Lee left on the steamer "Rose Standish" for Eastport, where they were joined by Company I of that city and will proceed to Augusta, Maine, to await further orders. Last evening the school room of Trinity church was brilliant with light and color, it being the occasion of a Japanese tea party given by the ladies who are so well known as "Trinity Workers." The school room was most beautifully decorated with Japanese bric-a-brac. In the centre of the hall hung a huge Japanese umbrella, from it festooned to the corners of the building blue and yellow Japanese bunting. All through the room were strings of bright colored lanterns and fans. A pagoda of Japanese style was erected at the end of the hall, and in it, attired in Japanese costumes, Miss Alice Todd and Miss Kate Washburn sold Japanese sweets and novelties. The supper was served on the European plan and the young ladies who waited on the tables were dressed in Japanese costumes, which were extremely becoming. Miss Ethel Waterbury looked very pretty in pink and blue, and Miss Daisy Hanson and Mrs. John W. Scoville in brilliant dresses of yellow. Mrs. W. F. Todd wore a gorgeous costume of pink and green and gold. Miss Bessie Bixby and Mrs. John E. Algar in blue and white served at the general refreshment table. Mrs. C. H. Clarke in a costume of yellow, concocted in her chaffing dish delicious Welsh rarebit, and Mrs. Waterbury in a pretty costume of violet, gold and white, cooked to perfection oysters in cream as they were ordered. Mrs. Frank A. Grimmer wore a figured brown costume, lined with pale blue and Mrs. Fredric Grimmer and Mrs. W. D. McLoughlin wore costumes of yellow and pink that were most noticeable. There were a number of other ladies that looked extremely well but a bad memory as well as lack of space prevents a description. The party was a success in every way, more than a hundred dollars was the result of the ladies' efforts. The whole affair is largely due to Mrs. C. H. Clarke and Mrs. W. F. Todd and it is to the taste of these ladies that the decorations of the room were so perfect and artistic.

On Saturday afternoon his friends and the community in general were shocked and horrified to hear that Mr. Charles D. McCully of the congregational church conducted the service. THINGS OF VALUE.

"I'd be better off if I were dead," complained Cynicus; "but, then, I suppose nobody would take the trouble to bury me decently." "Why, Mr. Cynicus," said Miss Daisy, "and, with the ready sympathy of sweet 16, "why, I'm sure all your friends would bury you gladly."

There never was and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy, for all ills to which the flesh is heir. The very nature of many curatives being such that were the germs of other and indifferently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient, what would relieve one ill, in turn, would aggravate the other. We have, however, in Quinine Wine, when obtainable in a sound unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use, the frail systems are led into convalescence and strength, by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid dependency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and, by tranquillizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which being stimulated, courses through the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased "substance" and results, improved appetite, Northrop & Lyman, of Toronto, have given to the public their superior Quinine Wine, the natural, safe, and undoubted remedy, the opinion of scientists, this wine approaches near perfection of any in the market. All druggists sell it.

Mrs. Greyhair—When I die I want you to en-bury me in my tomb. "There is Quiet in heaven," Mr. Greyhair—I think, my dear, it would be more to the point to make it "There Was Quiet in Heaven."

It may be only a trifling cold, but neglect it and it will become a lung disease, and you will soon be carried to an untimely grave. In this country we have sudden changes and must expect to have coughs and colds. We cannot avoid them but we can cure them by using Bickel's Anti-Congestive Syrup, the medicine that has never been known to fail in curing coughs, colds, bronchitis, and all affections of the throat, lungs and chest.

He knew what they always say, so he thought he would retort to her. "I suppose you've never been kissed by a man before," he said. "Do I look as homey as this?" she demanded, haughtily.

Colic and Kidney Difficulty.—Mr. J. W. Wilder, J. R. Latta, wife, N. Y., writes: "I am subject to severe attacks of Colic and Kidney Difficulty, and find Parmelee's Pills afford me great relief, while all other remedies have failed. These Pills do not cause pain or griping and should be used when a cathartic is required. They are not laxative, and do not red in the blood or licorice to preserve their purity, and give them a pleasant, agreeable taste."

I love you, Miss Peach, ardently, passionately, madly. You—You see, Mr. D. cover; you are hardly acquainted with me. He—I know, but then—well, perhaps that's the reason, don't you know?

Mr. T. J. Hames, Columbus, Ohio, writes: "I have been afflicted for some time with Kidney and Liver Complaint, and find Parmelee's Pills the best medicine for these diseases. These Pills do not cause pain or griping and should be used when a cathartic is required. They are not laxative, and do not red in the blood or licorice to preserve their purity, and give them a pleasant, agreeable taste."

A change of mind—"Well, I am relieved that he proposed to me." "Believed?" "He told me he was going to kill himself."

Dyspepsia and Indigestion.—C. W. Snow & Co., Syracuse, N. Y., write: "Please send us ten boxes of Pills. We are selling more of Parmelee's Pills than any other Pills we keep. They have a great reputation for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint." Mr. Chas. A. Smith, Lindsay, writes: "Parmelee's Pills are an excellent medicine. My sister has been troubled with severe headache, but these Pills have cured her."

"Is your wife literary?" "Yes; every time I step out of the house at night, she says, "Gao Vadis?"

Tot-ly Deaf.—Mr. S. E. Crandell, Port Perry writes: "I contracted a severe cold last winter, which resulted in my becoming totally deaf in one ear and partially so in the other. After trying various remedies and consulting several doctors, without obtaining any relief, I was advised to try Dr. Thomas' Eucalyptus Oil. I rubbed the oil and poured a little of it into my ear, and before one-half the bottle was used my hearing was completely restored. I have heard of other cases of deafness being cured by the use of this medicine."

May flowers and potted plants in abundance aided in producing a charming effect.

An interesting programme including several e- y lectures from the seminary Glee club was rendered Miss True assisted by Misses McLauchlin and Dobson, received their guests. Ice cream was served during the evening.

On Wednesday, 11th of May, Rev. Dr. Lorimer pastor of Tremont Temple, is expected to deliver his famous address on "Change and Chance" or Tides in the affairs of Men," in Assembly hall. He comes under the auspices of the Atheneum society and is the last speaker in this year's star course.

A new and pleasing feature of the anniversary this year will be the Art Loan exhibition held in Alumnae Hall, Acadia Seminary, beginning May 27th lasting until June 2nd. This rare opportunity for examining many master pieces of art is to be afforded through the pains taking efforts of a committee from the town and institutions. It will be the finest collection ever shown in Nova Scotia including works from such artists as Robert Reid of New York, who painted the famous panels known as the Five Senses, at the Congressional Library Washington, and was one of the eminent artist, doing the frescoing at the World's Fair; also Rembrandt, Leonardo da Vinci, Turner and other celebrities.
