Williams Family Holding Reunion in Carleton This Week—Trace Ancestry Back to the Seventeenth Century

The Williams family, one of the loyalist families of St. John have been holding a reunion this week at the home of G. S. Williams, 86 Middle street, West End. Several of the members returned here for the first time since they left, forty-six years ago, while others have been here only once or perhaps twice during that period.

There were thirteen members of the family. Those who have passed away are: Thomas Edwin Williams, who died in New Haven, in 1893; John Henry Godfrey Williams, who died here in 1865; Edwin Daniel Williams, who died in Warwick, Conn. about 1885; Margaret Isabelle Williams, who died in 1843, and is buried in the Old Burying Ground here, and Mrs. Frances Isabelle Devery, who died at St. John three years ago, and is buried in Uncasville, Conn.

The parents, Edwin Penn Williams and Mary Wetmore, were married in the old Trinity church in 1840, by Rev. Dr. Grey. Mr. Williams died in 1885, and is buried in Cedar Hill cemetery, and Mrs. Williams passed away in 1888 in New London, Conn., where interest took place. Born in this city in 1818, Mr. Williams was the son of Thomas Williams, who was himself born in St. John, and who with his wife is buried in the old Loyalist burying ground. His mother's name was Mary H. Weston. Mrs. Williams was a daughter of Daniel Van Cots Wetmore and Hannah Trask, and was born in Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, and came to America in 1835. He settled in Wetherfield, Conn., and married Sarah Hall, of Hartford, Conn. One of her deaths he was married twice later and had sixteen children.

One of the descendants was James Wetmore, who married Elizabeth Abraham. They came to St. John in 1783 and settled at Hammond Road. He died in 1797 and was buried in Hampton. John Wetmore was born in 1755, and was married in 1778 to a captain. He died in Long Island. They removed to New Brunswick in 1783. He was a government land surveyor in the community in connection with the United States. He was also a lieutenant in the British army during the revolution, and later was promoted to a captain. He died in Yarmouth in 1868. Among his eighteen children was Daniel Van Cots Wetmore, great-grandfather of the Williams men and women, who have been meeting in St. John. All the visiting members of this family are delighted with St. John, and say they are very proud of their native city.

IT MEANS NEW PAPER MILLS IN THIS PROVINCE

Man in Close Touch With That Industry Predicts Development Along This Line Under The Reciprocity Agreement

A citizen who is an authority on matters in connection with the pulp and paper industry in the maritime provinces, in speaking to the Times this week on the effect of reciprocity on that business, gave it as his opinion that with the advantages resulting from the ratification of the agreement, these provinces would see in the course of a little while new paper mills constructed.

The erection of a paper mill in any community, he said, naturally meant increased prosperity to the section in which it was built, and the opportunities offered in New Brunswick for the carrying on of a successful paper manufacturing business under reciprocity were numerous and fruitful.

The greatest of all of these advantages was in his opinion the opportunity afforded of getting near the raw product, an essential feature in figuring the profits in any line of manufacturing. In this province there were vast acres of pulp lands, he said, and by the erection of paper mills in such territories or near to them the cost of transportation of the raw material would be very much lessened.

On paper of different grades, such as newsprint, cardstock, etc. there is now a duty of four cents a pound and there would be none under reciprocity, and admittance would be free. The paper man referred to believed that Canadian mills could easily compete with the American manufacturers in the lines of paper, but did not think that any better or more expensive kinds of paper would be manufactured here as the competition would not be strong enough on the part of local mills.

For business reasons the gentleman in question did not approve of his name being published in this talk on reciprocity, but he is known as a thoroughly reliable paper mill and also the new work which is being undertaken there, Sir Robert will also inspect his immense contract in connection with the Georgian Bay canal.

The distinguished Britisher will attend the important Maritime conference opening on October 1 in Toronto.

Sir Robert landed in New York on Tuesday. He was visiting Cuba, where he has large interests and will come to Millerton via St. John.

Talking with the Leader, Mr. Volkman said the visit of Sir Robert to Canada would combine business and pleasure. He was coming to Millerton to inspect the paper mill and also the new work which is being undertaken there. Sir Robert will also inspect his immense contract in connection with the Georgian Bay canal.

The distinguished Britisher will attend the important Maritime conference opening on October 1 in Toronto.

WHAT A MAN OR A STORE HAS DONE IN THE PAST IS SIGNIFICANT OF WHAT IT WILL DO IN THE FUTURE

So far as it is in control of his or its own action:

If the Oak Hall Clothing Store has served you, dollar for dollar, with better merchandise than any other store for twenty years past; then it is logical to assume that dollar for dollar you will get the best merchandise here again today.

Our salesmen tell us enthusiastically that if the advance showing of Fall and Winter Clothing that we are making is a criterion of what is to follow, then the Oak Hall business ought to jump forward by leaps and bounds.

Owing to the advance in prices of labor and materials many retailers are sure to yield to the temptation to substitute cheaper grades of woolsens and less careful workmanship.

This coming season the standard of quality in Oak Hall Clothing will be moved up a peg—it will be as near perfection as all these years of experience and high ideals can bring it.
