

THE IMPERIAL BUDGET.

Burmah.

The official report on the frontier affairs of Burmah in 1891-92 shows that a vast amount of work was done during the recent cold season. Thus the whole of the northern Chin Hills was explored and reduced to comparative order. One hundred and ninety slaves were recovered during the year in the hills administered from Fort White, and the slave difficulty is considered as now settled there. The old trade between Chinland and Burmah is reviving, and increased quiet has enabled the authorities to withdraw several military posts. Similarly, in the southern Chin Hills, Lieut. Macnabb reports that our influence has been extended over the whole region without bloodshed, except in the Shurkwa affair.

Perhaps the most interesting part of the report is the light thrown on the cause of the serious troubles amongst the tribes on the Bhamo frontier. These, the report says, were due to a chain of Tsawbwas from Sansi, in China, to Thama, west of the Irrawaddy, having leagued to conduct some smuggling operations, in which they were subsidized by Chinese adventurers and winked at by Chinese officials. This league is now thoroughly broken up. A large amount of road and telegraph construction has been carried out on the frontier, nearly 100 miles of telegraph line being constructed during the year in the Bhamo district alone.

Mr. Fryer, while not supporting Sir A. Mackenzie's and Mr. Smeaton's views to the full on the opium question, has recommended prohibition in Lower as in Upper Burmah.

South Africa.

At a banquet in Cape Town the Hon. Cecil Rhodes, the Premier, deprecated the local desire for a united South Africa, and praised President Kruger for preferring to keep his independence. "What may happen in South Africa," he said, "or what she may bring forth we cannot say, but in our life time it is our duty to draw together the States of South Africa by means of railway and customs unions, which are all I can look forward to."

Sir John Robinson and Mr. G. M. Sutton, the delegates sent to England to confer with Lord Knutsford on the bill for the establishment of responsible government in Natal, have submitted their report to the Legislative Council. The only alteration made in the Bill is the omission of Clause 8 which provided that "Whenever any of the powers and authority vested in the Governor as Supreme of Paramount Native Chiefs shall be exercised, such powers and authority shall be exercised by the Governor in Council." The Council has now been dissolved and elections will soon be in progress.

In the late Council, which was elected on a similar issue, the Responsible Government party had a majority of four. The contest is likely to be more severe than before because this is the final appeal to the electorate. The opposition to the scheme for making Natal a self-governing colony is due to various causes. There is a feeling that if the Bill is passed the Imperial troops will be withdrawn, and that the onus of defense will thus fall upon the colony itself, while the purveyors to the forces object to the consequent loss of trade. It is further held that there are not enough men of sufficient standing and ability in Natal to bear the burden of ministerial responsibility in a self-governing colony. Personal questions also enter to some extent into the contest.

A GLENCARRY MIRACLE.

MR. JAMES SANDS' WONDERFUL RESTORATION TO HEALTH.

After Three Years of Paralysis, Insensibility, and Uselessness, He Tells the Tale of His Recovery and Renewed Work in the World—His Story as Told a Free Press Reporter.

The town of Alexandria, some 55 miles south of the city of Ottawa, on the Canada Atlantic Railway, has been completely astonished, recently, at the marvellous experience of a young man, who, after having been bed-ridden for nearly twelve months, and his case pronounced incurable by Montreal and Alexandria doctors, is now restored to complete health and strength.

Mr. James Sands is a young teamster, well known and extremely popular throughout the country side, and his illness and wonderful recovery have been indeed still are—the chief topics in the town and neighborhood. The story of his miraculous cure having reached Ottawa, a member of The Free Press staff journeyed to Alexandria and sought out Mr. Sands for the purpose of ascertaining the truth of the statements made regarding his recovery. Mr. Sands is a slimly built but wiry-looking young man of about 32 years of age, and when met by the newspaper man the bloom of health was on his cheek and his whole frame showed signs of unimpaired virgo and vitality.

The newspaper man told Mr. Sands the object of his visit, and the latter expressed his perfect willingness to give all the facts connected with his case. "I was," said Mr. Sands, "a complete wreck, given up by the doctors, but now I am well and strong again, and gaining strength every day. I was born in Lancaster in 1860, and up to three years ago I was always healthy and strong, living in the open air and being well-known throughout the whole country of Glen-garry. It was in the winter of 1888-89 that I first felt signs of incipient paralysis. I was then teamster for the sash and door factory here, and had been exposed to all kinds of weather. I then experienced violent twisting cramps in my right hand. I was in Cornwall that winter when the first stroke fell, and remained there for three days before I knew anybody at all. A medical man was called in but could do nothing for me. After that I came home and appeared to get all right for a time, but after a few days the old trouble began again, my hand continuing the twitching and cramping that had preceded the stroke. Up to twelve months ago these twitching fits were the only symptoms I suffered from. Then in August, 1891, when I was in Huntingdon village I sustained a second stroke, and remained unconscious for about seven hours. A doctor attended me and I recovered sufficiently to be brought home. After my return home the paralysis steadily gained on me and I lost the use of my right arm and leg entirely; my right eye was distorted and my tongue partially paralyzed. I was prescribed for by an Alexandria physician, whose treatment I fully followed, but it had no effect. I still got steadily worse, and about a month before Christmas last, I went to the English hospital at Montreal. Prof. Stuart and all the doctors came around me, as mine was a curious case, and the professor treated me. All the doctors could give me no satisfaction, and did not appear to understand my case. I questioned some of them, but they told me it was a hopeless case. I remained in the hospital a month, without the least improvement, and was then brought home, and remained in my bed till May day. I had constant medical advice, but continued to grow worse and worse. My right arm withered and I grew so weak and useless that I could not turn myself in bed. Meantime I had tried all sorts of patent medicines without the least effect. In May I saw an advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the papers, and said I would try them as a last resort. I had heard of the wonderful cures worked by Pink Pills, and told my folks to get me some. I had not taken them long when I found myself improving, and this determined me to continue their use. My strength gradually returned, the muscles of my arm and leg became invigorated and stronger, and I was able to sit up. I still continued taking the Pills and gaining strength, until at last I was able to go about, and finally to return to my old place at the sash and door factory. I gave up the Pills for a while, but did not feel so well, so I again began their use. I now feel as well as ever, though perhaps not quite so strong as formerly. You can see my right arm, which was withered, is now all right, and Mr. Sands stretched out amascular limb, which would have done credit to a blacksmith. In reply to the reporter Mr. Sands said he thought his trouble had been brought on through his exposure to the weather. "I am completely satisfied," said he, "that it is entirely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that I owe my wonderful restoration. Besides the medical treatment I had tried electricity and patent medicines, both internal and external, but without the slightest avail. After beginning Pink Pills I began to mend, and they have made a new man of me."

The newspaper man then called on Messrs. Ostrom Bros. & Co, widely known druggists, and interviewed their representative, Mr. Smith as to his knowledge of the case. Mr. Smith was fully conversant with the facts, and vouched for the story told by Mr. Sands, and further said that his hopeless case and remarkable recovery are known throughout Glen-garry country. In reply to the query if many of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold Mr. Smith replied that in his experience he had never handled a remedy that sold so well, or gave such general satisfaction to those using them, as everywhere glowing reports are heard of the excellent results following their use. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are not a patent medicine in the sense that word is understood. They are the results of years of experience and careful investigation. They are not a purgative medicine, but act directly upon the blood, and nerves, supplying those constituents required to enrich the former and stimulate the latter.

For all diseases depending upon a vitiated condition of the blood, or shattered nerves, they are an unfailing remedy. Such diseases as these speedily yield to their treatment. Locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, neuralgia, rheumatism, sciatica, nervous prostration, nervous headache, dyspepsia, chronic erysipelas, scrofula, etc. They are a specific for the troubles peculiar to females, correcting irregularities, and restoring the functions, and in the case of men effect a radical cure in all cases arising from over-work, mental worry or excesses of any nature. In fact it may be said of them

"They come as a boon and a blessing to men, Restoring to health, life and vigor again."

These Pills are manufactured by Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N. Y., and are sold in boxes (never in loose form) by the dozen or hundred and the public are cautioned against numerous imitations sold in this shape at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had at all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, from either address. The price at which these pills are sold make a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.
