WHAT ANNA HELD TOO CARELESSLY
Her Satchel With Money and Diamonds too
a Great Value Stolen on a Train.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 23.—The police of this city and a well known detective agency are working diligently to discover the whereabouts of $150,000 worth of jewelry which Anna Held, the actress, reported were stolen from her on a Pennsylvania train while coming into Cleveland early Monday. The gems, said to include many very elaborate and valuable pieces, were stolen from Miss Held's state room while she and her husband, Florence Ziegfeld, Jr., were temporarily absent from it. The jewels were in a satchel which also contained over $6,000 in money, and papers, bank books, etc., which Miss Held said she valued at $100,000. When the case was first reported to the local police, they were incredulous, but Chief Kohner says he is now convinced that the robbery was committed. Miss Held gave a description of two men on the train she said she suspected and the detective agency reported today that they had got trace of one of them in Baltimore. Miss Held says she believes she was followed by the two men from Baltimore to this city. The actress appears grief stricken over her loss and says the satchel contained her entire fortune.

The more valuable pieces stolen consisted of a string of sixty-three pearls valued at $25,000, a string of fifty-one pearls valued at $25,000, a dog collar with four brooches of diamonds and eight strings of pearls, valued at $25,000, a diamond brooch worth $4,000 and some thirty other articles consisting of rings, chains, of diamonds, necklaces, etc., valued at from $500 to $5,000 each.

Pale? Thin?
How is it with the children these days? Have they plenty of grit, courage, strength? Or are they thin, pale, delicate? This reminds you of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It does great things for children. It gives them a good appetite, improves their digestion, builds up their general health. Ask your doctor if he endorses this. We have no equal. We publish C. O. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., OCT. 24, 1906.

LOOK NEARER HOME.

Almost every day eastern men come back from the west bringing stories of the golden opportunities existing out there, of the magnificent returns from farming, the wonderful increases in the value of land and generally advising eastern residents to better themselves by moving west. A good many are following their advice, and in some cases are throwing away the bone to grasp at the shadow. There is no doubt that western Canada is a great country, but it is not and never will be as rich as the east; it has opportunities of course, and those who cannot make a living here might just as well move out, for by so doing they only change the scene of their incompetence.

Talk about the prairie land being fertile, there is not an acre of it which can in any way approach the valley of the St. John. Wheat can be grown in Alberta, but in Carleton county the farmers are able to raise potatoes which are worth ten times as much to the acre. Thousands of young men from Prince Edward Island go west each year and leave behind them farms which if properly worked would yield them far greater returns proportionately than they can obtain in the Saskatchewan. There is not on this good green earth a tract of land for the growing of hay which can at all compare with the Tantramar marshes, and hay is now worth twelve dollars a ton. Yet a very large portion of this marsh land has been deserted, the farmers having either moved away or become too lazy to attend to their business.

Opportunities exist in the west? Of course they do, for in that country people have to stay awake in order to earn a living. Here in the east we are asleep. There are more chances here to the square inch than in a mile of Manitoba but we never see them. We are too dull and steady, going to bother about branching out; we are content to follow in the footsteps of our grandfathers and let others profit by our neglect.

In the eastern provinces can be found everything necessary to a progressive existence excepting the spirit of progress. We have the timber and farming land, immensely wealthy fisheries, unlimited mineral resources, and plenty of people. All we want is an old fashioned best pin, placed where it will do most good, so that when we sit down we will not remain asleep.

THOSE WHO NEED HELP.
At the meeting of the Associated Charities last evening the magnitude of the work now being carried on seemed to be fully appreciated, at least by those present. In the addresses made there was a tendency to get away from those branches of charitable effort which come directly under the control of the organization, and while references such as were heard in a few instances, may not lead to immediate practical results, the expressions of opinion from those engaged in this most worthy work are of value. It is a matter of deep satisfaction that so little real poverty exists in St. John, and that those who, if wholly dependent on their own weakness would suffer, have proper credit for. There is, however, a wider sphere in which the association may in the future find a way of asserting its influence, and that is in improving the condition not only of the paupers but of all those persons generally referred to as the poorer classes. It is the practice of the association to hold a day's work in the week, not poor enough to accept alms, nor rich enough to get along in comfort who suffer most. There are in St. John scores of families in which the earnings of the father are barely enough to provide food and lodgings, and in which if a day's work is lost the setback can only with difficulty be overcome. To illustrate, it came to the notice of the Star recently that a constable had been sent to a St. John home to collect a bill of eighteen dollars, which had accumulated during the course of a year. The constable returned to his employer's office without the money, and declined to make an arrest in the case, having been impressed with the explanation offered by the debtor and believing that imprisonment would be unprofitable. He reported the case stood this way: The laborer earned $1.50 per day for six days in the week. There were six young children in the family, making eight persons in all and by the closest saving it cost three cents per meal for each of them. This took $6.72 in the week, leaving a balance of thirty-two cents per day to pay the rent, provide fuel, light and clothing. The family were almost existing on this, but it was by watching every cent, and even with the strictest economy they were very gradually falling in debt. The father was steady and hard working, but he was not a skilled laborer and could not hope for better pay.

There are many such instances, in which the sufferers are more worthy of assistance than numbers of those who by their own idleness, or vice, have fallen into absolute want. These are the people it is hard to reach, they deserve attention as well as the others, though the problem of aiding them is an economic rather than a charitable one.

At the meeting in city hall last evening several of the aldermen were pleased to see newspaper criticism and evidently objected to much that has been said. Considering the many opportunities which have offered, the ordinary citizen wonders at the moderation of the papers. If the civic comedy were presented on the stage, people would declare it was overdrawn.

"AUTUMN."

(Fanny L. Ledford.)
The melancholy days have come—
To hide their naked limbs they ought
The ice-man's gun—thank God for that;
But lo! the coal man's here.

The trees are bare, and look forlorn,
Bereft of leaves and fruit;
To hide their naked limbs they ought
To wear a union suit.

Oh, blessed good old summer-time!
We miss you, now, you're gone;
We also miss our overcoats,
Which (curses) are in pawn.

THE FLORIST'S WINDOW.

"For me," said the veteran, "there's no social calendar at once so interesting to watch and so accurate as the windows of the fashionable florists. All summer long, although the most beautiful flowers of the field are in bloom, they have been set out with the simple arrangements of potted plants and the most unobtrusive of the flowers of the day. With every one out of town and nothing going on the floral mirror reflects the dulness of the season. But watch the windows now. Day by day the kaleidoscope behind the plate glass panes becomes more and more brilliant as the season becomes again enlivened with the people streaming back to town. And in a little while, when the horse shows will be arranged in a glory of crimson roses, delicate orchids and golden chrysanthemums. But with the first day of Lent they cowl their splendours like the season's beauty going into retreat. The violet is the most extravagant flower they display. But with Easter comes again the full radiance, and so to the death of the season and the putting on of half mourning by the floral heralds. It's as good as a play, and much more beautiful."

ANNA'S FAULT.

Papa—Kathleen, look what you have done; upset the inkpot all over my desk!
—Kathleen—Yes, papa, Anna wasn't looking after me properly.

WANTED INFORMATION.

Mr. Gadd (at the police station)—
"Can I see that burglar who stole my watch for breaking into my house last night?"
Inspector (hesitating)—"Well, I don't know. What do you want to see him about?"
Mr. Gadd—"Oh! there's nothing serious about it. I just wanted to find out how he managed to get into the house without waking my wife."

TOO MUCH OF A GOOD THING.

King Solomon was found in a state of collapse.
"I tried to explain a baseball game to a child," he said.
"They saw at once that he no longer cared who got the pennant."

TOO SUDDEN.

They were having a luncheon at a "red-jack" restaurant.
"I should like to marry a girl my direct opposite," he quipped, unsuspectingly.
She blushed. "Oh, Mr. Dushing, it is so sudden," she said.
And he saw he was lost.

MORE HUNTERS MEET WITH SUCCESS

FREDERICTON, Oct. 23.—Another party of successful sportsmen returned from the Miramichi woods by the I. C. R. express today and are at the Queen Hotel, while their trophies of the hunt are to be seen in front of Emack Bros' establishment.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moses, of Triton, N. H., who were hunting with "Uncle" Henry Braithwaite, the veteran guide, came out of the woods today. Mr. Moses is the second American lady to shoot a moose in this section this year, killing an animal with large antlers as well as a big caribou. Mr. Moses also shot a moose and caribou and both are well satisfied with their trip.

Mr. A. E. Barstow, of Ithaca, Michigan, who was hunting with Frank Russell on Cain's River, has sent the head of a large moose to Emack Bros. to be mounted.

Mr. F. H. Douglas, of New York, is at the Queen Hotel today and will go into the woods for a hunt with Henry Braithwaite as a guide.

Mr. Charles D. Butler, of Pittsfield, Mass., who secured a record head with antlers spreading well over 60 inches while here several years ago, is at the Queen today en route to the big game country.

A. B. Gilmour has on exhibition in his store, King Street, a large cup to be the trophy of the Maritime Curling Bonspiel to be held at Amherst this year. The cup is given by the Lowndes Co., manufacturers of 30th Century Clothing. The cup is about 40 inches high, with an ebony base, and is a trophy that is sure to create keen rivalry between the curling rinks. It is probably the finest of its kind ever offered for competition in the provinces.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS

IN SESSION TODAY

Large Number of Delegates are Attending the Convention in St. Andrews Church.

The Maritime Sunday School Convention was opened in St. Andrews' Church this morning.

At 9:15 devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. H. E. Thomas, of Moncton. At the pastor's conference which opened at 9:30, the following programme was carried out. "How the association work can help the pastor," by Rev. D. H. Simpson. "How the home department can help the teacher," by Rev. A. A. Graham. "The pastor and teacher training," by Rev. G. H. Anderson. "The pastor's spiritual leadership of the Sunday School," by Rev. W. Camp. The conference was presided over by Rev. H. E. Thomas.

At the superintendent's conference, the programme was as follows: "The superintendent's equipment for efficient leadership," W. C. Cross. "The superintendent in the school," D. C. Parth. "The superintendent and the teaching force," P. H. Green. "The superintendent and the modern departments of Sunday school work," J. T. Hayes.

J. N. Harvey presided. E. R. Machum presided at the teachers' conference, the programme of which was: "The teacher's equipment for the work of teaching," Dr. J. R. Lynch. "The elements of success in teaching," Mrs. N. W. Doyle. "How to stimulate the pupil to study," Rev. A. H. Kearney.

W. N. Harshbarger, chairman of the International Sunday School Executive, who is visiting here, was present at this morning's meeting. He addressed the pastor's conference.

About two hundred delegates are in the city. Messrs. Pierce, Ganong, Tullar and Meredith, who conduct the song service, will arrive this evening. At the public meeting tonight W. N. Harshbarger will give an address.

The delegates are staying at the homes of the St. John members.

PARENTS ARE GRATEFUL

St. George, N. B., Oct. 22, 1906. To the Editor of the St. John Star:—Kindly permit us through your columns to return thanks to the people of St. John for the kind and generous exhibition so much kindness towards us in our recent sorrow.

We thank all for the assistance rendered in the efforts to recover the bodies of our boys and while grateful to all we wish particularly to return our thanks to Mr. Thomas Kent, who so kindly placed his steamer at the disposal of those who recovered the bodies.

JOSEPH GOODIEL DANIEL RORDAN.

The Scarlet Mysteries open their brief engagement in this city at the York Theatre tonight. They come very highly commended upon from Newfoundland, Halifax and Moncton, as well as other parts of Lower Canada. Of late the lithographs and announcements of this troupe have aroused a great deal of curiosity, which will undoubtedly be intensified when the performance begins tonight. There is no suggestion of deception in the unique scheme of entertainment; on the contrary there will be exclamations of surprise when the scenes are unrolled across the water are ably managed, and come to the end of the highest praise. Everybody who attends their performances will enjoy a rare treat.

Nixon and Wilson will skate a one mile race at St. Andrews' Rollaway tomorrow night. These two boys have skated the fastest mile yet skated, 22, and the race was declared a "dead heat" at the sports last Thursday night and those who saw it pronounced it to be the best yet. Tomorrow's night's race will probably decide a winner. There will also be a one mile amateur race open to those who have never won a roller race, and the management will give a prize. Exchanges of vast assistance in the enlargement of this branch of the service.

It is also intended to adopt this system at the torpedo station at Newport and cards bearing cuts of torpedo seamen gunners at drill will be issued with the same object in view. The plan meets the hearty approval of the officials of the navy and it is understood that if successful, the scheme will be adopted in other departments of the service.

U. S. Naval Schools Resort to a Novel Advertising Scheme.

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 23.—A novel scheme, the first of its kind and having for its object the obtaining of recruits for the apprentice branch of the United States navy, has been adopted by Rear Admiral Charles M. Thomas, superintendent of the naval training system for apprentices at the station on Coasters Harbor Island, near this city. Norfolk and San Francisco. Special postal cards, bearing picture of the apprentices at various drills will be printed and placed on sale, and it is believed that this method will not only advertise the apprentice system widely, but will also result in the enlistment of a large number of recruits.

Color plays a great part in all social life. The old blacks and browns are going out rapidly. Even among men, reds and yellows are getting the style. People did not think this would apply to drinks. In tea the old black Chinas are out and the new Ceylons, such as Tiger, show rich cherry color in the cup. The Dharjeelin and other odd names to make the Tiger Teas, show rich colors before the milk is added.

All notices of Births, Marriages and Deaths must be endorsed with the names and addresses of the persons sending same.

DEATHS.

RAILROAD TRAINMEN WANT EIGHT HOUR DAY

Western Lines are Involved in What Promises to Become a Serious Problem.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—The western railroads are facing a serious labor problem. The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, on behalf of its switchmen, today presented demands to all the railroads entering Chicago for an eight hour day. The Brotherhood's action follows that of the Switchmen's Union, which presented similar demands some time ago, but the two movements are independent. The railroads, however, will be obliged now to deal with practically the whole organized strength of the switchmen instead of the fractional part represented by the Switchmen's Union. The move is the most extensive attempted by the railroad organizations in many years. Every railroad west of Pittsburgh and Buffalo in the United States is involved. In Chicago the twenty-three trunk and the short belt lines and private roads owned by corporations are called upon to comply with the switchmen's request.

The Brotherhood's demands were presented to the railroad simultaneously in a dozen large cities.

INSANE MURDERESS ESCAPED FROM ASYLUM

BOSTON, Oct. 23.—Mrs. Minnie McKenize, who shot and killed police officer Alfred M. Sturtevant, when the latter was trying to take her into custody at her home in East Boston on December 4, 1904, escaped from the Worcester Insane Asylum today where she has been a prisoner, but was captured this evening by local police and was placed in the house of detention for the night. She will be sent back to Worcester upon the arrival of officers from the asylum tomorrow.

Mrs. McKenize was found this evening at the home of her brother, Frank Cowan, 84 West Concord street, Mrs. Cowan told the officers that the woman appeared today and she was so exhausted that she decided to allow her to remain over night, and then turn her over to the police in the morning.

Mrs. McKenize was effected by Deputy Superintendent Hanson, who took her to the house of detention and then to the Quinby, superintendent of the hospital at Worcester.

WORCESTER, Mass., Oct. 23.—Mrs. McKenize, who was captured in Boston tonight after having escaped from Worcester Insane Hospital at Bloomingdale, about two miles outside this city, will be returned to the institution tomorrow.

"At the insane hospital all information of Mrs. McKenize's escape was withheld, the hospital authorities refusing absolutely to discuss the matter. It was learned upon good authority, however, that Mrs. McKenize was today transferred from that part of the hospital where she had been confined to new quarters in the main building, and there put to some light labor. It is said that the door was left unlocked and that the woman had no difficulty in walking out of the hospital building onto the public highway. This happened sometime between 1:30 and 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The police were notified of the escape about four o'clock and in the description of the woman given by the hospital authorities she was characterized as "dangerous" but nothing was said about her being the person who killed a policeman in East Boston.

It is believed that after leaving the hospital, Mrs. McKenize walked to either Westboro or Grafton and then, by means of a car bound for Boston. How or where she obtained money necessary for car fare could not be learned here tonight.

MURPHY SAYS TAMMANY IS SOLID FOR HEARST

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Charles F. Murphy tonight authorized the following statement:

"Tammanny Hall will be absolutely loyal to the Democratic ticket, from top to bottom, and I believe it will poll a very heavy majority in New York County. The present movement is of far greater importance than the personal or political preference or grievances of any individual. It is a revolt of the people against the domination of government in all its branches by the trust monopolies which have increased the cost of living far beyond any increase in the rate of wages by stifling through the secret rebates they enjoy legitimate competition in every field of industry and commerce."

"The issue is clean cut, whether the corporate monopolies shall control the government or the government control the corporations."

"On this issue there can be no doubt of Democratic success."

"William Randolph Hearst, in popular estimation, has become the embodiment of this widespread revolt against special privileges and the corruption they have engendered."

"It was the resolution of this fact and the strong demand for his nomination throughout the state that led Tammanny Hall delegates to cast their votes for him at the Buffalo convention."

"Whatever differences may have arisen between representatives of the Democratic Party and officers of the Independence League over local nominations they in no wise effect this main issue. Now that all matters of this character are settled finally and definitely, there will be no discussion among members of the organization, all of whom henceforth have but one object, the triumphant election of the candidate of the party."

"When a question of such vast importance to the whole body of the people is involved, it is hardly conceivable that any man sincerely attached to Democratic principles would hesitate to work cordially for Mr. Hearst and for the platform on which he stands."
