RITCHIE AND WELSH SIGN.

New York, June 10.—Willie Ritchie of California, the world's champion lightweight pugilist, signed articles tonight for a 20-round bout with Freddie Welsh, the English champion, for the lightweight championship, in London on July 4.

Guarantee and forfeit money was deposited by the representatives of both boxers. Eugene Corri, of London, has been selected as referee.

Welsh pulled for England last Saturday and Ritchie will leave tomorrow.

THE ENGLISH POLO PLAYERS AS THEY APPEARED IN PRACTICE FOR THE FIRST TIME AT MEADOW BROOK

Above are shown four of the English polo team as they appeared lined up for their first practice game in America, in preparation for their match with the Yankee team. A large crowd gathered at Meadow Brook, L. I., to witness the Englishmen in action and there were many shouts of enthusiasm from their admirers.

MOTOR BOAT GRETA L. A WINNER

The motor boat race for six horse power boats of the Salmi John Power Boat Club for the Wanaamaker Cup was held last evening, and five speedy boats competed. The boats in the race were: Greta L., owned by Alex. Long; Arcilla, owned by L. A. Colwell; Dolly B., owned by J. H. Brown; the Mephisto, owned by Geo. Reynolds; and the Louise, owned by W. Harrington. The race was won by the Greta L.

There was a large number of spectators along the wharves at Indian-town to witness the event, and the race was an interesting one throughout. The course was from a buoy off the Public wharf, Indiantown to a buoy off Green Head, and the boats had to speed over this course three times.

The Greta L. proved to be too fast for her competitors and won quite easily.

It was 7:25 o'clock when Rear Commodore Tapley gave the signal for the boats to start, and the five got away together, but they had not reached the Pleasant Point above when they were in a procession. The Greta L. in the lead, the Arcilla next, Dolly B., Mild, Mephisto fourth, and the Louise last. While the Greta L. drew away from the others there was a nice battle between the Arcilla and the Dolly B. These boats were very evenly matched, as they kept within a few seconds of each other during the entire race, and at the finish the Arcilla only had four seconds to the good over the Dolly B.

The following is the time made by the boats:

First Time Over Course.

SPORTOGRAPHY "GRAVY"

It Otto Kabe doesn't get a flock of automobiles, and a gross of polo watches, and a magnificent floral wreath inscribed "Our Hero," before the setting of tomorrow's sun, then the numerous and enthusiastic Baltimore Federal League fans will prove themselves a bunch of ingrates. Because Otto will celebrate his thirtieth birthday tomorrow, and all fans who follow the Federal League don't know that Otto, as a pilot of the Baltimore, has been doing a pretty nifty job of piloting. It begins to look very much as if Mister Kabe would present the Maryland metropolis with the first big league flag it has possessed since that golden era of Baltimore ball when Ned Hanlon's classy Orioles annexed three National League championships in a row. The historic event alluded to was pulled off in 1894, 1895 and 1896, and in getting together a winning club for the Baltimore "Feds."

The Greta L. proved to be too fast for her competitors and won quite easily.

It was 7:25 o'clock when Rear Commodore Tapley gave the signal for the boats to start, and the five got away together, but they had not reached the Pleasant Point above when they were in a procession. The Greta L. in the lead, the Arcilla next, Dolly B., Mild, Mephisto fourth, and the Louise last. While the Greta L. drew away from the others there was a nice battle between the Arcilla and the Dolly B. These boats were very evenly matched, as they kept within a few seconds of each other during the entire race, and at the finish the Arcilla only had four seconds to the good over the Dolly B.

The following is the time made by the boats:

OTTO KABE, BALTIMORE "FED" PILOT, WILL BE 30 TOMORROW.

1894. He started playing "pro" ball in the Western League, with Colorado Springs and Pueblo, back in 1905. At the close of the season he was drafted by the Pirates, but was turned over to Toledo Mudhens of the American Association. After a season in Toledo he was recalled by Pittsburgh, but was immediately swapped to Philadelphia for Camnitz. Knabe developed into one of the star second basemen of the National League, and while he has never broken into the 300 crowd of swatters, he has a habit of biffing out two-baggers, which is highly useful.

Knabe's salary as Baltimore manager is said to be in the neighborhood of $10,000 a year, under a contract covering a period of three years. "He is a manly little fellow, a good ball player and a credit to the profession," President Tener was quoted as saying when he heard that Knabe had deserted the National League. While it is yet too early to indulge in predictions, Knabe looks just now like the greatest general of the new circuit, and the Villa of the "outlaws" of baseball. And Baltimore fans shouldn't forget that he will be thirty years old tomorrow.

JEANNETTE-WILLS DRAW.

New Orleans, June 10.—Joe Jeannette and Harry Wills fought ten rounds to a draw here last night before 2,500 persons at the National Baseball Park. Jeannette did greater part of the leading, worrying Wills with stiff rights to the jaw.

Wills showed improvement over his last match, fighting cautiously. He landed a couple of good lefts to Jeannette's body and face. The men clinched often and were jeered by the crowd for so doing. Neither boxer appeared to be extending himself.
