	26-12-41		Overcast and cold. Normal day flying with more snow in the evening.
	27-12-41		Overcast and cold, light snow in the morning. Normal flying.
	28-12-41		Clear and cold. As the unfavourable weather had put flying behind schedule to some extent, normal weekday flying was carried on all day and during the evening.
	29-12-41		Clear and cold, normal day and night flying. The first members of the Canadian Women's Auxiliary Air Force posted to this Station arrived this morning. They were Assistant Section Officer N.B. Elmsley, V80024, and W301401 Sgt. E.K. Goddard, and were here to see that everything was in readiness for the CWAAF personnel arriving in the next few days.
	30-12-41		Clear and moderately cold, normal flying. Everyone quite excited at the news that Prime Minister Winston Churchill is coming to the Station tomorrow morning. A Guard of Honour has been drilling yesterday and today in preparation. Special New Year's Leaves for most of the personnel have been cancelled until after the visit, additional time being given to compensate for this.
	31-12-41		Weather fairly cold, normal flying being carried on. The Prime Minister's visit is scheduled for 1000 hours, and the Guard, as well as other personnel, are eagerly awaiting him. Rockcliffe Band is in attendance, and the Guard, under the supervision of Sergeant Major Sullivan, looked very smart. As time went on, it was learned that the visit
