

HOCKEY! HOCKEY!

RED DEVILS SET TO START CAMP

The pucks are on ice, and the skates are sharpened. The hockey season has begun, and the Red Devils Varsity Hockey Team is enthusiastic about their chances in the AUAA.

The Red Devils opened their Training Camp on the 14th with over 60 players hoping to fill just 25 positions. In preparation for the season the squad is holding two-a-day off ice workouts. League rules do not permit on-ice practices to commence until October 1st but once that magic date arrives, it shifts to 3 practices a day.

The Red Devils strength lies defensively. Sound goaltending, a revamped blueline, and increased size and speed up front should keep the Red Devils in the top three positions in the McAdam Division standings. Here is a brief breakdown of the team by position.

Head Coach Rick Nickelchok returns for his third year at the helm. This season marks a truer look at Nickelchok's team and not an inherited one. Assisting Coach Nickelchok are former Red Devil, and Fredericton Caps' Coach Mark Jeffrey, and Shane Parker. For Parker, it will be his second year with Nickelchok after stints in Kitchener, and the University of Waterloo. Nickelchok and Parker's efforts in recruiting has translated into talented freshmen.

Chris Perkins and Dave Caan return as the team's Athletic Trainers.

The men between the pipes have not looked this solid in years. Chris Somers (London Knights, OHL for 3 year), Scott MacDonald (Waterloo Siskins, All Ontario junior Champs, MVP), and Micheal Amadio from Tier II junior A in Sault St. Marie are ready to challenge Dean Frost. Don't count out Fredericton native Dave Gunn. Coach Nickelchok is going to have a tough decision.

Returning are all of last year's blueliners including, MPV Jamie Lehman, Bruce Carroll---now in Halifax, at the AHL Citadels Camp, Terry Langille, Ian Chernoff, Kevin McKinnon, and Rob Wood. Add Costa Papista, the smooth defenseman from London/Sudbury of the OHL, and monster-sized Dave McVicker from Guelph. This could be the most improved part of the Red Devils from this time last year.

Again everyone is returning up front for the Red Devils, but a sniper is a must to compliment the playmaking of "Rookie of the Year" Mark Sokalski. Look for big performances from Captain Renato Marino, and Hugh Hospodar. Kevin Jones from FHS will get a long look. Parker has said "he has unlimited potential at the AUAA level, with proper development".

Although Coach Nickelchok must face some difficult decisions about the roster, he must be pleased with all of the talent to choose from.

Oh---the team even has newly designed uniforms!

See what is with all this green, did every country change its color, and what is with all these helmets?

Dateline: Seoul, South Korea

The Olympic Organization Committee reported today that a reporter from New Brunswick, Canada had gotten lost and found his way into North Korea, but is presently returning to Seoul with co-operation from the North Korean authorities.

Dateline same day

The Olympic Organization Committee reported today that a reporter from New Brunswick has been mauled by a group of demonstrating students in downtown Seoul. Authorities are trying to rescue him at this time.

Where the hell did all these students come from and why are they so mad at me. All I wanted was the directions to the Olympic Village.

Stak-As-Tan Secret Belizian Report

It has come to our attention that Mr. Marks has resurfaced in South Korea. We think he is there trying to infiltrate our olympic team and siphon out important top secret material through our secret agents on the team. All agents are notified to keep a look out for him and apprehend him if spotted.

What the hell is this bill for an airplane ticket to Seoul, South Korea. It's Marks again isn't it. If I get my hands on him I'm going to ring his neck. He'll probably get in so much trouble we will probably have to send the marines in to get him again like last year at the European Soccer Match. What a mess! And then there was that Belizian agent murder in Calgary when Mark pushed him under that snow track. God I hope this doesn't get out of hand.

Eric is probably going banana's over the bill he just got. Well serves him right, dweeb. Let's see what trouble we can get into now.

Somewhere else in the world a dog named "spot" is playing in a field.
