

MR. HEAP:

Q. How do you know that Peter George was your father hired man?

A. I have seen him for years with my father in our place, before we went there and he went with us down there.

Q. He worked with your father as hired man up in St. Andrews before you went down? A. Yes.

Q. And he went down there with you? A. Yes, and he has married there.

Q. When you were down there wintering did he work for your father then? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What kind of work did he do? A. Hauling hay or chopping wood or something like that.

Q. During these winteres that you have spoken of did this man, Peter George, work for anyone else besides your father?

A. Oh, I could not really say. There was not many to work for down there at that time.

Q. Was he working for your father throughout the whole of each of these winters?

A. Some years he would work all winter.

Q. Did you ever hear him speak of the lot, as to who owned the lot, did you ever hear Peter George say whose lot it was?

A. Not till after the Treaty, he claimed it then.

Q. Did you ever hear your father in his presence speak of whose lot it was?

A. No, never.

Q. Did Peter George ever tell you how he got the lot, claimed to get it .

A. No, he did not.

Q. He did not say that he had bought it from your father?

A. No,

Q. Is that all you know about that?

A. Yes.

Indian Affairs. (RG 10, Volume 3735, file 27117-3)

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA

Poor-Copy