

TWENTIETH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
BOARD OF MANAGERS
OF THE
HALIFAX SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND.

---

In submitting to the Members of the Corporation, and to the public, the Twentieth Annual Report of the Halifax School for the Blind, the Board of Managers have reason to feel thankful to a kind Providence for the continued welfare and prosperity of the Institution, and for the many blessings which they are now enabled to extend to the Blind of the Maritime Provinces.

Vigorous work is being carried on in the several departments of the School, and the zeal and devotion of the staff of teachers finds a happy response in the industry and application of the pupils. Each year your Board finds fresh encouragement in the success achieved by the graduates of the Institution, and it is no small gratification for them to realize that each year the confidence of the public in the music teachers and pianoforte tuners, trained in this School, shows a steady increase. In the report of the Superintendent will be found a schedule of the work being done for the Blind of the Maritime Provinces, and we believe that such work done thoroughly and conscientiously cannot fail to prove a blessing to every blind child committed to our charge.

In assuming the responsibility of extending the accommodation of the Institution, your Board relied largely on the generosity of the Legislature of Nova Scotia and of the pub-
