

Let us look at the National Government Party.

When was it formed?

Not at a convention.

Not at the Conservative convention at which Dr. Manion was chosen leader.

True the Party changed its name at that Convention.

From National Liberal Conservative to National Conservative.

It was getting away from its national complexion into a straight party complexion.

Dr. Manion chosen its leader.

It was never formed.

Who chose its leader?

Dr. Manion was chosen leader of the Conservative party.

He would hardly chose a leader ~~from~~ another party.

Who then chose the leader?

No one can surmise.

Strange as it may seem, it was Dr. Manion himself.
