connel, niece of the bride, was the guest of honor, and the gifts of handkerchiefs and a basket trimmed with yellow and white. The members of the Nucleus Club were all present and presented to the bride-elect, a handsome Madeira luncheon set. Miss Power will be the third of the club to marry, the others being

Mrs. Thomas Nagle and Mrs. Richmond Grannan. The name of the club is "eleven," spelled backwards, and marks the number of members, who have been united for several years.

Four tables of bridge were played, the prize winners being Miss Josephine Conlon, Miss Gertrude O'Neil and Mrs. Frank L. O'Regan. Those present were Miss Margaret Power, Miss Gertrude O'Neil, Miss Vida Waterbury, Miss Mary Conlon, Miss Anne Jennings, Mrs. C. A. Conlon, Jr., Miss Helen McGuire, Miss Margaret Gilhooly, Mrs. F. L. O'Regan, Miss Josephine Conlon, Mrs. W. H. Milne, Miss Eleanor Tapley, Miss Josephine Conlon, Mrs. W. H. Milne, Miss Eleanor Tapley, Mrs. Fred O. Conlon, Miss Lillian Murphy, Miss Marjorie Grannan, Miss Nene Jennings, Miss Kathleen Conlon and Mrs. Richmond Grannan. Miss Tapley assisted the hostess in serving at the tea hour. Miss O'Regan presented to Miss Power a lovely nosegay.

Mrs. Gillis Keator, of Halifax, is the guest of her sisters, the Misses Sidney Smith, Duke street.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. Starr and family have moved to Rothesay, where they will spend the summer months.

Mrs. David Hipwell and her daughter, Miss Annie Hipwell, of New Westminster, B. C., are expected to arrive in the city this month to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Downing Paterson and family have moved to their summer residence in Rothesay Park.

Miss Pauline Powell, who has been visiting in the States and Montreal, returned home last week.

Mrs. Gordon Likely and Miss Jane Creighton, who have been visiting in Boston and Portland, Me., have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Powell and Miss Powell have moved to their summer cottage at Duck Cove.

What is the Real Reason for the Mental Force and Physical Endurance of the "Go-getter"?

Grape-Nuts is made of pure wheat and malted barley. More than three-fourths of the content of Grape-Nuts are the precious carbohydrates.

In Grape-Nuts the carbohydrates have been dextrinized, that is, scientifically broken down into the form your body most readily digests.

Grape-Nuts comes in crisp, golden kernels which you must chew. This starts the process of digestion where it should properly start—in the mouth.

THE "go-getters" in business today—and in home and social life, too—have healthy, active minds and vigorous bodies because they have learned to carry out the most important law of living. They practise every day the law that doctors are stressing now more than ever before—the law of right eating.

The foods we eat have a tremendous influence on our mental and physical well-being. They have the power to build us up or to drag us down—to make us "go-getters" or to put us in that too-numerous class of people who suffer from tiredness, nervousness and a general low state of vitality.

Our daily foods, no matter how much nourishment they may contain, must come to us in the proper form for instant, easy assimilation.

One-half of all we eat should be the precious food elements called carbohydrates. Grape-Nuts, which is made from whole wheat and malted barley, is three-fourths carbohydrates in the form of dextrins. Twenty-two hours of slow baking has changed the carbohydrates into the most easily digested food substance known!

Try substituting Grape-Nuts for the principal dish which you now eat at either breakfast or lunch, or both. Notice the result!

Grape-Nuts is available from all grocers in wax-wrapped packages. Four heaping teaspoonfuls, sufficient for each helping, costs less than one cent. Serve with milk or cream just as it comes from the package.
