DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE TORONTO

The Rev. A. R. H. Grant, rector of Great Warley, Essex, is to be the new rector of Sandringham, Norfolk. Mr. Grant, who is a son of Prebendary C. Grant, of Wells Cathedral, is an Oxford graduate. He also studied at Wycliffe Hall, Oxford, in 1905, and was ordained that year to the curacy of Walcot, Bath. Here he remained three years, when he accepted the living of Great Warley. In 1908, Mr. Grant married the Hon. Margaret Dawnay, a Maid of Honour to Queen Alexandra and the elder daughter of the late Colone! the Hon. Lewis Dawnay, and niece of Earl Grey, the ex-Governor-General of Canada. They have one little girl, who is named after Queen Alexandra. Mr. Grant's associations have always been Evangelical. He is but 30 years of age.

The new altar of Grace Church, Oak Park, Chicago, which was dedicated on Christmas Day, was designed by Mr. John Sutcliffe, and is in the English Gothic style of the fourteenth century. The mensa is of Arkansas marble. There are eight tons of this marble in the structure of the altar. The whole is built on a slab of reinforced concrete, and supported by concrete piers standing on the solid ground, according to the ancient canon of the Church. The sculptured panels represent the Transfiguration, the Crucifixion, and the Ascension. The Tabernacle is lined with white silk and the door and frame are of bronze. The Altar is furnished with the Eucharistic and the sevenbranched vesper lights.

God is too wise not to know all about us, and what is really best for us to be, and to have. And He is too good not to desire our highest good; and too powerful, desiring, not to effect it. If, then, what He has appointed for us does not seem to us the best, or even to be good, our true course is to remember that He sees further than we do, and that we shall understand Him in time, when His plans have unfolded themselves; meanwhile, casting all our care upon Him, since He careth for us.

On the Fourth Sunday in Advent the Bishop of New Jersey dedicated a new reredos in Christ Church, Trenton, N.J. It was recently erected to complete the altar, a memorial to "Edward Baker and his wife, sometime faithful communicants of this diocese." The reredos is of white marble, twelve feet long, and extending to the large chancel window. It is of Gothic design, with arches and columns to conform to the altar rail and chancel furniture. It is the gift of the Bishop of the diocese, who assigned to the purchase of it a sum of money left to him by Mr. Baker. This latest splendid addition practically completes the spacious memorial chancel, which is acknowledged to be the finest in the diocese.
