and interesting ceremony at St. James Church on Tuesday, Sept. 9th, in the parish. The contractants being Harold Munro, Barrister of Regina, formerly of Millfield Mills, only son of the late Roland Chase and Mrs. Chase with Ernestine Alice Ward eldest daughter of the late Gerald Lechmere Ward and Mrs. Ward and granddaughter of the late Capt. Owen Ward and Mrs. Ward of "Willey Park" Farnham Surrey, England. The bride was beautifully gowned in a tailored suit of Alice blue English whip cord with touches of Bulgarian trimming and picture hat of black velvet with white ostrich trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of carnations and roses. The church was beautifully decorated with daffodils by the W. A. of St. James Church of which the bride was a member. The young couple were unattended. The bride entered the church on the arm of Dr. W. B. Moore to the strains of the wedding march which was beautifully rendered by Mr. A. H. Morash.

The ushers were Claude Ward eldest brother of the bride, and Charles Webster Jr. cousin of the bride. The presents were numerous and valuable showing the popularity of both parties. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome fur coat. After the ceremony they left for their future home in Regina, spending a few days at the principal cities on their way.

Mrs. Chase will be much missed in Kentville where she has a very large circle of friends, she has been a valued member of the choir in St. James Church. The best wishes of all go with the newly wedded couple to their future home in the west.

NORTH-HEALY

St. John's Church Cornwallis was the scene of a very pretty and pleasing event, when on Wednesday morning, September 10th, Miss Eliza Healy, of Church St. and Mr. J. R. North, of Canning were united in holy bonds of matrimony. The Rev. John D. Hull performed the ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated by their friends for the occasion. As the hymn was being sung the bride, looking most charming in her tailored suit of grey and hat to match, came up the aisle leaning on the arm of her uncle Mr. Elijah Armstrong who also gave her away. There was a very large congregation present to witness the ceremony and to show the esteem and regard in which the bride and groom were held. Mrs. J. R. Starr played the wedding march. After the ceremony the happy couple repaired to the home of Mrs. J. Healy where a sumptuous luncheon was served, only the relatives of the bride and groom being present. The bride was the recipient of many handsome gifts. Amid showers of confetti and good wishes the bride and groom left for their wedding trip to St. John and other points.

WHITING-DAVIS

The marriage of Mr. Alfred Whiting of Birmingham England and Miss Jennette Treva daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Davis of Kentville N. S. took place in the Episcopal Church at Regina Sask., on Friday Aug. 29th., the ceremony being performed by the Rev. G. Hill. Both bride and groom were unattended. The bride was dressed in pale blue satin with silk lace trimmings, and wore a black and white picture hat. Mr. and Mrs. Whiting left on a short wedding trip, after their return they will reside in Pense Sask. The bride's travelling suit was of dark blue tailored serge with hat to match.
