HERZOG MUST APOLOGIZE
Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—C. S. Herzog, manager of the Cincinnati Nationals, was indefinitely suspended today by Pres. Tener because of an "insulting telegram" received at the executive office of the league in New York from the Cincinnati manager.
Herzog was suspended for three days as the result of an altercation with an umpire in Boston when it was said he used unbecoming language. This suspension, it is alleged, was made to send the telegram to the umpire.
Gov. Tener, who was in this city to attend to the suspension, said he would suspend Herzog until he has made suitable apology.

OLDFIELD SUED FOR $50,000
Los Angeles, Oct. 1.—Barney Oldfield, automobile speed king, added a new record to his string today when a suit for $50,000 was filed against him by Chris Ringhausen.
Ringhausen charged that Oldfield while travelling thirty miles an hour in a 1914 Buick car, did not blow his horn, failed to give right of way to vehicles on the right at intersections, attacked him after the accident, used loud and abusive language and called him names.
He asks $25,000 for personal injuries, $25,000 for being attacked and $10,000 for injured feelings.

MANY HORSES HEAT WINNERS;
ONLY HALF PROGRAMME FINISHED

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 1.—So many horses were heat winners at today's Grand Circuit races that but half the programme was completed. Coolest of the day was the 2.11 pace without dropping a heat. Lillian W., winner of second money, was the original favorite. Signal Boy, favorite, won the 2.15 trot, a six heat struggle during which the winner made several costly breaks. Five did not settle the 2.05 pace, on which there was heavy betting with H. H. Heat favorite at $150 to $310.

BOSTON IN THE SERIES
MAKES ATTENDANCE LARGE

Boston has won the National League pennant, and it is likely that the attendance figures for a world's championship will surpass those of last year. The wonderful spurt of St. Louis' team, and the fact that the old programme of New York vs. Philadelphia will be done away with, is bound to help the gate receipts.

The greatest crowd that ever saw a world series game was in New York on October 14, 1911, when 35,281 fans paid $77,359 to see the first game between the Giants and Athletics. The smallest crowd that ever witnessed a world series combat turned out in Chicago for the fifth and deciding game between White Sox and Cubs on October 14, 1908. Only 6,210 fans paid admission. The receipts were $5,577.50.

Here is a table showing the total attendance and the total receipts for world series since the series became a feature of modern baseball:

Year	Clubs	Attendance	Receipts	Gs
1903—Pitts-Bos.		100,429	$51,000.00	8
1904—No series.
1905—N. Y.-Phil.		91,723	68,435.00	5
1906—W. Sox-Cubs		98,845	106,550.00	6
1907—Chi.-Det.		78,068	107,728.50	5
1908—Chi.-Det.		62,232	94,975.50	5

GIANTS
BENCH CLEARED

New York, Oct. 1.—Umpire Klem established what is believed to be a record in baseball history today at the game between the Boston and the New York National League teams. In the seventh inning, while the Giants were at bat, Klem took exception to what he regarded as unusually loud talking on the New York bench. He ordered the players to lower their voices.
Deciding presently that he had not been obeyed, Klem directed that the bench be cleared of everybody, except Acting Manager Mike Donlin and the bat boy, Christy Mathewson headed the banished players, and they marched, single file, hands on one another's shoulders, across the field to the clubhouse, imitating in their progress that so-called lock-step required of convicts in some prisons.

OLYMPIC GAMES IN BERLIN

New York, Oct. 1.—That the Olympic games of 1916 will be held in Berlin despite the European war, is indicated in a letter that was received today by the American Olympic committee from Baron Pierre de Coubertin, president of the International Olympic committee. The letter, mailed from Havre, and which was addressed to the late James E. Sullivan, says: "The seat of the next Olympic remains what it was, and, contrary to what the American papers say, I will not personally make any proposal in favor of a change. We never thought the Olympic games would stop wars, and I feel perfectly sure when the present war is over in the Olympic movement will begin again as strong and fruitful as ever."

On account of the war it was suggested some time ago by English sportsmen that the games be held again in Sweden, but the late James E. Sullivan expressed the view that if a shift became necessary, the United States would be the logical place to hold them.

THWART SPECULATORS.

All seats thus far allotted to applicants for the World's Series game to be played in Boston have been placed on record in the office of the Boston National League Baseball Company. The name of the applicant, the row, section and number of numbers of seats are recorded. In this way it is absolutely certain that the seats purchased by anyone may be referred to at a moment's notice.

Detectives have been employed to work with the club in "turning up" any speculative movement. Pres. Gaffney states that any tickets discovered to have been purchased by speculators or for speculation will easily be discovered.
