AVIATOR EXPECTS TO GET UP TO-DAAY

He Has Had Hard Luck in Getting Right Kind Of Propeller.

Aviator Carlstrom was a much chagrined young man yesterday. His propeller arrived from Chicago, and he immediately journeyed to the big field in the Holmdale to make his flight. He had not taken the pains, however to unpack the propeller, until he got to the field. Then he found that it was the wrong one. His order had not been filled properly. He immediately returned to the telegraph office and the wires were hot. It is expected that the missing part will arrive on an early afternoon train. In the meantime Carlstrom is struggling to get the propeller wrongly shipped, to work so as to meet the emergency. He likes flying and promises two flights daily, if he can break the hoodoo. Mr. Victor Levitt, manager of the carnival, expressed keen disappointment and frankly admitted that any brand of airships gave him dyspepsia. The carnival last evening was a hummer, several thousand people being in attendance.

THE MYSTERY OF AGATHA WEBB.

By Anna Katharine Green, Author of "The Levenhoeys Case," "Hand and Ring," "Etc., Etc."

With sinking heart Mr. Sutherland let his eyes drop from this flying figure to search for the man whom a little while before he had seen following impetuously behind his son. He was following him still and hastened by the house just as Mr. Sutherland's glance fell on him, so that whatever was strange or pitiful in the foregoing scene must have had this man for a witness.

A half hour afterward Mr. Sutherland reached home. He had not overtaken Frederick again or even his accompanying shadow. Ascertaining at his own door that his son had not yet come in, but had been seen going farther up the hill, he turned back again into the road and proceeded after him on foot.

DOCTORS DID NOT HELP HER

But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Mrs. Bradley's Health - Her Own Statement.

Winnipeg, Canada. "Eleven years ago I went to the Victoria Hospital, Montreal, suffering with a growth. The doctors said it was a tumor and could not be removed as it would cause instant death. They found that my organs were affected, and said I could not live more than six months in the condition I was in."

"After I came home I saw your advertisement in the paper, and commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it constantly for two years, and still take it at times, and both my husband and myself claim that it was the means of saving my life."

"I highly recommend it to suffering women." - Mrs. ORILLA BRADLEY, 284 Johnson Avenue, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Can.

"Why will women take chances or drag out sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?"

"For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been tormented with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc."

"If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence."

That he would be quiet also did not speak of what he had that night seen. Why, then - But to the hope thus given this honest-hearted gentleman would yield no quarter, and, seeing a duty before him, a duty he dare not shrink, he brought his emotions, violent as they were, into complete and absolute subjection, and, opening Mr. Halliday's door, entered the house. They were old neighbors, and ceremony was ignored between them.

Flinding the hall empty and the parlor door open, he walked immediately into the latter room. The sight that met his eyes never left his memory. Agnes, his little Agnes, whom he had always loved and whom he had vainly endeavored to call by the endearing name of daughter, sat with her face toward him, looking up at Frederick. That young gentleman, who had just spoken to her, or she had just received something from his hand, for her own was held out, and her expression was one of gratitude and acceptance. She was not a beautiful girl, but she had a beautiful look, and at this moment she was exalted by a feeling the old gentleman had once longed, but now dreaded, inexpressibly, to see there.

"What could it mean? Why did she show that interest, devotion, passion almost, at this special moment of her life, when in all the years that had gone by, and when it was the dearest wish of his heart to see these two united, she had never betrayed in all their intercourse anything but distrust, if not an uneasy dislike? It was one of the roots of the trouble - penetrates where an oil liniment cannot go. To prevent lumbago returning, put on a Nerviline Porous Plaster which removes inflammation and strain from the muscles, and acts as a guard from drafts and exposure. Nothing will so quickly cure these troubles. All dealers sell Polson's Nerviline and Nerviline Porous Plasters. Refuse all substitutes.

Remedy for Ants Dear Mrs. Lincoln: As I am a constant reader of your Talks and see how much you help others I come also for a little help. My pantry is infested with ants and as they get into everything it is annoying. Can you tell me what to do to rid of them? THANKFUL

Buffalo Oil of lemon, which may be procured from any druggist, is a safe remedy for the ant pest. Put a few drops of the oil about where they are most troublesome and insects will soon depart.

Those Silly Questions Barber: "How would you like to have your hair cut, sir?" Customer: "With scissors, sir! Did you suppose I wanted it done with a scythe?"

The Alternative George (making poor headway): "Will nothing induce you to change your mind and marry?" Dorothy: "Another man might."

THE HOT WEATHER TEST makes people better acquainted with their powers of strength and endurance. Many find they need Hood's Sarsaparilla, which invigorates the blood, promotes refreshing sleep and cures nervous, hot, tired feeling.

He Got the Guinness

A pretty story is told of a noble man whom his barber left half-shaved and in a great hurry. His lordship thought the man was mad, and sent to enquire after him. He returned in person and thus explained himself: "I was not mad; my lord; but the sight of that heap of guineas on your dressing-table, and the remembrance of my starving family so affected me, that if I had stayed another minute I should have cut your throat."

A Gentle Hint Mr. Weerius was making a call. "I never take any chances with holdup men," he remarked, looking at his watch to fill up a pause in the conversation. "When I am likely to be out late at night I always carry my dollar watch."

"Why, there's no danger this time, is there?" smiled his hostess. "It's only 9 o'clock, and it certainly won't take you more than half an hour to get home."

Wouldn't Cost Much A solicitor called upon a professor. At brother one day and asked his advice upon a point of law. The lawyer whose opinion had been sought said: "I generally get paid for what I know."

The questioner thereupon handed $5 dollars out of his pocket, handed it to the other, and remarked: "Tell me all you know, and give me the change!"

Dawning Knowledge A man travelling in the country met a middle-aged farmer who said his father, ninety years old, was still on the farm where he was born.

"Yes, father is close to ninety?" "Is his health good?" "Tain't much now. He's been complain' for a few months back."

"What's the matter with him?" "I dunno; sometimes I think father don't agree with him."

Inventive Genius Gibbs: "I went on a railway journey the other day and took a box of cigars with me."

Nitbs: "Well, I suppose you had a good smoke?" Gibbs: "Aye, I had that; but when the train had started I found I had no matches."

Nitbs: "No matches, and yet you enjoyed a good smoke? How did you manage for a light?" Gibbs: "Well, you see, I opened the box, took out one, and that made the box a cigar lighter."
