We clip the following from 'he Globe with regard to the men visiting Lindsay on the 18th. They are a deputation from 'The Church Missionary Society, the largest society of the kind in the world. Mr. Stock is the Editorial Secretary of the society.
The following publications are under his care :—The Church Missionary Gleaner, with a total annual circulation of 834,240 copies; The Church Missionary Intelligencer, with a circulation of 71,950; The Children's World, 618,000; Awake, 429,500; Church Missionary Quarterly Paper, 80,000; Church Missionary token in English, 821,700, and in Welsh, 16,000; and the Sheet Almanac, 41,656 copies. Rev. Mr. Grubb is the chief of the home organization department of the Church Missionary.' The Society has about 5,000 Missionaries, counting native catechists and bible readers; its income amounts to over $3,000 a day, and many, many souls are being gathered out of heathen nations, and yet to God all the glory is ascribed, and this year its motto is "Not by might nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts."—Zech. 4:6.

The time of the year when to visit the sick and help the needy is pressed upon us is at hand. Friend, there are many opportunities to extend the Master's kingdom—"Go work to day in his vineyard."

Mr. Albert Lawrence, student in charge of Min'ten, is preparing a class of over 20 candidates to be presented to the Bishop for confirmation the end of this month.

Mr. H. Beecham, formerly of Cambray, who has been a student at St. John's College, Winnipeg, for the last few years, has entered Wycliffe College, Toronto, to take a course in divinity.

HOW TO BRING UP A SON.

Make home the brightest and most attractive place on earth. Make him responsible for the performance of a limited number of daily duties. Never punish him in anger. Do not ridicule his conceits, but rather talk frankly on matters in which he is interested. Let him feel free to invite his friends to your home and table. Encourage his confidence by giving ready sympathy and advice. Do not discourage "collection manias"; they help to give information and fix habits of investigation and perseverance. Be careful to impress upon his mind that making character is more important than making money. Live Christ before him all the time; then you will be able to talk of Christ to him with power when occasions offer. Be much in prayer for his salvation and spiritual growth.—[London Parish Visitor.
