Ottawa, September 2, 1913.

Sir,-

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 26th ultimo, and in reply I beg to say that the Department approves of your suggestion to have the woodsheds at the Bear Creek and Back Settlement Schools painted by day labour. You may purchase the material and engage some reliable person to do the work.

You may also have the chimney at the Back Settlement School repaired.

The Department is pleased to know that the schools have all been scrubbed and cleaned.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

H. James, Esq.,
Indian Agent,
Delaware, Ont.
