

National students acquaint students universal accessibility lanned. Id like to hold a teach-ite government officials the government officials but 50 far our plans

ICCE FEES over alleged "hid-in joinders residence subsided after a more investigation by the Fou-iollege Student Council. Use and the service has been but other services have ed at no additional cost udent. Many thought that is had risen to the tune is service cutback. How-is actual rise in the fees a-a crual rise in the fees a-a crual rise in the fees a-a mere §3 for residence. To was not wasted how-inf, Founders' President. In was not wasted how-ing service offered for is service such as telephone wices such as telephone wices such as telephone rices in change are nother is the phones are both not inaccessible. Despite stallactons of shower cur-ies and a star with the approached the adminis-tion of priority. help of Fountain, met with charge of manager a long t students lot more said the thought. The publish a ful The main of the mee sult, examined of resident $815. York the highest stial service ministra bookstor that the cated tr blems ir store ir current The s had failed, the group moved ing the tunnel-living. Res kids want more more

Y

Somewhere in Viet Nam an American, 22 years old with a BA in English and a fiancee in some Illinois town, will step on a land mine and be blown apart on Christmas

At least two hundred Canadians will smash and maim each other in their automobiles, leaving well over one hundred Canadian children under 18 with no parents in the new year.

At least one man will die by electrocution

"privilege" and will get jobs selling shoes, or typing in offices, as they start to repay a student loan that wasn't adequate.

At least one person you know fairly well will probably submit or be submitted for psychiatric care in an institution. The largest department stores will realize their greatest profit ever, from this season's sales, while the Scott Mission will turn away 40 old men on Christmas day.

At least one lucky Canadian will die from an overdose of drugs, and another 15 will find themselves with permanent criminal liberate fire, because the father tried to register to vote.

One Canadian Indian will die from cirrhosis of the liver, 300 miles from the nearest doctor, and three Eskimo women will be flown to Toronto for a seven months rest in a TB ward.

A Metro mother of five, deserted by her husband and now living on welfare, will shoot herself while the kids are upstairs sleeping

All this, and more, during this Christmas season.

Have a very Merry Christmas.

letterslotsoflettersletshavelotsof