

St. Andrew's Sabbath School Report for 1894.

A review of our Sabbath School work for the year just closed presents many features for thanksgiving to the Great Head of the Church. A goodly number of the scholars, during the year, made a public profession of their faith in Jesus as their Saviour. This, we believe, is only an earnest of the good work which is being quietly but honestly done for the Master.

In common with the rest of the congregation we mourn the loss of our pastor, Rev. J. Allister Murray. His cheerful and encouraging words and wise counsels are greatly missed by us.

Early in the spring the Board of Managers undertook and completed the long needed improvements necessary to make the school room habitable. The light and class accommodation are now as good as it is possible to make them in a basement.

The number of pupils on the roll is not as large as it was last year, and there is a corresponding decrease in the average attendance. The falling off is in the junior classes; the attendance in the senior classes being even better than it was in 1893.

The pupils in the Chinese Class have been more uniformly regular in their attendance, and apparently they are taking a deeper interest in religious instructions.
