Sworn before me, C. D., J. Peace.

42. Every Commissioner and Surveyor of Roads, for any neglect of duties imposed upon him by this Act, shall be liable for every offence to a penalty of not less than eight dollars nor more than twenty dollars, to be recovered on the complaint of any freeholder; one half to be paid to the person suing for and recovering the same, and the other half to be applied for the improvement of the roads in the district where the offence was committed.

43. If any Commissioner of Roads shall neglect or refuse to render his account for all moneys received by him and work done under his direction, or shall retain in his hands any moneys contrary to the provisions of this Act, or not properly expend the same, any General Sessions may order him to be brought before them, and the officer receiving such order shall execute the same according to the exigency thereof: The Sessions, on such Commissioner being brought before them, may, if they see fit, commit him to gaol until he make due satisfaction, unless on cause shewn they deem it proper to discharge him.

44. The General Sessions of the Peace in the several Counties shall pay to Constables and other officers, their reasonable fees for services performed under this Act, not otherwise provided for.

45. Prosecutions and proceedings against delinquents for any neglect to pay the commutation money, or to perform work as required by the twenty third, twenty fourth, twenty fifth, twenty sixth, twenty seventh, and twenty ninth Sections of this Act, shall be on complaint of the Commissioners, and in their name of office, and the proceedings shall be regulated as nearly as may be by the law in force relating to Actions before Justices of the Peace in Civil Suits; and no such proceedings shall cease by reason of any change of Commissioners, but may be continued by succeeding Commissioners.

46. In all actions for the recovery of fines or penalties, or other moneys under this Act, the party may be held to bail on the oath of any Commissioner of Roads.
