RECRUITS LINING UP IN PROMISING FASHION AS CAMPAIGN GOES ON

Thursday, Sept.

From good to better is the second of the recruiting meetings in St. J.

Last night at a meeting for men only at St. Andrew's Rink thirty applied up. They ranged from a lad in knicker-bockers to a man who sees to have got on the brink of the fateful forty-five. It was the best meetyet in all senses, It was one in which the speaking was to possible recriftom first to last. In that it differed from the open air meetings in E. Square, where the proportion of women and children is necessarily great. The men ultimately accepted were:

ALBERT FINNEMORE, ST. JOHN.

LEONARD J. PORTER, ST. JOHN.

WALTER MORINE, BEAR RIVER.

CHAS. R. DOW, HONOLULU.

HAROLD McCABE, ST. JOHN.

GEORGE BURTON, YARMOUTH.

J. E. ADAMS, SUMMERSIDE.

WM. J. PIPPEY, NEWFOUNDLAND.

W. L. INGRAM, SCOTLAND.

W. J. STOME, ENGLAND.

ALBERT J. BANVELLE, MILFORD, ST. JOHN.

W. J. STONE, ENGLAND.

ALBERT J. BANVELLE, MILFORD, ST. JOHN.
RAYMOND HARGROVE, MUSQUASH.

Albert Finnemore is a valued member of The Telegraph's mechanical staff. He fought in the South Airtean was with distinction under Colonel (now Sir) Sam Hughes. He is of line physique. He has a wife and family.

One other mas who was accepted did not want his name published yet. Sergt. Norman Knight, of the Gosdon Highlanders, who has had a long experience, he told his hearers, as a preaches, was the chief factor. He reminds one of the method and the untrammeled success of Billy Sunday. He gets a grip of the human in the recruit. Cold print gives a poor idea of his fiery eloquence. But he rouses the right resolution in the waverer and spreads over the meeting an atmosphere that gets results for a big cause.

For the first time there was apparent at last night's meeting a pro-German expression. Two men in the assience, at intervals, said something that was drowned in the hub-bub that followed, and in prompt response to the cry of "Turn him out" they each had to go followed by hisses. There was no mistaking the rising feeling of the gathering, and it is perhaps typical of what is growing at last in Ganada where the people do not recognize the hyphenated anything.

Rev. W. O. Raymond will conduct the funeral service. The body will be taken to St. Mary's church, of which Mrs. Lipsett was a valued member. Interment will be in the Church of England burial ground, Thorne avenue.

Since which time he has practiced his profession in North Sydney with marked success.

Campbefi-Wanamaker.

A very pretty wedding took place at 8 p.m. on the 8th inst., at Clover Hill. Kings county (N. B.), when Mary MacLaren Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Campbell, became the bride of Rueben Richard Wanamaker. of Neuwigewauk (N. B.) The Rev. W. W. Malcolm, of East St. John, a cousin of the bride, performed the ceremony. The marriage took place in the orchard under an apple tree laden with fruit. Many relatives from St. John, Nauwigewauk, Amherst and nearby places attended the wedding. After the ceremony, supper was served in the orchard by the Quebec express for a short honey moon to P. E. Island, followed by best wishes of all. On their return they will reside in Nauwigewauk. Many costiy and useful presents were received by this popular young pair.
