The practical side of science is reflected in

PATENT RECORD

A monthly publication of inestimable value to the student of every day scientific problems, the mechanic, the industrial expert, the manufacturer, the inventor—in fact, to every wide-awake person who hopes to better his condition by using his brains. The inventor, especially, will find in The Patent Record a guide, philosopher and friend. Nothing of importance escapes the vigilant eyes of its corps of expert editors. Everything is presented in clean, concise fashion, so that the busiest may take time to read and comprehend. The scientific and industrial progress of the age is accurately mirrored in the columns of The Patent Record, and it is the only publication in the country that prints the official news of the U. S. Patent Office and the latest developments in the field of invention without fear or favor.

—42 years ago—D Fisher, proprietor of the well known carriage works of that name, celebrated the 42 anniversary of his landing in this burg, then a boy scarcely out of his teens. Mr Fisher during his long residence here has built up a fine business and has also taken an active part in the town's welfare. The Reporter extends to him best wishes for many more years of labor in our midst.

THE LATE MRS. CHAMBERLAIN

The death occurred at Delta on Friday last, of a highly respected resident in the person of Mrs Chamberlain, wife of Mr Geo Chamberlain, furniture dealer in her 35th year. She was selected as a delegate from the Methodist church, to attend the W.C.T.U convention held at Almonte recently, and had got as far as Brockville when she was taken ill and had to return home again. Her condition was not considered serious until Wednesday when she grew weaker and on Friday death came to relieve her suffering. The funeral services were held on Sunday at the Methodist church, where Rev Earl preached an impressive funeral sermon, after which her remains were placed in the Delta vault. The large attendance present testified to the high esteem in which she was held.

DEATH OF MRS. NELLIE POMEROY.

We are in receipt of a copy of the Moline Review-Dispatch of September 27, published near Okego, Ill., in which the death of Mrs. Nellie Pomeroy is announced.

Mrs. Nellie Sherman, daughter of James and Mary (Blanchard) Sherman was born at Elizabethtown, Upper Canada, now Ontario, Nov. 9, 1824, and died Sept. 19, 1901 age 76 years, 10 months, 10 days. She married George Pomeroy Nov. 11, 1841. He died May 27, 1893. Their children are: Levia A., Mrs. T. W. Reese of Colons; James L. who died in infancy; Amasa A. of Abington; Emory A. of DeLamar, Nev.; Maria M., who died at the age of 19; Carolina A. and Nellie Martine, who died in infancy; Elmina E., Mrs. John P. Hanna of Colons; Charles A. of Grand Forks, N. D., and C. Edward of Colons. Also Mrs. John Lyons of Moline is her niece and adopted daughter, and helped take care of her during her last illness of six months' duration. Of her twenty grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren, fourteen of the former and ten of the latter survive.

She moved with her family to Western township, Henry county, Ill., in 1857, and to near Kellogg, Iowa, in 1868, and to Colons, Ill., in 1870, where she continued till her demise.

Brought up in the Quaker religion, she joined the Methodist Episcopal church at the age of 16, and continued till death. She was noted for her liberality and her simple and joyous faith, and her memory will long be cherished by many as precious.

Mr. and Mrs. Pomeroy were well known to many of the residents of Athens and Greenbush, and where the most of their children were born. Mrs. Pomeroy was a cousin of Anos Blanchard, butcher, Athens, and Alexander Blanchard, Greenbush and Mrs. Unice Brown, near Addison, also aunt of Arza N. Sherman of this village. Mr. Pomeroy was noted as the manufacturer of a celebrated salve known as "Pomeroy's Green Mountain Salve," the formula of which is in the hands of some of the older residents of this section, and is highly prized for its curative powers.

THE BISHOP'S VISIT TO PARISH OF LANSDOWNE REAR

His Lordship the Bishop of Ontario paid his annual visit to this parish on Thursday, 17th inst. Notwithstanding the weather was unfavorable and the roads bad, the attendance at the several churches was large. In the morning he visited Trinity church, Lansdowne Rear, and administered the apostolic rite of Confirmation, and celebrated the Holy Eucharist. There was a good sized class confirmed, and a large class of communicants.

The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, and the singing of the choir was excellent. Mrs W Warren presided at the organ. His Lordship preached a most telling sermon and addressed the candidates in a fatherly manner. His sermon and addresses will not be soon forgotten by the congregation.

After lunch, which was most bountifully served by Orman Green, to His Lordship and visiting clergy, a start was made for St. Paul's church, Delta, where service was held, Confirmation administered and an eloquent sermon and address given by the Bishop. The ladies of the congregation deserve the greatest praise for the way in which their church was decorated with flowers and plants, and also Miss Godkin, for the able way in which she presided at the organ.

The bishop and the clergy then went to Athens, where, after supper at the Rectory, service was held in Christ church. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather and the darkness of the evening, the sacred edifice was filled to the doors by a most fervent congregation. Chairs from the school room were placed in every available space to accommodate the crowd attending. Service was said by the Rev W G Swayne of Frankville, confirmation administered and address by the Bishop. The church here was also handsomely decorated with plants and flowers by the ladies. The choir under the able direction of Miss M J Wright, organist, rendered the chants and hymns in a most hearty manner and the whole service was most inspiring. The offerings at the different services were devoted to the Diocesan Fund. The Bishop was accompanied on his tour in the parish by the Rev J de P Wright, M.A., missionary of North Addington, who in all the churches assisted at the services, and received a hearty welcome from his many friends. The greatest praise is due A. W Johnston for the manner in which he transferred Bishop and Clergy to the different stations.

His Lordship acknowledged he enjoyed one of the most comfortable and fastest drives in his visit to the Diocese. The sermons and addresses delivered by His Lordship during his visit to Lansdowne Rear Parish were models of clearness and full of the teaching of the Gospel of Christ, and will under God's blessing, be productive of much good. The Reporter, Rural Dean Wright, is much encouraged in his work by the success attending the visit of His Lordship.

District Happenings.

Mrs. Vancamp, of Easton's Corner died at her home, after a period of two or three months illness, on Wednesday last aged 59 years.

Renfrew is experimenting in the work of domestic science in connection with its schools for girls between the ages of 12 to 14 years.

Ethel McDonald, daughter of James McDonald, was married to Harry Sheldon on Thursday night at the Methodist church, South Elmsley.

John A. McNeil of the G.T.R. is in Lansdowne, visiting his mother who is 100 years old. The old lady, though weak in body, is still in full enjoyment of her mental faculties.

The barn of Mr. James Shanks, of Smith's Falls, was burned on Monday, 14th. The supposition was that his 4-year-old son dropped a lighted match in the chaff on the floor which caused the conflagration. The insurance of $200 will not nearly cover the loss.

Mr. Alex Edmison, of Rosemeath, had an exciting experience recently. He drank a glass of milk, which suited him so well that he decided to have another, in which a hornet had dropped, with the result that both milk and insect went down together. A physician had to be called to relieve him of his pain.

Mr. Robert Cairnduff, of Smith's Falls, died on Monday, 14th, at the ripe old age of 84. He was born at Cairnduff, on Nov. 5th, 1816. At the age of 22 years he married Miss Margaret Graham, of Board Mills, Ballycargawin, and who survives him and is in her 84th year. Directly after they were married they emigrated to the new world and settled for five years in Kitley township, afterwards removing to a farm of 225 acres of his own in Montague township.
