A. B. Chapman Carried Through Flames by a Woman-- New Brunswick and Nova Scotia Nurses Show Their Bravery.

Boston, Jan. 1.—But for the coolness of physicians and nurses twenty-five patients of the New England Sanitarium at Stoneham, which was partially destroyed by fire tonight, would have lost their lives.

A. B. Chapman, of St. John (N. B.), a paralytic, was, while in a chair, brought through the flames by the wife of Dr. Orie.

Winfield Larrabee, a seven year old boy living helpless in bed with rheumatism, was almost suffocated, when he was discovered by one of the nurses, Ida Smith, and carried to the street.

The fire started at 10 o'clock, when the patients—many of whom were women—were in the hall. It began in the room of Emma Albee, one of the patients,

MAXWELL AND LOWELL ARE THE NEW M. P. P.'S

Conservative Captures City From A. O. Skinner by Narrow Margin of 62--County Strong for Liberals and Agar is Beaten by More Than 400 Votes.

By the narrow majority of 62 on a total vote reduced in comparison with recent elections, Maxwell and Lowell (Conservative) have been chosen for a place in the New Brunswick legislature, as one of St. John's representatives.

Lowell (Liberal) will be the county's representative and the people send him there by the comfortable majority of four hundred.

Maxwell defeated A. O. Skinner, the Liberal nominee in a closely contested election, which was swung the Conservative way by the vote of Carleton. The returns from the North End Mr. Skinner defeated the Conservative candidate by a good majority. He came with a lead out of Kings, Dukes, Sydney and the North End, defeated Skinner, held his own in Wellington, which is Skinner's home ward, but was defeated in Queens. Both Carleton divisions sent Maxwell along handsomely.

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL

Corrected returns from the county give Lowell a majority of 414.

Rev. Dr. Gates reports that up to date replies from 220 Baptist communities in the maritime provinces have been received favoring union with the Free Baptists of New Brunswick.

Meas. Croesley and Hunter, the evangelists, passed through the city Saturday on their way to Truro.

Among the bequests made by the late Mrs. Eleanor Hamilton, who died in St. John, was one to the superintendency of the Methodist church and a second to the Women's Missionary Society. The executor of her will was her son, Rev. W. Hamilton, of this city. Both the bequests have been paid.

The death of Captain Esiee Hawbold, of the Salvation Army, and formerly of St. John, took place on Friday last at his home, 27, Deceased, after a long illness. He was 24 years old and resided in this city when he joined the army. He was connected with the Bradley street bar, which was destroyed by fire last night. He was a teacher, and his family consisted of his wife and three children.

Colonel Sharp, of the Salvation Army, has returned from Windsor (N. S.), where he was engaged in a campaign of the army barracks. The following day he drove to Waterville and officiated at the funeral of Captain Esiee Hawbold. Colonel Sharp preached in Windsor Sunday evening.

At Chubb's Corner Saturday Auctioneer Lantaul sold two lots on Strait Street, belonging to the estate of the late Hon. Wm. H. Sullivan, for $125, and the lot to J. King Kelley for $250. Mr. Lantaul also sold the leasehold property on the corner of Long wharf and Main with liquor license; ground rent $80, to James A. Kelly for $250.

In the presence of relatives and a few friends, Sarah Ethel Long, daughter of Mrs. Andrew Long, was married Saturday night to George Marshall Lewis. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Simpson, of St. George's church, Carleton, and took place at the home of the bride's mother, Lancaster. Mr. Lewis is a student at the University of New Brunswick, and is a member of the St. John's University. The bride is a daughter of a prominent family in the city.

The new hotel was erected by Thomas J. Foley, who was for years manager of the Hotel Brunswick, Moncton, and is regarded as one of the most handsome hotels in the province. John MacLellan, for some time Mr. Foley's right hand man, is assistant manager, and Theodore Jardine, whose experience covers several years in leading American hotels and cafes, is chief chef and T. W. Hay lead waiter.

The new hotel will fill a long felt want here, besides bringing tourists, who will take advantage of the fine fishing and shooting privileges to be found in these parts.

NEWCASTLE'S NEW HOTEL

Newcastle, Jan. 2.—Very auspicious circumstances marked the opening of Newcastle's new hotel, the Hotel Miramichi, this afternoon. A steady stream of visitors descended into the building. The hotel was inspected and the general verdict was that the new building is a credit to northern New Brunswick.

Perhaps the most elaborate dinner ever served on the North Shore was partaken of by nearly 30 in the large dining room of the new house. A music room opens into the dining room and here an orchestra played.

Schr. Ethel B. Sumner Lost Boat.

Vineyard Haven, Mass., Jan. 2.—The schooner Ethel B. Sumner, of St. John (N. B.), for New Rochelle, at this point reports that on Dec. 28, when off Cape Cod, was blown considerable distance off shore by a violent westerly gale, during which she lost a small portion of her deck load of shingles.

LEGAL BATTLE FOR LIFE OF CHAS. L. TUCKER

Trial on Charge of Murdering Mabel Page Will Begin Today.

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 1.—Alfred, with the advent of the new year begins the great legal battle of the life of Charles L. Tucker, the Cambridge youth who has been indicted for the murder of Mabel Page at her home in Middlebury, county superior criminal court and as soon as a jury has been empanelled, the evidence in one of the most famous murder mysteries in the history of Massachusetts crime will be presented.

A Comparison.

The total vote polled in the city was 6,122. In the last provincial general election, that of 1902, the sum of the high men on both sides, McKewen and Wilson, makes 7,800 as the vote polled, while in the general federal election of last year there were 8,321 votes brought out. The Conservative majority of yesterday is 62; of last month's federal fight, 1,211; while the Liberal majority in the 1903 general election was 238.

Any Rheumatic sufferer may have a full dollar's worth of my remedy free

I searched the whole earth for a specific for Rheumatism—something that I at once could feel safe in prescribing—something that we could count on not only occasionally, but ALWAYS. For the cause of Rheumatism is everywhere and genuine relief is rare.

After twenty years of search and experiment I learned of the chemical I now employ. I knew then that my search and my efforts were well rewarded. For this chemical cures Rheumatism in a remarkably short time.

It is alleged that Capello also fired a shot at Peter Dimegio, but this could not be verified.

The police searched the Italian colony, but were unable to find any trace of the murderer, the inability of a majority of the inhabitants to speak English retarding their efforts.

The state police have been called into the case and with Officers Beebe and Jeffers are still working, though very much in the dark.

Coroner Franklin H. Brown has examined a large number of witnesses, but has been unable to get much information. Word has been taken to the police in nearly by and far-away cities, both in this country and Canada, and the police department hopes to capture the man whom it is believed will try to leave the country by a Canadian port.

Weddings.

A pretty home wedding took place Saturday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hamilton, when their daughter, Frances Grace, and George A. Harper, of Oxford (N. S.), were married by Rev. John de Sores. The wedding was a quiet one, only the relatives and the few intimate friends being present. The rooms were prettily decorated in green and white.

The bride's name, Marjorie Manning, made a charming little flower girl. Many beautiful presents were received by the bride, who is a general favorite. After a dainty luncheon the happy couple left on the Montreal express. They will reside at Oxford.

Wednesday afternoon Miss Mabel Lotte Hayward, daughter of James A. Hayward, of Lincoln, New Brunswick, county, was united in marriage to Ernest Andrew Tracey, of Tracey Station. The marriage was performed in the F. R. church by Rev. J. B. Duquet, of Fredericton Junction.
