

WEDDINGS

Continued from page 7

ceived a very large number of handsome presents. The brides, travelling dress was of grey and she wore a French peacock black plush hat with white and peacock blue moret ribbon.

Cloves-Hazelwood

Thursday, Oct. 2. In the First Presbyterian church, West End, at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning, Miss Effie Lucretia, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Hazelwood was united in marriage to J. Allen Clowes, maritime representative of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company of Canada. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. J. A. Morrison in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. The wedding march was played by Miss Gladys Wilson and the full choir was also present. The bride was dressed in a tailored suit of fawn perry cloth with hat to correspond and carried a bouquet of roses and maiden-hair fern. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Clowes left by steamer for Boston and New York and on their return to the city will reside in West St. John.

Merrill-Stymest

Thursday, Oct. 2. An interesting event took place in Fairville at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Stymest, when their daughter, Miss Jessie, became the bride of Walter Merrill, who is employed with the C. P. R. in Fairville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. E. Zeale at 6 o'clock. The bride, who was unattended, wore white voile over satin. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride. Many handsome presents were received, testifying to the popularity of the young people. Mr. and Mrs. Merrill will reside in Prince Street, West End.

Grannan-Doherty

Thursday, Oct. 2. In St. Peter's church at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, Mrs. Catherine Doherty of 24 Clarendon Street, was united in marriage to Patrick Grannan of the I. C. R. Nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Borgogna, C. S. R. The bride was dressed in a tailor made travelling costume of purple broad cloth with hat to match and was attended by Mrs. P. M. O'Neill. The bridegroom was supported by his brother, Philip Grannan, Mr. L. A. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Grannan left by I. C. R. for Montreal and St. Anne de Beaupre and on their return to the city will reside at 249 Rockland road. The bride was attended by Miss Myrtle Pugsley of Amherst, Edward McGuire, of this city, acted as groomsmen.

Marquis-Sandall

Thursday, Oct. 2. The Knox Street Methodist church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 8 o'clock yesterday morning when Thomas George Marquis, manager of the Haymarket Square, was united in marriage to Laura Sandall, daughter of Mrs. Mary A. Sandall, Wright street. The church was prettily decorated with green palms and ferns and cut flowers. The bridesmaids wore pale blue and the bridesmaid wore pale blue and carried a bouquet of pink geraniums. Her hat was black velvet with white blue and orange. She wore a white plush hat with black plumes. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Pierce.

Carnall-Kennedy

The marriage of Miss Jean Kennedy, daughter of David Kennedy, of Strongfield (Sask.), to F. L. Carnall, the western Canadian traveling auditor for the International Harvester Company, Chicago, took place at 8:30 Tuesday morning, Sept. 9, at St. Andrew's Presbyterian manse, Rev. Mr. Guy officiating. The bride wore a cream tulle and blue suit with a becoming hat to match. The happy couple left on the Limited at 9:30 for Banff and other points. After the honeymoon Mr. Carnall will take up his work at the Edmonton office—Regina Leads.

Doherty-Barbour

Thursday, Oct. 2. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herbert Barbour, 127 Leinster street, was the scene of an interesting event at 6 o'clock last evening when their daughter, Miss Hazel Barbour, was united in marriage to Harry Abbott Doherty, of Raymond & Doherty, who were beautifully decorated for the occasion with autumn leaves, palms and cut flowers.

Miles-Smith

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 1.—The marriage of Miss Mary Margaret Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Duppa Smith, to Edmund Lanollet Miles, of Calgary, took place in St. Luke's Episcopal church, Woodstock, at 8:30 Tuesday morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. S. Hazel in the presence of a large number of people. The bride wore her traveling suit of navy blue serge, with black picture hat, and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid, Miss Maud Smith, wore a gown of brown velvet trimmed with lace and fur, with brown velvet hat with tango plume, and carried a bouquet of crimson roses. The groom was supported by John Haddon, of Winnipeg. A reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents after the ceremony. Among those present from outside were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miles and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Miles, of North Bay (Ont.); Mr. and Mrs. David Ledingham, of St. John, and Dr. and Mrs. Mann, of Houlton.

Powe-Woodhill

Amherst, N. S., Sept. 30.—The marriage of Miss Fanny Woodhill, of Sackville, to Frank Powe, of the News-Sentinel, Elmdale, was in the person of W. J. Bowen, of this town, took place in St. Charles church today. Rev. Father Borneau officiating. The bride was handsomely gowned in tulle brocaded chrysanthemum, with pink hat of the same shade, and carried a beautiful silver service from the staff of the Royal Hotel.

Stephenson-Eagles

Thursday, Oct. 2. At the residence of the bride's father, 51 Elm street, an interesting event took place at 4:30 yesterday afternoon, when Miss Mary Margaret, daughter of Edward H. Eagles, was united in marriage to John A. Stephenson of Kennedy street, machinist. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry Pierce. The bride, who was unattended, wore a navy blue traveling suit with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson will reside in Elm street.

Barton-Evans

Thursday, Oct. 2. At the home of W. N. Neil in the North End last evening at 8 o'clock, Esau S. Barton, of Cumberland Bay, Quebec, was married to Miss Nellie E. Evans. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Pierce. The home was prettily decorated for the event.

Allen-Barter

Thursday, Oct. 2. The wedding of William Lewis Allen, of the I. C. R., Moncton, to Miss Jenny Laura Barter, daughter of Samuel Barter, of Charles street, took place last night at the residence of the bride's father, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. P. Dunham. A gathering of friends was present, the room being tastefully decorated for the occasion. The pair will live in Moncton.

Keenan-O'Quigley

Miss Elizabeth O'Quigley was married at Newcastle at 6:30 Tuesday morning, to James Keenan. Both are of Fairville. The wedding was attended by several friends. The pair will take their honeymoon trip at Boston to New York, and will reside at Newcastle on their return. Mr. Keenan is employed by the Dominion Bridge Company at their prospective home.

Logue-Headford

A quiet wedding took place last evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Baptist parsonage, Victoria street, when Charles Richard Tatley and Alice May Parker, both of this city, were united in marriage by Rev. B. H. Nobles. The young pair were unattended. They will make their home in the North End.

Tatley-Parker

A quiet wedding took place last evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Baptist parsonage, Victoria street, when Charles Richard Tatley and Alice May Parker, both of this city, were united in marriage by Rev. B. H. Nobles. The young pair were unattended. They will make their home in the North End.

Kelly-Macgregor

Thursday, Oct. 2. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Macgregor at Rexton (N. B.), an interesting wedding took place at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning, when their daughter, Miss Euphemia Jane, was united in marriage to John F. Kelly, of St. John. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. A. Fraser Hardy. The bride was given away by her father and was attended by Miss Myrtle Pugsley of Amherst, Edward McGuire, of this city, acted as groomsmen.

Glidden-Lindsay

Woodstock, Oct. 1.—(Special.)—The home of Herbert Lindsay was the scene of a pretty wedding. The bride, Miss Pearl Lindsay, was united in marriage to Arthur Glidden. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. W. Teed. Robert Hamilton was best man and Miss Addie O'Quigley was bridesmaid. A reception attended by a large number of guests, was held at the home of the bride. Many beautiful and useful presents were received. The young couple will make their home in Woodstock.

Charles A. Hawkins

Charles A. Hawkins, of Halifax, is dead, aged 84 years. Mrs. James W. Brebant, of Moncton, New Hampshire, is a daughter. His other daughter, Mrs. E. B. resident with her father. His sons are Dr. A. G. Hawkins of Halifax, and G. M. C. Hawkins of the Bank of Montreal, Fredericton, N. B. Mr. Hawkins was born at Murray Harbor, P. E. I., where he has an only brother, John Hawkins.

W. A. Burke

William Albert Burke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Burke, of a Wall street, died at his residence here today of a heart ailment. Besides his son, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. J. J. Terrell, and a son, John W. Burke, of this city.

Miss Margaret Cripps

The death of Margaret, wife of Geo. Cripps, occurred at the residence of her late husband, in the city, yesterday afternoon in the twenty-ninth year of her age, after a short illness. Her husband, who was a native of Scotland, was a well-known resident of this city.

John C. Ross

On Friday, the 28th instant, the death took place at Buctouche, of John C. Ross, one of the best and most highly respected inhabitants of this town. He was a native of Morayshire, Scotland, but had come to this country when a young man. Soon after his arrival in New Brunswick, he became a gold miner, and was successful in his business. He was a well-known and popular citizen, and was respected by all who knew him.

Mr. Thompson

Apolaqu, Oct. 1.—The death of Levi Thompson occurred at his home here last evening at 8 o'clock, aged 84 years. Mr. Thompson had been in a failing health for some months and had only been confined to his room a few weeks. He was devoted to his wife and one son, Roy, of his own age, who was born at Apolaqu, and who has lately made his home with him; also three brothers—George A. St. John, Albert, Minnesota; and Robert, of Boston; and three half-brothers—Mark of Mercer Settlement, Sackville, of Boston, and Harry, in the Canadian west.

W. E. Hefferman

Truro, N. S., Oct. 1.—W. E. Hefferman, son of the best known travelers in the maritime provinces, died this morning after an illness of some two months. He was taken seriously ill in Chester (N. S.) and was removed to his home in Truro. Mr. Hefferman represented the late firm of J. F. Blanchard & Co. for many years, afterwards traveling for the Eastern Mail, Stanfield Limited and Europa Hat & Cap Company. He was one of the most successful salesmen in the province. He leaves his wife, three only Miss Ethel Burrell, daughter of the late William Burrell of this town, and two children, a daughter, Rena, and a son, Ned.

William G. Clarke

William G. Clarke, only son of Doctor Clarke, of Kenville, N. S., died suddenly in Sydney, Australia, in the twenty-fourth year of his age. He is survived by his young wife, who was Miss Gertrude Boyd, of Bathurst, N. B., also his father and mother. He was well known in Nova Scotia, where his many friends will be shocked to hear of his sudden death. Mrs. Clarke is living in Canada.

Mrs. Keith Ryan

Mrs. John J. Ryan of Lakeside has received a telegram from her son, Keith, of Gardiner, Me., announcing the death of his wife, which took place Tuesday morning after a short illness. She leaves, besides her husband, one daughter a few weeks old.

Rev. Brother Liguori

Rev. Brother Liguori, who died in Lowell, Mass. last week, was a son of the late Thomas Murphy of South Branch, and was born in 1817. His mother, one brother and five sisters survive. One brother is Sister Veronica, of Prince Albert.

George Tippett

A telegram received by George Tippett of Fairville yesterday morning bore the sad news of the death of his brother John, which occurred at 9:30 o'clock Monday night in Boston. Mr. Tippett had been ill only a week with a cold, and as there was no thought of death the news came as a great shock to his relatives here. He had lived in Boston for twenty-three years, and had taken charge of the grocery firm of S. S. Pierce in Copley square. Previous to leaving here he was employed in the Cushing mill.

Wm. G. Newman

The death of a well known resident of North End occurred Monday at the home of his son, John F. Newman, aged about two months. He had been in the employ of the Portland Rolling Mills for nearly thirty years and was highly esteemed by his fellow workmen and other residents of the city. Besides his son, he is survived by five daughters and one daughter-in-law. The daughters are Mrs. D. R. Brown, of Newcastle; Mrs. Walter Hughes and Mrs. James L. Sugrue, of this city; Miss A. G. Newman of Halifax, and Miss Flosie Newman attending St. Mary's Academy, Newcastle. The sister is Mrs. Addie Monahan of Roxbury, Mass.

New York, the bride traveling in a very smart tailor made suit of blue whipcord serge.

McCarthy-McGuire

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 1.—At 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, Sept. 24, St. Joseph's Catholic church, Newburg, was the scene of a pretty wedding when Gertrude Cecilia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McGuire, became the bride of John Harold McCarthy, of East End. Rev. Father Bradley performed the ceremony.

The youthful bride who was a graduate of the Provincial Normal School, Fredericton, in 1909, looked charming at the wedding gown of white meshing silk with white and shadow lace trimmings, and a special feature of the gown was that it was all handmade by the bride's sister, Miss Carolyn A. McGuire, of Bangor. The bride wore a bridal veil with wreath of sweet peas and carried an ivory prayer book, the gift of her sister, Miss Mattie J. McGuire.

The bridesmaid

Miss Clara Mae McCarthy, sister of the groom, looked lovely in a white lace dress over blue plumes to match. The bridesmaid, Miss Carolyn A. McGuire, cousin of the bride, performed the duties of best man. The bride party entered the church to the strains of Wedding Bells played by Miss Carolyn E. McGuire, cousin of the bride.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with potted plants and flowers by the choir friends of the bride. The past two years the church has been the scene of many beautiful weddings. The bride party entered the church to the strains of Wedding Bells played by Miss Carolyn E. McGuire, cousin of the bride.

A dainty tea was served at 6:30 o'clock until 10 to 125 invited guests, after which dancing was indulged in, until 1:30 o'clock. The happy couple left for their future home at East Newbridge, followed by the best wishes of their many friends, who wish them a most happy and successful life.

The bride received from her pastor

Rev. Father Bradley, a handsomely bound prayer book, the other presents being very elegant, among which were many silver and money presents, furniture, linen and pieces of art; one silver piece coming from the bride's cousin, Louis M. McGuire, of Winnipeg; silver from the Rev. Father Bradley, and a silver piece from the Rev. Father Bradley.

The bride was given away by her father and was attended by Miss Myrtle Pugsley of Amherst, Edward McGuire, of this city, acted as groomsmen.

Her hat was black velvet

with white blue and orange. She wore a white plush hat with black plumes. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Pierce.

Her hat was black velvet

with white blue and orange. She wore a white plush hat with black plumes. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Pierce.

After a short honeymoon trip

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly will reside in this city.

Davidson-Gillies

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 1.—A pretty wedding was celebrated this afternoon at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Baker, when Miss Annie Gillies, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gillies, was united in marriage to W. S. Davidson, of Fort Fairfield (Me.). Rev. Frank Baird performed the ceremony in the presence of twenty-five of the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The church was prettily decorated with ferns and cut flowers.

The bride, who was unattended was gowned in ivory chrysanthemum with pointed train, trimmed with lace and pearl trimmings. Her tulle veil was arranged in Juliet cap effect with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. A large number of pretty gifts were received, the groom's present being a pearl and sapphire pendant.

After luncheon

Mr. and Mrs. Davidson left for a trip to Boston and New York, and on their return they will reside in Fort Fairfield, (Me.).

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 1.—The marriage of Miss Mary Margaret Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Duppa Smith, to Edmund Lanollet Miles, of Calgary, took place in St. Luke's Episcopal church, Woodstock, at 8:30 Tuesday morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. S. Hazel in the presence of a large number of people. The bride wore her traveling suit of navy blue serge, with black picture hat, and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid, Miss Maud Smith, wore a gown of brown velvet trimmed with lace and fur, with brown velvet hat with tango plume, and carried a bouquet of crimson roses. The groom was supported by John Haddon, of Winnipeg. A reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents after the ceremony. Among those present from outside were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miles and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Miles, of North Bay (Ont.); Mr. and Mrs. David Ledingham, of St. John, and Dr. and Mrs. Mann, of Houlton.

Amherst, N. S., Sept. 30.—The marriage of Miss Fanny Woodhill, of Sackville, to Frank Powe, of the News-Sentinel, Elmdale, was in the person of W. J. Bowen, of this town, took place in St. Charles church today. Rev. Father Borneau officiating. The bride was handsomely gowned in tulle brocaded chrysanthemum, with pink hat of the same shade, and carried a beautiful silver service from the staff of the Royal Hotel.

Thursday, Oct. 2.

At the residence of the bride's father, 51 Elm street, an interesting event took place at 4:30 yesterday afternoon, when Miss Mary Margaret, daughter of Edward H. Eagles, was united in marriage to John A. Stephenson of Kennedy street, machinist. The ceremony was performed

Dr. John L. Bethune

Sydney, N. S., Sept. 30.—One of the best known men in Cape Breton Island, passed away Saturday, in the person of Dr. John L. Bethune, who died suddenly at his home in Baddeck. He had been enjoying fairly good health and on Saturday was about the house as usual in the afternoon in his sitting chair when he was seen to collapse and when members of his family reached his side he had expired.

He was about 72 years of age and leaves a family of seven daughters and one son. He took an active interest in politics and represented Victoria county in the local assembly. He had been a militia man and commanded the 94th Battalion for several years.

Mrs. Thomas Call

Rexton, N. B., Sept. 29.—One of Rexton's highly respected women passed away Saturday afternoon in the person of Mrs. Thomas Call at the age of 46 years. Mrs. Call had suffered occasionally for some years, with gall stones about three weeks ago and a severe attack of the local nature was operated upon last Saturday but gradually grew weaker. She was formerly Miss Emily Sullivan, of Pine Ridge. She leaves in mourning, her husband, one daughter, Miss Mary Call, and three sons, George, who recently returned home from Maine; Fred, at Blain Falls (Sask.), and James, at home. Mrs. Call will be greatly missed by the whole community. The funeral will be held at the commonest interment place in the Presbyterian cemetery here.

A telegram received by George Tippett of Fairville yesterday morning bore the sad news of the death of his brother John, which occurred at 9:30 o'clock Monday night in Boston. Mr. Tippett had been ill only a week with a cold, and as there was no thought of death the news came as a great shock to his relatives here. He had lived in Boston for twenty-three years, and had taken charge of the grocery firm of S. S. Pierce in Copley square. Previous to leaving here he was employed in the Cushing mill.

Wednesday, Oct. 1.

The death of a well known resident of North End occurred Monday at the home of his son, John F. Newman, aged about two months. He had been in the employ of the Portland Rolling Mills for nearly thirty years and was highly esteemed by his fellow workmen and other residents of the city. Besides his son, he is survived by five daughters and one daughter-in-law. The daughters are Mrs. D. R. Brown, of Newcastle; Mrs. Walter Hughes and Mrs. James L. Sugrue, of this city; Miss A. G. Newman of Halifax, and Miss Flosie Newman attending St. Mary's Academy, Newcastle. The sister is Mrs. Addie Monahan of Roxbury, Mass.

Charles A. Hawkins

Charles A. Hawkins, of Halifax, is dead, aged 84 years. Mrs. James W. Brebant, of Moncton, New Hampshire, is a daughter. His other daughter, Mrs. E. B. resident with her father. His sons are Dr. A. G. Hawkins of Halifax, and G. M. C. Hawkins of the Bank of Montreal, Fredericton, N. B. Mr. Hawkins was born at Murray Harbor, P. E. I., where he has an only brother, John Hawkins.

W. A. Burke

William Albert Burke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Burke, of a Wall street, died at his residence here today of a heart ailment. Besides his son, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. J. J. Terrell, and a son, John W. Burke, of this city.

Miss Margaret Cripps

The death of Margaret, wife of Geo. Cripps, occurred at the residence of her late husband, in the city, yesterday afternoon in the twenty-ninth year of her age, after a short illness. Her husband, who was a native of Scotland, was a well-known resident of this city.

John C. Ross

On Friday, the 28th instant, the death took place at Buctouche, of John C. Ross, one of the best and most highly respected inhabitants of this town. He was a native of Morayshire, Scotland, but had come to this country when a young man. Soon after his arrival in New Brunswick, he became a gold miner, and was successful in his business. He was a well-known and popular citizen, and was respected by all who knew him.

Mr. Thompson

Apolaqu, Oct. 1.—The death of Levi Thompson occurred at his home here last evening at 8 o'clock, aged 84 years. Mr. Thompson had been in a failing health for some months and had only been confined to his room a few weeks. He was devoted to his wife and one son, Roy, of his own age, who was born at Apolaqu, and who has lately made his home with him; also three brothers—George A. St. John, Albert, Minnesota; and Robert, of Boston; and three half-brothers—Mark of Mercer Settlement, Sackville, of Boston, and Harry, in the Canadian west.

W. E. Hefferman

Truro, N. S., Oct. 1.—W. E. Hefferman, son of the best known travelers in the maritime provinces, died this morning after an illness of some two months. He was taken seriously ill in Chester (N. S.) and was removed to his home in Truro. Mr. Hefferman represented the late firm of J. F. Blanchard & Co. for many years, afterwards traveling for the Eastern Mail, Stanfield Limited and Europa Hat & Cap Company. He was one of the most successful salesmen in the province. He leaves his wife, three only Miss Ethel Burrell, daughter of the late William Burrell of this town, and two children, a daughter, Rena, and a son, Ned.

William G. Clarke

William G. Clarke, only son of Doctor Clarke, of Kenville, N. S., died suddenly in Sydney, Australia, in the twenty-fourth year of his age. He is survived by his young wife, who was Miss Gertrude Boyd, of Bathurst, N. B., also his father and mother. He was well known in Nova Scotia, where his many friends will be shocked to hear of his sudden death. Mrs. Clarke is living in Canada.

Mrs. Keith Ryan

Mrs. John J. Ryan of Lakeside has received a telegram from her son, Keith, of Gardiner, Me., announcing the death of his wife, which took place Tuesday morning after a short illness. She leaves, besides her husband, one daughter a few weeks old.

Rev. Brother Liguori

Rev. Brother Liguori, who died in Lowell, Mass. last week, was a son of the late Thomas Murphy of South Branch, and was born in 1817. His mother, one brother and five sisters survive. One brother is Sister Veronica, of Prince Albert.

George Tippett

A telegram received by George Tippett of Fairville yesterday morning bore the sad news of the death of his brother John, which occurred at 9:30 o'clock Monday night in Boston. Mr. Tippett had been ill only a week with a cold, and as there was no thought of death the news came as a great shock to his relatives here. He had lived in Boston for twenty-three years, and had taken charge of the grocery firm of S. S. Pierce in Copley square. Previous to leaving here he was employed in the Cushing mill.

Wm. G. Newman

The death of a well known resident of North End occurred Monday at the home of his son, John F. Newman, aged about two months. He had been in the employ of the Portland Rolling Mills for nearly thirty years and was highly esteemed by his fellow workmen and other residents of the city. Besides his son, he is survived by five daughters and one daughter-in-law. The daughters are Mrs. D. R. Brown, of Newcastle; Mrs. Walter Hughes and Mrs. James L. Sugrue, of this city; Miss A. G. Newman of Halifax, and Miss Flosie Newman attending St. Mary's Academy, Newcastle. The sister is Mrs. Addie Monahan of Roxbury, Mass.

Charles A. Hawkins

Charles A. Hawkins, of Halifax, is dead, aged 84 years. Mrs. James W. Brebant, of Moncton, New Hampshire, is a daughter. His other daughter, Mrs. E. B. resident with her father. His sons are Dr. A. G. Hawkins of Halifax, and G. M. C. Hawkins of the Bank of Montreal, Fredericton, N. B. Mr. Hawkins was born at Murray Harbor, P. E. I., where he has an only brother, John Hawkins.

W. A. Burke

William Albert Burke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Burke, of a Wall street, died at his residence here today of a heart ailment. Besides his son, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. J. J. Terrell, and a son, John W. Burke, of this city.

Miss Margaret Cripps

The death of Margaret, wife of Geo. Cripps, occurred at the residence of her late husband, in the city, yesterday afternoon in the twenty-ninth year of her age, after a short illness. Her husband, who was a native of Scotland, was a well-known resident of this city.

years, afterwards traveling for the Eastern Mail, Stanfield Limited and Europa Hat & Cap Company. He was one of the most successful salesmen in the province. He leaves his wife, three only Miss Ethel Burrell, daughter of the late William Burrell of this town, and two children, a daughter, Rena, and a son, Ned.

William G. Clarke

William G. Clarke, only son of Doctor Clarke, of Kenville, N. S., died suddenly in Sydney, Australia, in the twenty-fourth year of his age. He is survived by his young wife, who was Miss Gertrude Boyd, of Bathurst, N. B., also his father and mother. He was well known in Nova Scotia, where his many friends will be shocked to hear of his sudden death. Mrs. Clarke is living in Canada.

Mrs. Keith Ryan

Mrs. John J. Ryan of Lakeside has received a telegram from her son, Keith, of Gardiner, Me., announcing the death of his wife, which took place Tuesday morning after a short illness. She leaves, besides her husband, one daughter a few weeks old.

Rev. Brother Liguori

Rev. Brother Liguori, who died in Lowell, Mass. last week, was a son of the late Thomas Murphy of South Branch, and was born in 1817. His mother, one brother and five sisters survive. One brother is Sister Veronica, of Prince Albert.

George Tippett

A telegram received by George Tippett of Fairville yesterday morning bore the sad news of the death of his brother John, which occurred at 9:30 o'clock Monday night in Boston. Mr. Tippett had been ill only a week with a cold, and as there was no thought of death the news came as a great shock to his relatives here. He had lived in Boston for twenty-three years, and had taken charge of the grocery firm of S. S. Pierce in Copley square. Previous to leaving here he was employed in the Cushing mill.

Wm. G. Newman

The death of a well known resident of North End occurred Monday at the home of his son, John F. Newman, aged about two months. He had been in the employ of the Portland Rolling Mills for nearly thirty years and was highly esteemed by his fellow workmen and other residents of the city. Besides his son, he is survived by five daughters and one daughter-in-law. The daughters are Mrs. D. R. Brown, of Newcastle; Mrs. Walter Hughes and Mrs. James L. Sugrue, of this city; Miss A. G. Newman of Halifax, and Miss Flosie Newman attending St. Mary's Academy, Newcastle. The sister is Mrs. Addie Monahan of Roxbury, Mass.

Charles A. Hawkins

Charles A. Hawkins, of Halifax, is dead, aged 84 years. Mrs. James W. Brebant, of Moncton, New Hampshire, is a daughter. His other daughter, Mrs. E. B. resident with her father. His sons are Dr. A. G. Hawkins of Halifax, and G. M. C. Hawkins of the Bank of Montreal, Fredericton, N. B. Mr. Hawkins was born at Murray Harbor, P. E. I., where he has an only brother, John Hawkins.

W. A. Burke

William Albert Burke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Burke, of a Wall street, died at his residence here today of a heart ailment. Besides his son, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. J. J. Terrell, and a son, John W. Burke, of this city.