

Author's Note

The author wishes to acknowledge her indebtedness to the Rev. Dr. Arthur H. Smith for his kind permission to make use of certain facts and materials found in his book: China in Convulsion. These are notably translations of Boxer placards and incantations, and a quoted account which Dr. Smith gives of the Grand Council of June 16, 1900, embodied in the "Experiences of a Refugee at Peking and on the journey South," published in the North China Daily News, August 8th, 1900.

My

At

THE